2007-08 Outlook

Carolina returns three starters, led by Tyler Hansbrough, a two-time All-America and a leading candidate for National Player of the Year honors, and 10 other letterwinners from last year's squad that went 31-7, won the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season and Tournament titles and came within an overtime loss to Big East champion Georgetown of a berth in the Final Four.

Head coach Roy Williams, who was inducted in September into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, directs an experienced squad that should be among the favorites in the conference and national races.

"If you look back at last year – the seniors graduated, we won 31 games, the ACC regular season and Tournament and reached the Final 8," says Williams. "Over the last six years, our teams at Kansas and Carolina have won more games than anyone else. We graduate our players, we have guys who are successful and reach their dreams with the NBA, and we've won games. But losing that last game leaves a bad taste during the offseason and the guys who are returning this year have reminded themselves of that feeling each day and are determined to do something about that."

The Tar Heels lose three prominent players from a year ago, including seniors Reyshawn Terry and Wes Miller and freshman Brandan Wright, the No. 8 pick in the first round of the 2007 NBA Draft.

"We have to replace three guys who at times could change the game defensively," says Williams. "Wes always graded out really well over the course of two years, Reyshawn was at times our best defender and Brandan could erase a lot of mistakes and block shots. You don't lose a guy who is the eighth pick in the NBA draft and not lose something. And it's tough to lose a guy like Reyshawn who at times could play like the best defender I have ever coached.

"The other guys will be able to replace the points, but who is going to step forward and make the plays defensively that those kids made? Offensively, Wes was able to stretch the floor with threes, Brandan shot 65 percent and did a great job passing the basketball and Reyshawn took over games like NC State in the ACC Tournament final and Michigan State. Yes, we have a lot of guys back, but our losses are real, they're not just paper losses. Those three were extremely important to us."

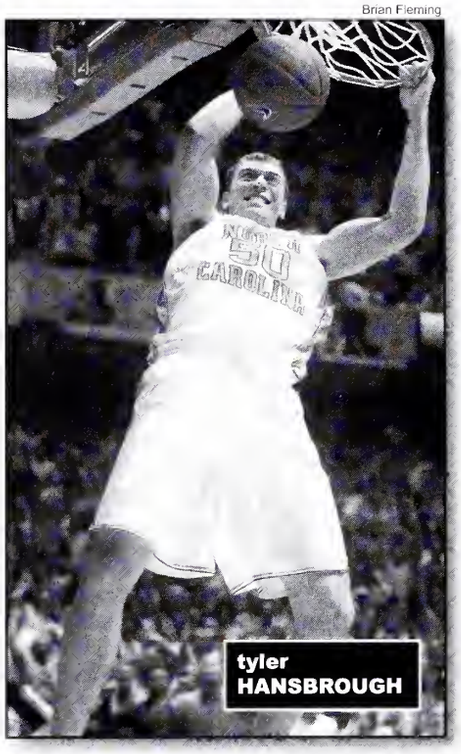
No player in the country has been more important or more valuable to his team the last two years than Hansbrough, a 6-9, 250-pound junior from Poplar Bluff, Mo. Two years ago he became the first freshman in ACC history to earn first-team All-America honors and last season he became just the fifth Tar Heel sophomore to earn consensus first-team All-America honors.

Hansbrough has averaged 18.6 points and 7.9 rebounds and is on pace to rewrite the Carolina record book. He was a unanimous first-team All-ACC selection for the second year in a row, joining Lennie Rosenbluth, Billy Cunningham and Michael Jordan as the only Tar Heels ever to achieve that distinction.

Hansbrough has 16 career double-doubles, scored in double figures 63 times in 69 games, scored 20 or more points 30 times and attempted double-digit free throws on 23 occasions. He's converted 429 free throws, better than six a game, and is already ninth in UNC history in free throws made.

"The big fella's had two phenomenal years," says Williams. "Tyler is the most focused player I've ever been around. He has a chance to be the leading scorer and rebounder in Carolina history. I'm expecting a fantastic junior year with the same kind of numbers he's put up before if not better. He has big expectations, but he handles it really well. I don't think he pressures himself or puts himself in a position where he's afraid to make a mistake. He has tremendous dreams and work ethic and he just goes, goes, and goes.

Brian Fleming



"Tyler has really gotten better defensively. We need him to continue to improve his assist-error ratio. Without Brandan, some coaches may double-team him even more and that will give our other big men a free run to the boards, so guys like Deon Thompson and Alex Stepheson have to take advantage of those scenarios and make other coaches question doing that."

Hansbrough is one of five returning players who have spent time in the Tar Heel starting lineup at some point in the last two years. Sophomore guards Wayne Ellington and Ty Lawson were regulars in the first five last year and juniors Bobby Frasor and Marcus Ginyard made a combined 45 starts in 2005-06.

Ellington, a 6-4 shooting guard from Wynnewood, Pa., led the Tar Heels in three-point field goals with 66. He was UNC's third-leading scorer at 11.7 points a game, scoring in double figures 27 times with a high of 19 twice, including against Ohio State.

Ellington, who made the USA Team that played in the Pan Am Games this summer, averaged 14.7 points in the ACC Tournament and was selected to the All-Tournament Team after leading the Tar Heels in scoring in two of the three wins.

"I think Wayne will have a great year for us," says Williams. "As he gets more experienced, his field goal percentage will go up and that will open up things inside for us. He's a terrific shooter. Now he has to do it more consistently in games. He knows he has to get better defensively, so he really emphasized it in his off-season work."

Lawson, a 5-11 speedster from Clinton, Md., led the ACC in assist-error ratio as a freshman despite the Tar Heels' fast-paced, attack style of offense. He had 184 assists and just 64 turnovers in his 31 starts, having moved into the starting lineup in the season's sixth game.

"Ty was really good through the first two-thirds of the season, but improved to another level during the last third of the regular season and the ACC and NCAA Tournaments," says Williams. "We hope he can start this year at that level. He was so much more mature, disciplined, and aware of how to take care of his body and do the little things to help you win. Considering the tempo at which we want to play, his assist-error numbers were phenomenal."

Lawson earned All-ACC Rookie Team honors and was a first-team All-ACC Tournament choice. He scored in double figures 22 times, had more assists than turnovers in 32 games and had 45 assists and just 13 miscues in the seven postseason contests.

Ginyard, a 6-5 swingman from Alexandria, Va., is likely Carolina's most versatile player. He was the team's defensive player of the year in 2006-07 and became one of the team's best offensive rebounders. He played two of his best games in the home win over Duke (13 points, two assists) and in the comeback win over Southern California in the NCAA East Regional (10 points, nine rebounds).

"Marcus is so intelligent he found ways to make me put him in the game," says Williams. "He's a solid defender, got much better on the offensive glass and does all the little things. He could have a real breakout year. Last year, he found his niche. He figured out the Jackie Manuel way to get into the starting lineup – don't make mistakes and come up with big plays – and he did that."

Ginyard improved his field goal percentage from .407 to .473 and improved his assist-error ratio from minus 5 to plus 14.

Frasor, a 6-3 native of Blue Island, Ill.,

started every game as a freshman at point guard, but last year had a frustrating season plagued by a foot injury that limited him to 28 games and 10 minutes an outing.

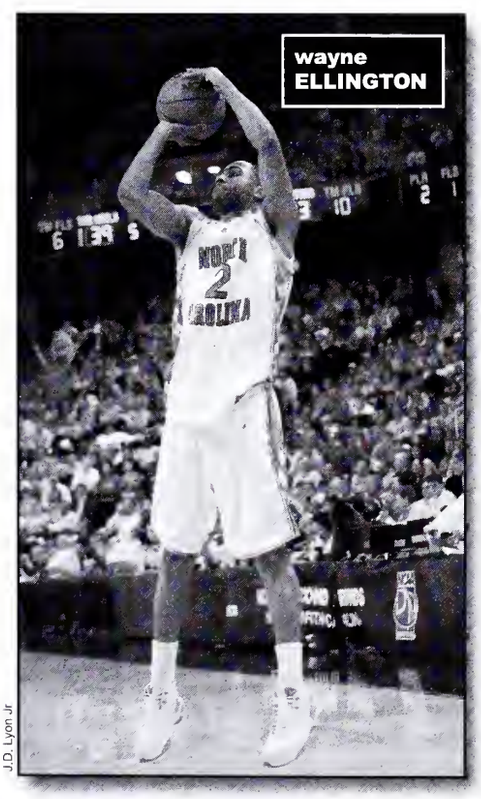
Frasor started the first five games, but missed the next six contests with a bruised hip and sore right foot. He returned to action in early January, but aggravated the foot injury at Virginia Tech and played double-figure minutes only three times in the final 21 contests. He played a key role in Carolina's win at Duke, hit three from beyond the three-point arc and had 11 points against Gonzaga and had five assists and no turnovers in the ACC Tournament semifinals against Boston College.

"I am curious to see how his foot holds up," says Williams. "Bobby had a marvelous freshman year, and last year was extremely tough on the youngster because of his foot. But I have complete confidence in Bobby based on what he showed me his freshman year when he was healthy. He started at point guard on the youngest team I have ever coached and that team won 23 games and was a three seed in the NCAA Tournament. I think he can be even better than that when he is healthy."

Quentin Thomas is the lone scholarship senior on the team, which for the first time features only scholarship players recruited by Williams and his staff. Thomas has improved each year as a Tar Heel. He has played in 92 games and amassed 172 assists and 106 turnovers. Last year, he missed nine of the first 13 games with a stress fracture in his left foot. He returned in January and finished with 47 assists and 21 turnovers. He had a career-high eight assists against Miami and played his best overall floor game in the win over Virginia.

"I expect 'Q' to have his best year," says Williams. "He's more relaxed, which means he can play with more confidence, which leads to better play."

Thomas and Frasor are such good ball-handlers,



J.D. Lyon Jr.

Williams may give them time at the two-guard spot, especially in late-game situations when taking care of the ball is so critical.

Two juniors, two sophomores and a red-shirt freshman will join Hansbrough in the frontcourt.

Danny Green has shown the ability, but not yet the consistency Williams needs for him to secure a starting position. The 6-6 junior from North Babylon, N.Y., can shoot the ball, rebounds well and led the team in blocked shots as a freshman. He scored in double figures four times last year with a high of 14 at Saint Louis, when he connected on four three-pointers. He pulled down six or more boards six times, including eight in the home win over NC State and against USC in the NCAA Sweet 16.

"Danny can cross the line from the three to the four," says Williams. "He's a great free throw shooter, has become a better defender and is good around the backboard. I like him at the four in late-game spots because he can do those things. He's another guy who I think is going to have a big-time year for us."

Sophomores Thompson and Stepheson gained experience last year that should help prepare them for significantly larger roles, especially with Wright moving on to the NBA's Golden State Warriors.

Thompson, a 6-9, 240-pound native of Torrance, Calif., averaged 12.4 minutes a game and shot 55.8 percent from the field as a freshman. He scored 14 points in his one start at Arizona when Wright was ill and also had 14 points and six rebounds in the NCAA regional final against Georgetown.

This summer, Thompson was Team USA's third-leading scorer (10.0 ppg) and the leading rebounder (6.1) in the Under-19 World Championships. He had 18 points and 13 boards against France in the semifinals and 17 points against Lithuania.

"People are expecting a lot from Deon because he played well in the Georgetown game, they've heard how hard he worked on his body in the off-season and he was one of the leading players for Team USA this summer," says Williams. "That's okay, because I'm expecting a lot out of him, too. He's further along in his game offensively and he knows we need him to pick up his play on the defensive end."

Stepheson and Thompson complement each other's game nicely, as Stepheson is more comfortable at this point in his career as a defender, rebounder and shot blocker. The 6-9, 225-pound sophomore from Los Angeles grabbed 84 rebounds in 242 minutes last year, which translates to 13.8 rebounds per 40 minutes. He had eight games with five or more rebounds, including six against Georgetown and six more to go along with 10 points in the win at Arizona.

"Defense and rebounding are two areas where Alex is really doing a nice job," says Williams. "He's going to step in and play a lot of minutes this year."

Mike Copeland, a 6-7 junior from Winston-Salem, and Will Graves, a 6-6 Greensboro native who redshirted last year, round out the lineup.

"Mike is getting better offensively, but he knows he must concentrate better on defense and finish defensively by boxing out," says Williams. "As he improves as a defender, he will get an opportunity to help us this year."

Graves can play anywhere from shooting guard to either forward slot. He worked last year not only on his game, but also on his conditioning and physique. He won two high school state championships at the Smith Center while at Dudley High

J.D. Lyon Jr.

"Most kids who redshirt take the year off, but Will didn't do that," says Williams, "particularly in the way he worked on his body. He's lost about 30 pounds since he came to college. At some point he will become an important player for us. When that will be remains to be seen, because he has to do it with people in the seats."

This is the first time in Williams' 20 years as a college head coach that he doesn't have a scholarship player who is new to the program on the first day of practice. That should allow the coaches to hit the ground running on October 13.

"Yes, we can go faster," says Williams. "We'll start at the same spot to give them the foundation, but we will go faster and expect more from the guys because of the experience level. We expect Ty, Wayne, Deon and Alex to take major steps forward because they've been through the philosophy, the style, practices, terminology, the whole offensive and defensive systems. I expect them to make major improvements because of the confidence and comfort level they've gained."

Williams says the biggest area of need for improved play centers on defense. Even though the Tar Heels held the opposition to 41.6 percent shooting from the floor for the season, that figure jumped to 51.2 percent in the seven defeats. Getting "must stops" at key moments was not to the level Williams demands from great teams.

"We must flat-out guard people better, play better defense from day one – it has to be our emphasis," says Williams. "They will be better at it because of another year's experience, but we will emphasize it in practice more than ever before."

Carolina's primary strength is the team's experience level and the fact that Hansbrough is one of the top players in the game.

"So many guys have been through it," says Williams. "I think we will be a well-rounded club that can score inside, can shoot from the three-point land, and with our rebounding and in particular with Lawson's speed we can really push the ball. But we have to defend."

NOTING FRASOR

Started every game at point guard as a freshman but suffered through an injury-plagued sophomore campaign • Missed 10 games over two different stretches, but was never completely healthy • Can play either guard position, as he is an excellent ball-handler and shooter • One of the best leaders on the team • Has 182 assists and 96 turnovers in two seasons • Career highs include 17 points (NC State), 12 assists and five steals (Saint Louis).

SOPHOMORE SEASON (2006-07)

Had 46 assists and 21 turnovers • Played in 28 games • Had more assists than turnovers in 15 games • Averaged 17.4 minutes in the first seven games and 7.7 minutes in 21 games after injuring his foot • Attempted only eight free throws all year • Missed 10 games in two different stretches due to an injured right foot • Started at the point in the first five games through the Preseason NIT, came off the bench against Ohio State and Kentucky, then sat out six games due to a sore right foot and bruised hip • Had a season-high five assists against Winthrop • Hit a career-high three three-point field goals vs. Gonzaga • Hit two three-pointers and had three assists and no turnovers in 18 minutes against Ohio State • Played seven minutes against Penn on Jan. 3, his first action since the Kentucky game on Dec. 2 • Came off the bench to hit a three-pointer and another long jumper from the wing to cut Penn's 10-point lead in half • Re-injured his right foot on a drive to the basket in the final minute of the first half in the loss at Virginia Tech on Jan. 13 • Sat out the second half of that game plus the next four games • Returned to action against Miami on Jan. 31 when he played nine minutes and had two assists and two turnovers against the Canes • Key contributor in win at Duke • Had two steals, an assist and no turnovers in 12 minutes, his longest stint since the Kentucky game on December 2 • Was on the floor as the Tar Heels came from nine points down to within two points • Had a steal and lay-up in that span, his first field goal since the Florida State game on Jan. 7 • Had four assists, his best showing since he had four and five assists in the first two games of the season, and three points in win over NC State • Had five points, three assists, no turnovers and two steals in 14 minutes at Maryland • Highest scoring output in an ACC game this year • At Georgia Tech, he started for the first time since the Tennessee game on Nov. 24 • Scored three points and had one assist in nine minutes • Had three points and two assists in 86-72 win over Duke • Fast break assist to Hansbrough for three-point play gave UNC a 53-48 lead after Duke pulled within two points midway through the second half • Had five points against Boston College in the ACC Tournament semifinals • Hit both of his three-point attempts.

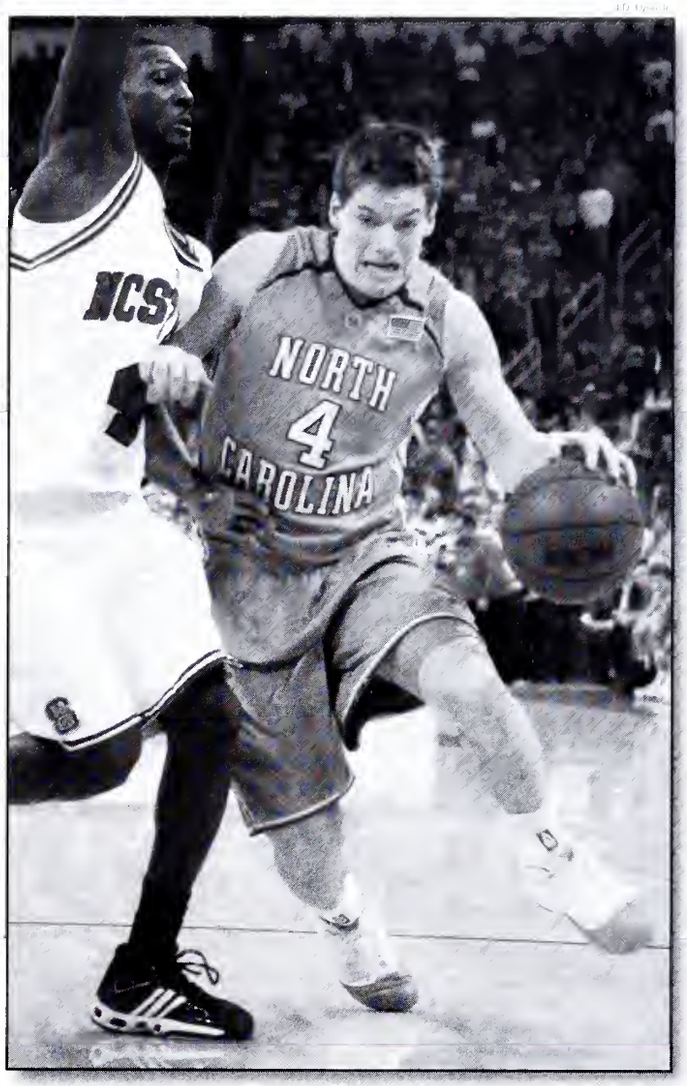
FRESHMAN SEASON (2005-06)

One of two Tar Heels (with Tyler Hansbrough) on the 2006 ACC All-Freshman Team • Third Tar Heel point guard to make the ACC Freshman Team (Ed Cota in 1997 and Raymond Felton in 2003) • Fourth in the ACC in assists with 4.4 per game and fourth in assist-error ratio • Started all 31 contests at the point • Averaged one turnover every 11.4 minutes of action • Had more assists than turnovers in 24 games (and in nine of the last 11 contests) • Made 34 for 44 from the free throw line (77.3 percent) • Scored in double figures seven times with a high of 17 vs. NC State • Had a season-high 12 assists vs. Saint Louis.



Game Highlights

November: Had seven points and only two turnovers in 33 minutes against All-America Dee Brown in the 68-64 loss to Illinois • Helped limit Brown to three assists, five turnovers and 0 for 6 from three-point-range.

December: Had nine points, two assists and two turnovers in the win at Kentucky • Scored seven of his nine points in the second half (hit a long three-pointer, a flying drive across the lane and two key free throws with 28 seconds to play) • Handed out 12 assists against just two turnovers and was UNC's defensive player of the game in win over Saint Louis • The 12 assists equaled the third-most ever by a Tar Heel freshman and were the second-most by an ACC player in 2005-06 • Had a season-high seven turnovers in the loss at USC.

January: Scored a season-high 17 points, 15 of which came in the second half, and had four assists in the win over No. 12 NC State • Made 6 of 9 from the floor and 4 of 6 from the free throw line • Came into the game with only seven free throw attempts in the first 10 games • Scored nine consecutive UNC points over a span of four-plus minutes that left the Tar Heels with a 69-65 lead with 3:41 to play • Hit a three from the corner with 5:36 left after NC State cut a seven-point UNC lead to two • Had a key offensive rebound with less than a minute to play in win at Virginia Tech • Scored five points and had nine assists without any turnovers in win over Arizona • Hit 25-foot three-pointer just before the half to give UNC an eight-point lead • Was his second turnover-free game of the year • Singled out by Roy Williams for his outstanding defense, especially in helping to hold Hassan Adams to 12 points, 7.9 below his average.

February: Hit a three-pointer from the corner with 1:54 to play to help clinch the win at Maryland • Had 16 points (second-highest total of year) and three steals, but had four turnovers and no assists (first time in 2005-06) in win over Clemson • Season-high 7 for 8 from the free throw line • Had 13 points, two assists and no turnovers in the win at Miami • Was third straight game scoring in double figures • Scored 10 points in the final 10:29, including seven points in the final 5:13 • Three-pointer broke 56-all tie and sparked 13-2 Tar Heel run • Hit driving lay-up after Miami pulled within five and had back-to-back short jumpers around the 2:00 mark to seal the win • Had eight assists (ACC season high) and two steals in win over Georgia Tech • Matched his season-high with five rebounds and added five points, two assists and five turnovers in win at Wake Forest • Steal and dunk (first of season) was part of comeback from nine points down in second half • Was Carolina's defensive player of the game • Did not score, but had six assists and only two turnovers in win at NC State • Carolina had 24 assists and six turnovers, its fewest in 300 games dating back to 1997 • Carolina's defensive player of the game in the 81-57 win over Maryland on Feb. 26 as the Tar Heels held the Terps to less than 30 percent shooting in both halves • Had six points on two three-pointers with four assists, one turnover and three steals.

March: Had 10 points, five assists and two steals in win at No. 1 Duke • Hit a pair of second-half three-pointers, then converted both ends of a 1-and-1 with 24 seconds to play after Duke cut an 11-point lead down to just three • Scored nine points, all in the second half, in Carolina's 69-65 win over Murray State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament • Hit a three-pointer from the right corner with 2:43 to play to give UNC a 65-61 lead.

Season Notes: A consensus 2007 first-team All-America (NABC, USBWA, Sporting News), UNC's first consensus All-America since Joseph Forte in 2001 • The 14th Tar Heel to earn consensus honors and the fifth to do so as a sophomore (Michael Jordan, J.R. Reid, Jerry Stackhouse and Forte) • Also earned second-team All-America honors from the Associated Press, ESPN.com and Basketball Times • Voted UNC's Most Valuable Player by his teammates and coaches • Unanimous first-team All-ACC selection for the second consecutive year • Third in voting for ACC Player of the Year honors, but the only ACC player to earn first-team All-America honors • One of six finalists for the Oscar Robertson Trophy as the USBWA's National Player of the Year, one of four finalists for the Naismith Award and one of five finalists for the Wooden Award.

Led UNC and was fourth in the ACC in scoring in 2006-07 at 18.4 points per game • Averaged 19.8 points in regular season ACC play • Averaged 21.3 points and 8.5 rebounds in the NCAA Tournament • His 33 points against Michigan State in the second round equalled the single-game scoring high by any player in the 2007 NCAA Tournament (Oregon's Tajuan Porter had 33 vs. UNLV) • Averaged 19.7 points and 9.3 rebounds in UNC's seven losses • UNC's defensive player of the game six times • Scored in double figures in 33 games and scored 20 or more points 17 times • Led the team and was second in the ACC in rebounds (7.9 per game) • Grabbed double figures in rebounds 11 times (13 or more seven times) • Was sixth in the ACC in field goal percentage and ninth in free throw percentage • One of three players (with Florida State's Al Thornton and BC's Jared Dudley) to rank in the Top 10 in both field goal and free throw accuracy • Was second on the team in steals with 41 • Attempted 10 or more free throws 14 times • Made 24 consecutive free throws from Jan. 31 to Feb. 10 • He made 242 free throws and attempted 315 free throws, the second-highest single-season marks in Carolina history.

Game Highlights

November: Had 29 points in the opener against Sacred Heart • Named to All-NIT Tournament Team • Averaged 21.3 points in the four NIT games • Had an outstanding, 21-point, 14-rebound performance in win over Ohio State, then the No. 1 ranked team in the coaches' poll.

December: Returned home to Missouri and had 15 points and 13 rebounds in win over Saint Louis • Was UNC's defensive player of the game against Dayton, when the Tar Heels held the Flyers to 21 percent shooting in the first half.

January: Had 25 points and 13 rebounds in an 84-58 win over Florida State • Scored a game-high 18 points and had seven rebounds in win over Virginia • Led UNC with both 19 points and a career-high 15 rebounds in the loss at Virginia Tech • Grabbed eight offensive boards, a season-high and one shy of his career best • Dominated the paint with 24 points and six rebounds in win over Georgia Tech • Made 14 of 15 from the free throw line • Had 13 points and a game-high nine rebounds at Wake Forest • Posted his sixth double-double of the year with 22 points and 13 boards against Miami.

February: Led all scorers with 24 points and topped UNC with eight rebounds at NC State • Scored 15 points in the second half • Steal and dunk pulled the Tar Heels within two points with 3:44 to play • Reached 1,000 career points on a dunk late in the first half • Had 16 points in win at Duke • Hit four free throws in the last 31 seconds to help clinch the win, UNC's second straight at Cameron • Led Carolina with 22 points and eight boards and was UNC's defensive player of the game in home loss to Virginia Tech • Made 14 of 18 from the free throw line • Led Carolina with 17 points and eight rebounds in win at Boston College • Scored 13 first-half points as UNC built a six-point lead at the break • Earned UNC's defensive player of the game honors for the second straight game • Had 20 points and seven rebounds in win over NC State • Led Carolina in the loss at Maryland with 22 points on 10 of 15 shooting from the floor.

March: Led all players with 26 points and a career-high 17 rebounds in 86-72 win over Duke • Matched his career-best with nine offensive rebounds • Made 10 of 18 from the field • Scored 18 points in the second half • Three-point play with 12:08 to play ignited a 14-2 Tar Heel run • Left the game after being injured on a flagrant foul with 14.5 seconds to play that resulted in a non-displaced nasal fracture • Also suffered an injury to his mouth in an earlier collision that resulted in a root canal after the season.

2007 ACC Tournament: Played with protective mask and averaged 10.0 points and 6.7 rebounds • Shot 39.1 percent from the floor (9 of 23) • Had 13 rebounds and was UNC's defensive player of the game in semifinal win vs. Boston College • Set an ACC Tournament championship game record for best free throw percentage when he made 11 for 11 from the line against NC State.

NCAA 1st/2nd Rounds: Scored a season-high 33 points in second round vs. Michigan State • Most points by a Tar Heel in the NCAA Tournament since Al Wood scored 39 vs. Virginia in the 1981 Final Four • It was the first 30-point game by a Tar Heel in NCAA play since Shammond Williams had 32 vs. UNC Charlotte in 1998 • Made 10 of 17 from the floor and 13 of 17 from the line • Had 19 in the first half • Discarded the protective mask early in the first half of the MSU game • Had 21 points and 10 boards against Eastern Kentucky • Was 19 for 28 (.679) from the floor in the two games.

NCAA East Regional: Named to NCAA All-East Regional Team • Had 26 points and 11 rebounds for his 10th double-double of the year in the season-ending loss to Georgetown • Was his third 20-point game in the 2007 NCAA Tournament • Made 14 of 16 from the free throw line against the Hoyas • The 14 free throws tied UNC's NCAA Tournament record (Tommy Kearns made 14 vs. Syracuse in 1957).

Season Notes: Only player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America honors as a freshman • First-team All-America by The Sporting News and Rupp and third-team All-America by the Associated Press, NABC and Basketball Times • Only the third ACC freshman to earn AP All-America honors (any team), joining Kenny Anderson and Stephon Marbury of Georgia Tech • Was the USBWA, ESPN.com, The Sporting News and Basketball Times National Freshman of the Year • ACC Rookie of the Year (unanimous) • The first freshman to earn unanimous first-team All-ACC honors in league history • Joined Duke's J.J. Redick and Shelden Williams as unanimous All-ACC picks • Sixth player to earn first-team All-ACC honors as a freshman (Clemson's Skip Wise in 1975, Anderson in 1990, Maryland's Joe Smith in 1994, Marbury in 1996 and Antawn Jamison in 1996) • Had the fourth-highest scoring average by a freshman in ACC history (highest by a Tar Heel) at 18.9 per game • Was second in the ACC in scoring behind Redick • Only one freshman ever finished as high in ACC scoring (Georgia Tech's Mark Price led the league in 1982-83) • Carolina's seventh ACC Rookie of the Year (Sam Perkins in 1981, Michael Jordan in 1982, J.R. Reid in 1987, Ed Cota in 1997, Joseph Forte in 2000 and Marvin Williams in 2005) • NABC and USBWA All-District selection • Led the ACC in offensive rebounds (3.58 per game), was second in scoring (18.9), fifth in field goal percentage (.570) and sixth in rebounding (7.8) • Led Carolina in scoring, field goal percentage, rebounding, steals (38) and trips to the free throw line (187 of 253, 73.9 percent) • First UNC post player to lead in steals since Scott Williams in 1987-88 • First Tar Heel freshman to lead the team in scoring and rebounding • First Tar Heel and seventh ACC player to lead his team in scoring, rebounding, field goal percentage and steals in the same season.

Averaged an ACC-best 8.2 free throw attempts • Made 21 straight free throws in one stretch • Shot Smith Center record 14 for 14 from the line against NC State and 13 for 14 vs. Miami • His 187 free throws made and 253 attempts are UNC freshman records • The previous marks were 152 made by Perkins in 1980-81 and 205 attempts by Perkins and Jerry Stackhouse • The 187 made were the sixth-most in a season by any Tar Heel and the 253 attempts were the eighth-most in a season • Had 42 three-point play opportunities and converted the free throw 29 times.

Scored in double figures 30 times and scored 20 or more in 14 games (and 25 or more five times) • Averaged 20.4 points and 7.6 rebounds (3.9 offensive boards) and shot 56.2 percent from the floor and 78.7 percent from the line in ACC games.

Won ACC Freshman-of-the-Week honors 10 times, tying Anderson's ACC record set in 1989-90 • Previous UNC record was six by Perkins.

Carolina's defensive player of the game five times (Gardner-Webb, UC Santa Barbara, Virginia Tech, at Miami and Georgia Tech) • Named Co-ACC Player of the Week after Virginia and Duke wins, the first freshman to win ACC Player of the Week honors in the regular season since Jamison in 1996 (Duke's Jason Williams won the award as the ACC Tournament MVP in 2000).

Game Highlights

November: Posted his first double-double with 15 points and 11 rebounds versus UC Santa Barbara • Had nine offensive rebounds against UCSB.

December: Grabbed 10 boards in the win at Kentucky • Made 9 of 12 shots from the floor en route to 21 points against Saint Louis • Had eight steals against UNC Asheville • That tied the Smith Center record and equaled the second-most in any game ever by a Tar Heel • Only the third Tar Heel to have at least eight steals in a game (Derrick Phelps and Dudley Bradley).

January: Scored a game-high 20 points and had four rebounds, two assists and two steals in 82-69 win over NC State • Went 14 for 14 from the free throw line, the best performance by a Tar Heel in a game since Phil Ford went 16 for 16 at NC State on Feb. 24, 1976 • Dunk with 2:32 to play broke a 69-all tie and began a 13-0 UNC run to end the game • Led all scorers on both teams with 20 points and grabbed nine rebounds in win at Virginia Tech • Scored a key bas-

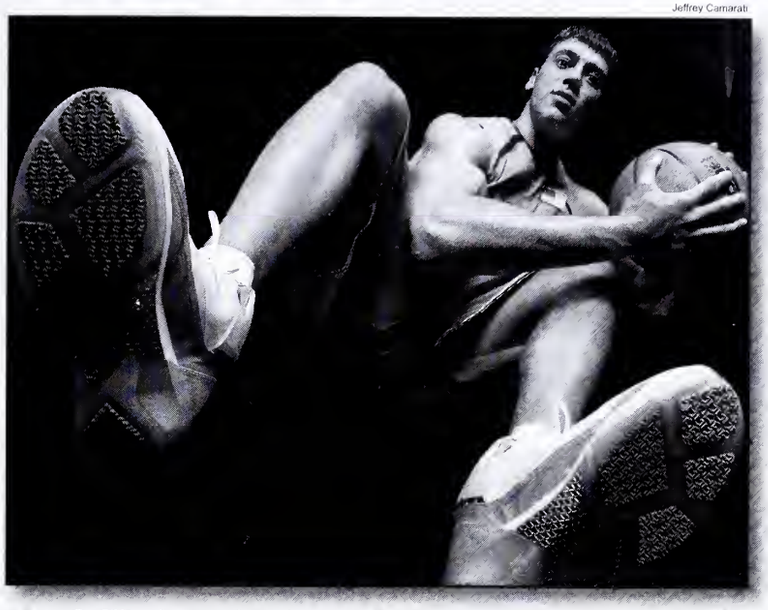
Jeffrey Camarati



Q: What have you been concentrating on to get ready for the 2007-08 season?

Tyler Hansbrough: "I've been working hard with Jonas (Sahratian) in the weight room. I am always trying to improve my strength. On the court I have really improved my shooting and I have been working on my ball handling a little bit. I don't want to be the guy that defenders can just guard inside. I want to be a threat outside, too."

Q: What are you most proud of accomplishing thus far at Carolina?

TH: "Advancing to the Elite Eight (in the 2007 NCAA Tournament). That wasn't as far as we wanted to go, but it was still very exciting. From a personal standpoint, being named to the ACC first team two years in a row was really good because this is such a tough conference and it is hard to do that."

Q: Do you have one game that stands out thus far?

TH: "My favorite game was the Michigan State game. I played well and I think our team played well, too. We had two big time programs going at it and I kind of like that."

Q: You began that game wearing the mask, then took it off and went on to score 33 points.

TH: "I just couldn't take it anymore. I just wanted to get rid of it. I had been thinking about getting rid of it for a while but (the doctors) wanted to keep it on one more game and I just couldn't take it. I felt I could play a lot better without it."

Q: Your teammates say you lead by example. Do you want to emerge as more of a vocal leader this year?

TH: "That's one of my weaknesses. I wouldn't say I was a vocal guy on the court but that's something Coach Williams and I have talked about improving and that's to be a leader for the team this year."

Q: What's your favorite part of being a Carolina basketball player?

TH: "My teammates are great. My roommates are Marcus (Ginyard), Bobby (Frasor) and Preston (Puckett, the team's head manager). We're always having fun and I just love being around campus."

Q: Were you always a competitive person?

TH: "It's pretty much my whole family. Both of my brothers are really competitive. I have grown up in a competitive way. When I was young my dad always played with his group of friends and I watched them playing. My older brothers and I started playing and having those backyard battles and that is where I started getting real competitive."

Q: Poplar Buff must be a pretty special place, right?

TH: "The people there have grown up watching me play ever since I've been real young and I feel my success is probably theirs, so it's great to go back home and see everybody.

"I always joke about it in the locker room, Deon (Thompson) and Alex (Stepheson) being from Los Angeles, Bobby being from Chicago, Marcus being from Washington, D.C., so I'm always saying I'm from Poplar Bluff. Not many people know where that is, so I hype it up real big."

Q: What is it like to play for Coach Williams?

TH: "He is an intense coach and everyday in practice I learn something new. He is always trying to get you better and improve the team. That is something I thought about before coming here. I thought he could make me the best player I could be and still play on a great team and do a lot of great things."

Q: Most people see the intense Tyler, but off the court you are quite different, right?

TH: "They see me play the game and how intense I am, but when I'm off the court I am quiet and I am a goofy guy sometimes and that's just who I am."

Q: How hard did you take the losses to George Mason and Georgetown?

TH: "It was a really bad feeling. It's something hard to describe. You work so hard the whole year to try and get that one game, that one last win. It's tough to be in the lockerroom and looking at everybody you played with and gone to practice with every day and see some of the guys you might not play with again for the rest of your life. So it is an emotional, lonely place, but at the same time, it's life."

Q: Would you want to play Mississippi State against your brother, Ben?

TH: (laughing) "No, that's not something you would want to see. You never know what would happen. There might be a loose ball and you got to go after it, and you know how brothers are... I just couldn't see myself playing against my brother."

Q: Fifteen years from now, do you think people will be talking about your 26 points and 17 rebounds against Duke or the bloody nose?

TH: (laughing) "The bloody nose – no doubt. Everywhere I go they are still asking about my nose. I think that's something that each year everybody will be looking at before the Duke-North Carolina game. It's always going to be flashing across (the screen). It's an intense rivalry and that's something that's going to happen and everybody will remember that."

NOTING ELLINGTON

Smooth shooting two guard was one of three Tar Heel freshmen to make the 2007 ACC All-Tournament Team • Helps form one of the best backcourts in the country • Needs to become more consistent shooter, better ball-handler and defender • Excellent free throw shooter, but needs to get to the line more • Made Team USA's roster for the Pan Am Games, but suffered a left shoulder sprain in the first game and missed the rest of the competition.

FRESHMAN SEASON (2006-07)

Started 37 of 38 games (all but Senior Day) • Third on the team in scoring (11.7 ppg) and led the team with 66 three-point field goals • Hit at least one three-pointer in 33 of 38 games • Made two or more three-pointers 22 times, including all three ACC Tournament games and six of last 11 games • Scored in double figures 27 times with highs of 19 against Gardner-Webb and Ohio State • Had 48 assists and only 14 turnovers in regular-season ACC games • Had more assists than turnovers in 11 of the last 17 games and 19 overall • Converted 83.6 percent from the free throw line • Had a streak of 20 straight made free throws snapped in the Michigan State game • Made 34 of his last 38 free throws (.895).

Game Highlights

November: Earned ACC Rookie of the Week honors for his play against Ohio State and Kentucky • Scored 19 points against Ohio State on his 19th birthday • Hit three three-pointers in the win over Ohio State • Scored 17 of his 19 points against Ohio State in the second half.

December: Led the Tar Heels with 17 points in the win over Kentucky • Had a season-high seven rebounds against High Point • Had four assists and no turnovers against UNC Asheville • Went 3 for 3 from three-point range vs. Florida Atlantic • Had a season-low three points in the win at Saint Louis • Made 12 of 19 threes in a three-game stretch against Rutgers, Dayton and Penn • Made a season-high five three-pointers (in six attempts) and had 17 points against Rutgers.

January: Earned defensive player of the game honors for the first time against Penn • Went 3 for 12 from the floor, but had five assists against the Seminoles • Hit 5 of 8 shots from the floor (11 points) and added four assists in win at Clemson • Led all scorers on both teams with 18 points at Wake Forest • Tied his season high with eight field goals • Took a season-high 15 shots and scored 14 points in the win at Arizona • Scored eight in the first half when he hit two three-point goals • Had 14 points, four assists and two steals vs. Miami • Went 3 for 5 from three-point range.

February: One of four Tar Heels in double figures (11 points) and added five assists in 104-67 win over Wake Forest • Had five assists and, for the second game in a row, did not commit a turnover • Scored 12 points and had three assists in win at Boston College • Had six points, six rebounds and three assists in win over NC State • Scored 17 points, his second-highest ACC figure, in the loss at Maryland • Made three 3FGs, his most in seven games • Added a season-high six assists and five boards.

March: Scored 14 points and had three assists in a season-high

NOTING THOMPSON

Powerful young big man with an array of offensive skills • Still a relative newcomer to the game of basketball • Expected to play a big role along the Tar Heel frontline • Working hard to become more of a defensive presence • Should team with Tyler Hansbrough and Alex Stepheson to form a formidable frontcourt • Played for Team USA this past summer in the Under 19 World Championships in Serbia, where he was the team's third-leading scorer (10.0 ppg) and the leading rebounder (6.1) • Had 18 points and 13 rebounds in the semifinal win over France, 17 points in an earlier game against Lithuania and 16 in the gold medal loss to host Serbia • Led the team in scoring in the last two medal-round games • Shot 56.3 percent from the floor in the nine games, eight of which the USA won.

FRESHMAN SEASON (2006-07)

Made 14 of his last 19 shots from the floor over the last six games • Shot 55.8 percent from the floor • Eleven of his last 16 rebounds came on the offensive glass • Scored in double figures twice – 14 at Arizona and in the NCAA Tournament vs. Georgetown • Scored nine points against High Point, his highest output off the bench until the Georgetown game • Scored six points in nine minutes (3 of 4 from the floor) in the win over Ohio State, then the No. 1 ranked team in the coaches poll • Grabbed five rebounds in the win over Tennessee • Had eight points and three assists against Florida Atlantic • Had seven points and three rebounds against Rutgers • Blocked two shots and had two steals against Dayton • Scored eight points, including six straight UNC points in a key second-half run, in the win over Virginia • The Cavaliers led 46-41 before Thompson scored three straight UNC baskets • Also added two blocks and Numbers often paint a picture, especially in a competitive cauldron such as major college basketball. For a Hall of Fame coach like Roy Williams, numbers can summarize a career. Wins, championships, honors ... all tell the story of what makes a coach stand out among his peers.

In Williams' case, few have numbers as distinguished as his – 524 wins in 19 seasons, a win percentage that is fourth-best in history, a national championship, 11 regular-season conference titles, five Final Fours, 16 first-round draft picks and so on.

But if you ask Williams, the number that may mean the most would be 23. That is the number of players – both from Kansas and Carolina – who joined Williams, his family and close friends in September at the 2007 Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony in Springfield, Mass.

Not only was it one of the largest turnouts for a coach that Hall of Fame observers ever recall seeing, it brought together some of the finest college basketball players of the last 25 years. For that weekend, players like Paul Pierce, Sean May, Jacque Vaughn, Raymond Felton, Raef LaFrentz, Marvin Williams and Kirk Hinrich weren't just Jayhawks and they weren't just Tar Heels. They were Roy's boys.

Williams became the eighth coach or player from Carolina to be enshrined in the Naismith Hall of Fame, joining an elite group that includes Dean Smith, Larry Brown, Billy Cunningham, James Worthy, Bob McAdoo, Frank McGuire and Ben Carnevale.

Over the last six seasons, Williams has won as many games as any coach in the country and led his teams to three Final Fours and two national championship contests. Williams and Duke's Mike Krzyzewski both have won 169 games in that time, most nationally. On Dec. 9, 2006, Carolina defeated High Point for his 500th win as a head coach, a mark Williams reached in fewer seasons than any coach in history.

And he's not ready to ride off into an extended Hawaiian golf vacation any time soon. In the spring, Williams inked a four-year contract extension that runs through the 2014-15 season.

"This (the Hall of Fame) will fuel my competitiveness even more to make those people that chose me to be in the Hall of Fame feel they made the right decision," Williams told ESPN's Andy Katz.

The Asheville, N.C., native has led the Tar Heels to a 106-30 record, the 2005 national championship, two ACC regular-season titles, an ACC Tournament crown and two NCAA No. 1 seeds in the last four years.

But as gaudy as his coaching numbers are, Williams is quick to say he coaches for the relationships with his players and staff, the journey and the opportunity to compete. Two of his former players at the induction ceremony – one who played at Kansas and another who was a Tar Heel – described what Williams means to them.

"Coach Williams helped me become a man," says Marvin Williams, who was the ACC Rookie of the Year at UNC in 2005 and the second

"Williams has become a sports celebrity, but he doesn't big-time anyone. There's still a lot of Barbeque Roy from Asheville in him. He doesn't change putters or put on airs. It's an attitude that helps him communicate with the often unpredictable young men who ultimately have a loud say-so in his won-loss record."

Williams, with his wife, Wanda, flashes his Hall of Fame ring and 2005 NCAA title ring at his Hall of Fame induction.

player selected in that year's NBA Draft. "He always held me accountable for my actions on the court. He's a father figure and he's my coach. He'll always be my coach."

Wayne Simien, who played two seasons for Williams at Kansas and was on the team that Williams left for Chapel Hill, echoes those thoughts: "Coach means so much to me. He's been not only a coach, but a positive role model and a father figure, as well."

"As a coach, I remember him as just an easygoing guy," Michael Jordan told Tar Heel Monthly in a recent interview. "You could definitely sit down and talk to him and he wasn't intimidating at all. He seemed like a guy right down the street.

"My father and he really connected," says Jordan. "I think it was Roy's down-homeness. It was his whole background and his understanding for where we were coming from. He made the transition so much easier. At that time I was totally unknown. Coach Williams was the best educator about what we were going through.

"His willingness to understand the athlete and get the best out of the athlete is what makes Roy a Hall of Famer," adds Jordan. "His patience, his knowledge for the game, his effort and diligence to understand the game and understand the player and how they can co-exist. To me, that's a Hall of Fame-type guy, someone who makes adjustments according to the personnel rather than forcing his way of thinking on a team or a player. That's not Coach Williams. He will make adjustments and do it within the confinement of what the game represents. He holds high standards for the game and doesn't believe in a lot of things that deteriorate the game. I respect that. I'm sure those are things he learned from Coach Smith and other coaches."

A September 16, 2007, editorial in the Lawrence (Kan.) Journal-World stated: "Williams is a winner, not only on the basketball court but also as a person. Collegiate sports need more coaches such as Williams, men and women who set an example for others to try and match."

A poignant moment in the Hall of Fame speech was when Williams apologized to Jayhawk players from the mid-90s for not leading them to a Final Four, despite winning almost 33 games a year from 1996-98.

"That tells you the type person he is," said Pierce, a KU All-America and current NBA All-Star with the Boston Celtics.

"He didn't fail me, he aided me," added All-America and 10-year NBA veteran Raef LaFrentz. "That's him in a nutshell. He's always thinking about his players. He was the biggest aid I can think of. He got me to where I am at."

Williams enters 2007-08 with a career mark of 524-131, averaging more than 27 wins per season. His win percentage of 80.0 is the best among active coaches with at least 10 seasons as a head coach and stands behind only Clair Bee, Adolph Rupp and John Wooden in history.

He is the only coach to win a game in 18 consecutive NCAA Tournaments and is third all-time behind Dean Smith and Lute Olson for most consecutive years playing in the NCAA Tournament.

He is second all-time in 30-win seasons (seven), tied for fifth in NCAA Tournament victories (45) and tied for sixth in Final Four appearances (five). Combining his 10 seasons as an assistant at Carolina and 19 years as head coach, Williams has been part of 799 wins and just 192 defeats.

In four seasons at the helm of his alma mater, Williams has led the Tar Heels to a 45-19 record in ACC regular-season action, the most wins ever by a coach in his first four years competing in the ACC.

Williams has been a college head coach for 19 years, the first 15 at Kansas from 1988-2003. He won 418 games and is the Jayhawks' second-winningest coach behind only KU legend Phog Allen. He has won more games than any coach after eight, nine, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19 seasons as a head coach.

He has won national coach of the year honors in six of his 19 seasons, conference coach of the year eight times and was the 2003 recipient of the John Wooden Legends of Coaching award.

Last year, Williams led the Tar Heels to a 31-7 record. Carolina won a share of the ACC regular-season title and won the ACC Tournament, the fourth conference postseason title of his career. UNC was a No. 1 seed in the NCAA East Regional and came within an overtime of advancing to another Final Four.

Tyler Hansbrough was a consensus first-team All-America, Brandan Wright became the third Tar Heel in as many years to win ACC Rookie of the Year honors and Ty Lawson and Wayne Ellington joined Wright on the ACC All-Tournament Team. That marked the first time in ACC history more than one freshman made the prestigious all-tournament team.

Carolina led the ACC and was second in the nation in scoring at 85.7 points per game. That was the fifth time in the last six years Williams' teams at Kansas and UNC have been in the Top four nationally in scoring (first in 2002 and 2005, second in 2007, third in 2003 and fourth in 2004). His teams have averaged 80 points or more in 16 of 19 seasons and have averaged 83.8 points in his four years at UNC.

Williams earned National and ACC Coach of the Year honors in 2005-06, leading the youngest team in Carolina history to 23 wins, a second-place finish in the ACC, a win at top-ranked Duke and a No. 3 regional seed in the NCAA Tournament. What made that year so unexpected was the fact Carolina was defending its national championship after losing its top seven scorers, unprecedented in ACC history, and started Sports Illustrated predicted Carolina would miss the NCAA Tournament and the Tar Heels were picked by the media to finish sixth in the ACC. However, the inexperienced Tar Heels turned heads with an early win at 10th-ranked Kentucky, went 7-1 on the road in conference play, finished the year 12-4 in the ACC and were No. 10 in the final Associated Press ranking.

Despite a lineup that scored one point in the 2005 NCAA title game against Illinois, Carolina led the ACC in field goal percentage defense, assists and rebounding, and was second-best in the league in field goal shooting and scoring.

The Associated Press, the United States Basketball Writers Association of America, ESPN.com, SI.com and the Commonwealth Club of Kentucky named Williams the 2005-06 National Coach of the Year.

Carolina's performance, set against the backdrop of losing juniors Raymond Felton, Sean May and Rashad McCants and freshman Marvin Williams to the 2005 NBA Draft, did not go unappreciated.

"UNC's starting lineup consists of two true freshmen, two former walk-ons and a guy who wasn't even first-team all-state in high school," wrote David Glenn at ACCSports.com. "All of this is a tribute to the players, of course, but it's an even bigger tribute to their leader. Williams wasn't the only coach in America who lost all five starters from last season. He's the only one who's winning big anyway."

"Roy's really a bright man," says Dean Smith. "He has the whole package of what you want as a college head coach. You want somebody who knows basketball, can judge talent, is a competent leader and can teach it in practice, makes good decisions in the game, is highly organized, and also is honest in recruiting.

"He's like Tiger Woods in golf – they have the whole package," Smith adds. "I don't know anyone else who does. I certainly consider him to be the best college coach in the country."

Williams became the UNC head coach on April 14, 2003, 10 days after leading Kansas to the NCAA championship game against Syracuse.

"Roy Williams is one of the select few of the greatest coaches in the entire game of basketball," says Bill Walton, NBA Hall of Fame player and TV analyst. "His move to North Carolina ensures for the foreseeable future excellence both on and off the court. The championships will now fall time after time to Chapel Hill. More importantly Coach Williams' impact on young people's lives throughout this great land will change the course of history. We love Coach

Williams and admire and respect everything that he does – except for the fact that he's not coaching at UCLA."

Williams led the Tar Heels to their fourth NCAA championship as UNC defeated the Illini, 75-70, on April 4, 2005.

"Coach Williams allowed me to be successful – he put me in positions to be successful," says May, the MVP of the 2005 Final Four. "He pulled out my strengths, hid my weaknesses and taught me how to run the floor. I never wanted to run until I came here, now I love it."

The 2005 national championship capped a season in which the Tar Heels went 33-4, including a 14-2 mark in the ACC. Carolina finished first in the ACC regular-season standings for the first time since 2001 and won the league outright for the first time in 12 years.

Carolina went 15-0 at home – Williams' seventh unbeaten home record. The Tar Heels won the Maui Invitational by an average of 21 points per game; led the nation in scoring average, scoring margin and assists; scored 100 or more points six times and 90 or more points on 16 occasions; went 9-3 against ranked teams; and became the third team in history to lead the nation in scoring and win the NCAA championship.

"We all wanted to win for the seniors, but I especially wanted a national championship for Coach Williams," May said. "He's a great person and a great coach and I wanted to be on his first national championship team. I know he's going to win more, but we can always say we were on his first."

Williams takes great pride in his teams playing unselfish basketball, taking the best shots available, hitting the boards and playing tenacious, man-to-man defense. The 2005 Tar Heels exhibited all of those traits.

To wit: five different players averaged double-figure scoring, despite just one player averaging more than 30 minutes played per game; the Tar Heels averaged 19.1 assists per game; UNC shot 50 percent or better from the floor 20 times (and won all 20 games) and held the opposition to less than 40 percent shooting 20 times; the Tar Heels went 28-1 in games in which they out-rebounded the opponents; and Carolina held Michigan State and Illinois under 40 percent shooting from the floor in three of four halves played at the Final Four.

"Winning the national championship means all the preparation we had done to get to that point paid off," said McCants. "You sit back and think, all the things we did in practice every day were perfect for us. You have to commend a coach to understand that – he just designed something perfect for a bunch of players who had never won anything and for us to do everything that we've done in this short period of time is amazing."

Williams, whose teams are 257-24 at home (91.5), has established himself as one of the top coaches and premier program builders in America. He is one of the most respected men in college basketball among coaches, players, parents, administrators and media. It was evident by the number of well-wishes, congratulatory calls and letters Williams received before and after winning the national championship and being elected to the Naismith Hall of Fame, including many from former Kansas players and parents.

"I know so much more about basketball," said Marvin Williams. "Coach Williams has so much knowledge about the game it is unbelievable. He is a great coach and he loves to teach. He's taught me so much about basketball, especially the little things. I didn't know little things made that big of a difference in a basketball game."

Williams has taken five teams to the Final Four, including 1991, 1993, 2002 and 2003 at Kansas and 2005 at Carolina. He is one of 12 coaches to lead two schools to the Final Four and the third (with Larry Brown and Frank McGuire) to direct two schools to the championship game.

"I have so much respect for him and I am so glad that he's our coach," says former Tar Heel All-America and NBA All-Star Jerry Stackhouse. "I really feel with him the tradition that we all felt when I played here. He has a discipline he learned from Coach Smith and that discipline is back here now. That's why we were able to have success [in 2005] and win the national championship."

"I always thought if Coach Williams came back to Carolina he was going to get us a national championship," says George Lynch, captain of the 1993 NCAA champions and a 13-year NBA veteran. "He has a great personality and he's fair to his players. He tells them like it is. He came back and got guys to play the right way and come together as a team."

"He's the best coach in college basketball," says Antawn Jamison. "He reminds me a lot of Coach Smith. Not just in terms of basketball, but as far as knowing the importance of having good people, caring about making sure they are successful after basketball. He'll have a big influence over every player that comes through the program, preparing them for life. That's what it's all about. It's not just about being a coach, but being like a father figure."

Williams has won 20 or more games 17 times in 19 years (winning 19 in his first seasons at Kansas and Carolina), including 14 straight seasons at Kansas, a streak that equals the third longest in NCAA history.

"Coach Williams is a great coach," says Jackie Manuel, who twice earned ACC All-Defensive Team honors and now plays with the Boston Celtics. "He's going to teach you the fundamentals of the game and off the court he cares about his kids. He wants the best for his kids. He's going to push you; he's trying to bring the best out of you. If I have a son, I would definitely let him play for Coach

"His willingness to understand the athlete and get the best out of the athlete is what makes Roy a Hall of Famer. His patience, his knowledge for the game, his effort and diligence to understand the game and understand the player and how they can co-exist.

"To me, that's a Hall of Fame type guy, someone who makes adjustments according to the personnel rather than forcing his way of thinking on a team or a player. That's not Coach Williams.

"He will make adjustments and do it within the confinement of what the game represents. He holds high standards for the game and doesn't believe in a lot of things that deteriorate the game. I respect that. I'm sure those are things he learned from Coach Smith and other coaches."

– Former Tar Heel Michael Jordan

Williams."

In 2003-04, Williams led the Tar Heels to a 19-11 record, with a win over No. 1-ranked and eventual national champion Connecticut. Carolina returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in three years and beat Air Force in the opening round before falling to Texas, 78-75. Carolina averaged 80.2 points per game, an increase of 10.0 points from the previous year and UNC's highest scoring average since 1994-95.

"Roy is as good as it gets in a person," says Hall of Fame guard and NBA executive Jerry West. "There's nothing deceptive about him. He is what he is – a wonderful person and a great coach. If you watch his teams, you know they've been coached. If you go to his practices, you know why his teams are successful. His players play the right way. They're team-oriented. They play a fun way offensively. They're aggressive. He changes defenses. He does it all. He's just a wonderful coach."

Williams spent 10 seasons as an assistant coach under Smith at Carolina. From 1978-88, he helped coach such Tar Heel standouts as Mike O'Koren, Al Wood, James Worthy, Sam Perkins, Matt Doherty, Michael Jordan, Brad Daugherty, Kenny Smith, Joe Wolf, Steve Hale, Jeff Lebo, J.R. Reid and Scott Williams.

The Tar Heels played in the NCAA Tournament in each of Williams' 10 seasons as an assistant. Carolina won the NCAA title in 1982, finished second in 1981 and won or shared six Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season titles and three ACC Tournament championships (1979, 1981, 1982).

"When I think of him, I think of his honesty, integrity and tremendous work ethic," says Daugherty, a five-time NBA All-Star with the Cleveland Cavaliers. "He is a classy, classy individual. But he is also one of the toughest people I have ever met in my life. No one is tougher than Roy Williams, but he is fair. That's why the kids love him so much. When you have played four years for him he will be a friend for life and you will be a better man, and appreciate every ounce of the experience when you are gone.

"If I had to go to war, I'd grab him for my foxhole without question."

Williams was named head coach at Kansas on July 8, 1988, replacing another former Tar Heel, Larry Brown. The pair teamed together to coach Team USA to a bronze medal at the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens, Greece.

"He's as good a coach as our sport has," says Brown. "If you ask people around the country, they'll say there's no better college coach than Roy Williams."

In addition to his 2006 national coaching honors, he earned National Coach of the Year honors at Kansas in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1997 and was Big Eight/Big 12 Coach of the Year seven times (1990, 1992, 1995, 1996, 1997, 2002 and 2003). The New York Athletic Club presented him with its National Coach of the Year award in 2005.

Williams coached a number of the finest Kansas players in history, including Mark Randall, Adonis Jordan, Rex Walters, Greg Ostertag, Scot Pollard, Jacque Vaughn, Raef LaFrentz, Paul Pierce, Drew Gooden, Nick Collison, Kirk Hinrich and Wayne Simien.

The Jayhawks went 94-18 in conference play over his last seven years and averaged 27.9 wins per season with a high of 35 in 1997-98. He also won 30 in 1989-90, 34 in 1996-97, 33 in 2001-02 and 30 in 2002-03.

He led Kansas to the Final Four in 1991, 1993, 2002 and 2003. The Jayhawks reached the Sweet 16 nine times and the Final Eight on five occasions.

Kansas went 30-8 in 2002-03, his final year in Lawrence. Led by Collison, the NABC National Player of the Year, and Hinrich, another All-America, the Jayhawks beat Duke, Arizona and Marquette en route to the national championship game. It was KU's first back-to-back appearance in the Final Four since 1952-53.

Kansas won nine regular-season conference championships over his last 13 years. In seven years of Big 12 Conference play, his teams went 94-18, capturing the regular-season title in 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2003 and the postseason tournament crown in 1997, 1998 and 1999. In 2001-02, KU became the first Big 12 team to go 16-0 in league play. From 1995-98, Kansas was a combined 123-17 – an average of 30.8 wins per season.

He was hired just months after the Danny Manning-led Jayhawks won the 1988 NCAA championship. Weeks after taking the position, KU was placed on probation for violations that took place prior to his arrival.

Williams' teams went 201-17 (92.2) in Allen Fieldhouse, and won 62 consecutive games in Allen from February 1994 to December 1998.

Kansas was a regular in the Associated Press Top 25 from 1991 to 1999, placing in the AP poll for 145 consecutive weeks. Williams' teams were ranked in the Top 10 in 194 AP polls since 1990.

Williams had Kansas in the AP Top 25 in 242 of 268 weekly polls. Kansas reached the No. 1 ranking in the country in six different seasons and was ranked at least No. 2 in the nation in 11 of the 15 seasons.

The Tar Heels finished 2004-05 ranked No. 1 in the coaches' poll and No. 2 in the Associated Press poll. The 2005-06 Tar Heels began the year out of the Top 25, but finished the year ranked No. 10. Last year, Carolina was fourth in the final media poll, the 12th time in 19 years his teams have finished in the Top 10 in the AP poll.

Williams has coached 22 players to first-team all-conference honors, including five Tar Heels in the past four years. McCants was the ACC's leading vote getter in 2003-04, May and Felton were selected in 2004-05, and Hansbrough was a unanimous selection in both 2005-06 and 2006-07. Hansbrough became the first freshman in league history to be unanimously selected to the All-ACC team.

Five Jayhawks won conference player-of-the-year honors and May was named the 2005 ACC Male Athlete of the Year.

Hansbrough became the first UNC freshman to ever earn first-team All-America honors after leading the Tar Heels in scoring, rebounding, field goal percentage and steals in 2005-06. Hansbrough then became the fifth sophomore in Carolina history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors and was a finalist for National Player of the Year honors.

Hansbrough's second honor was the 10th first-team All-America selection by one of Williams' players and it marked the third straight year that Carolina's top inside threat earned first-team All-America honors (also May in 2005).

Two players – Gooden and Collison – were voted the best player in the country by the NABC. He coached four KU players to consensus first-team All-America honors – LaFrentz in 1997 and 1998, Pierce in 1998, Gooden in 2002 and Collison in 2003.

could trust and a man I hoped would make my dreams a reality," said LaFrentz, a two-time Big 12 Player of the Year. "Thanks to Coach Williams for doing that. Thanks to him for always being there, for always being an example for every player who has come into his program and, most importantly, thanks for being a friend."

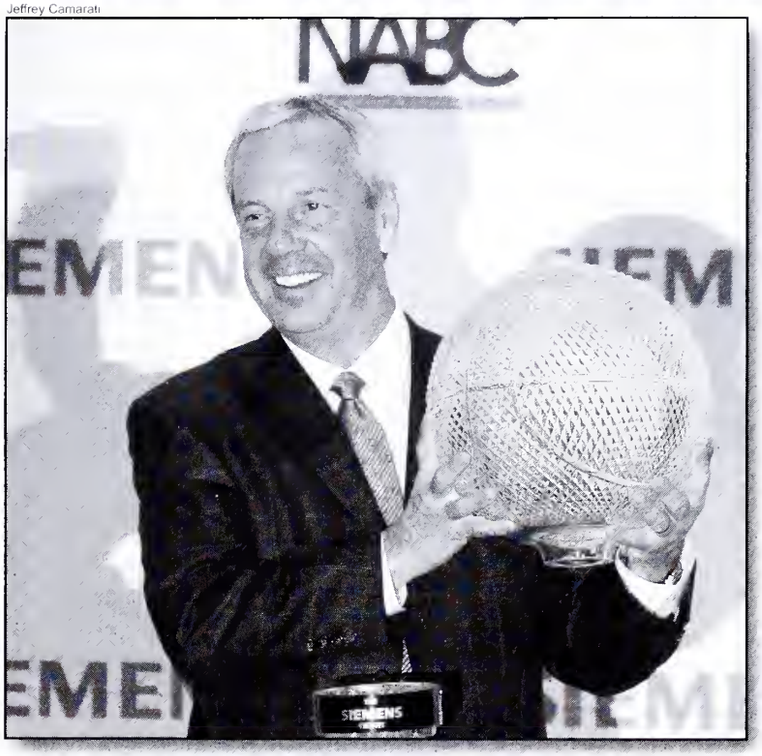
Sixteen of his players have been selected in the first round of the NBA Draft, including the four Tar Heels who were selected in the first 14 picks in the 2005 draft: Randall (1991), Walters (1993), Ostertag (1995), Pollard (1997), Vaughn (1997), LaFrentz (1998), Pierce (1998), Gooden (2002), Hinrich (2003), Collison (2003), Marvin Williams (2005), Felton (2005), May (2005), McCants (2005), Simien (2005) and Wright (2007).

Kansas led the nation in field goal percentage and scoring in 2002 and in scoring margin in 2003; held opponents to the lowest field goal percentage in the country in 2001 (37.8 percent); led the nation in winning percentage in 1997 and 2002; shot better than 50 percent from the floor seven times and led the country in field goal percentage in 1990 at 53.3 percent and in 2002 at 50.6 percent; shot a combined 49.4 percent from the floor in 15 seasons; led the nation in assists in 2001 and 2002 and was seventh in the nation in 2003; scored 100 or more points 71 times (once every 13 games); averaged 82.7 points per game in 15 years; averaged 90 or more points in two seasons (92.1 in 1990 and 90.9 in 2002).

Academic priority is an important characteristic of Williams' program. Each Carolina senior in his tenure has either received his degree or is on track to do so. Two players – Byron Sanders and Melvin Scott – have earned Academic All-ACC honors.

Three Kansas players were named first-team Academic All-America– Ryan Robertson in 1999, Vaughn and Jerod Haase in 1997 and Vaughn in 1996 – and 31 Jayhawks earned first-team academic all-conference honors.

Jeffrey Camarati



"He will win with class and dignity because that's what the man is about," says Joe Posnanski, who covered the Jayhawks for the Kansas City Star. "He will have the Tar Heels running fast and scoring in bunches, and he will build on the legacy of the man he admires most."

Williams grew up outside of Asheville, N.C., in the small community of Biltmore. He attended T. C. Roberson High School, where he earned letters in basketball and baseball for four seasons. In basketball, playing for Coach Buddy Baldwin, he was named all-county and all-conference for two years (1967 and 1968), all-western North Carolina in 1968 and served as captain in the North Carolina Blue-White All-Star Game.

Much of Williams' coaching style comes from spending so many years observing and then coaching with Smith. Williams played on Carolina's freshman team in 1968-69 under Guthridge.

Williams often sat in on Smith's varsity practice sessions taking notes and furthering his knowledge of the game, notes Williams maintains even today. Williams' practices are intense, instructive and precise.

"Practices are very intense, you get a lot done in a small amount of time," says 2005 Tar Heel tri-captain Jawad Williams. "When you put fun and hard work together, that's very nice. We get a lot more accomplished."

Roy Williams earned two degrees from Carolina — a bachelor's degree in education in 1972 and an M.A.T. in 1973.

In 1973, Williams began his coaching career at Owen High School in Swannanoa, N.C. He coached basketball and boys' golf for five years, ninth-grade football for four years and served as athletic director for two years.

He joined Smith's staff as an assistant coach in 1978, adding to his income by traveling all over the state selling basketball team calendars and delivering Smith's weekly TV show to affiliates. While a member of Smith's staff, the Tar Heels went 275-61.

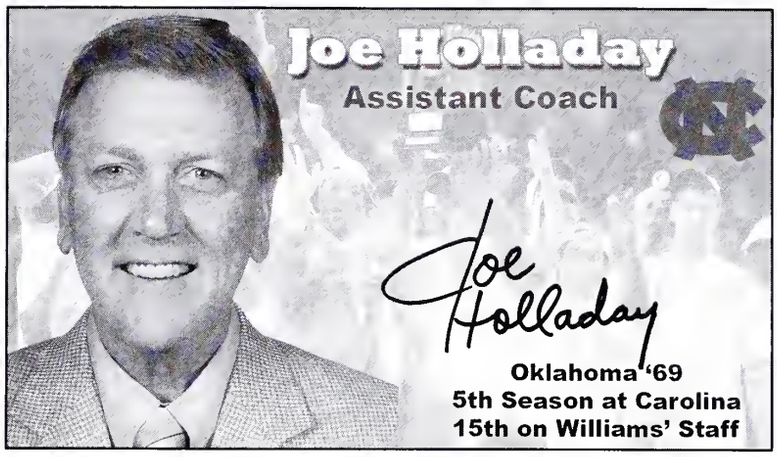
Williams has been active in international circles, as well. The 2004 U.S. Olympic Team assignment was his fourth with USA Basketball. In 1991, Williams worked under P.J. Carlesimo at the World University Games in Sheffield, England, where the USA won the gold medal. In 1992, he helped coach the United States Olympic Development Team, a squad of eight college all-stars who scrimmaged the first U.S. Olympic Dream Team. In 1993, Williams served as head coach of the USA Under-22 Team in a qualifying tournament in Argentina. He also served as a lecturer and camp director for the West German National Junior Team.

He served on the board of directors of the National Association of Basketball Coaches, and was president in 2001-02. In addition, Williams served on the NCAA basketball rules committee for six years, chairing the committee in 2000-01.

Several of Williams' assistants have gone on to head coaching positions, including Neil Dougherty (in his sixth year at TCU), Kevin Stallings (in his ninth season at Vanderbilt), Mark Turgeon (in his eighth year overall and first at Texas A&M), Matt Doherty (formerly the head coach at Notre Dame, Carolina and Florida Atlantic, now in his second year at SMU), Steve Robinson (at Tulsa and Florida State) and Jerry Green (at Oregon and Tennessee).

Williams (born August 1, 1950) and his wife, Wanda, a 1972 Carolina graduate, have a son, Scott, and a daughter, Kimberly. The Williams family has contributed $200,000 to the Carolina Covenant, an initiative at UNC that allows low-income students to attend the University debt free. Roy and Wanda serve as honorary co-chairs of a $10 million campaign to endow the program.

Scott earned a business degree from UNC and played point guard under Bill Guthridge on the basketball team in 1997-98 and 1998-99. He and his wife, Katie (Wolford), live in London. Katie is a 2001 Carolina graduate and former cheerleader. She earned a doctorate in physical therapy from Boston University. Kimberly, who lives in Charlotte, is a 2002 Carolina graduate with a degree in English and a former member of the UNC dance team.



Joe Holladay is in his fifth year as an assistant coach with the Tar Heels and his 15th as a member of Roy Williams' coaching staff. He has a combined record of 418-101 (.805) on the bench with Williams.

Carolina won the 2007 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament after also capturing a share of the conference regular season title. It was the eighth time Holladay's teams have finished first in the conference race.

In 2005-06, the Tar Heels posted a pair of Top-10 road wins at Duke and Kentucky and finished second in the ACC, despite having the most inexperienced team in school history. The surprise success earned Williams ACC and national coaching honors.

The Tar Heels won the 2004-05 ACC regular-season title and the NCAA championship, marking the third time in four years Holladay was a member of a Final Four squad. The Tar Heels were No. 1 in the nation in scoring, assists and scoring margin, fifth in field goal percentage and eighth in rebounding.

Holladay came to Carolina prior to the 2003-04 season and helped the Tar Heels return to the NCAA Tournament. UNC improved its scoring production by 10 points from the previous season and knocked off No. 1 ranked and eventual national champion Connecticut.

Holladay's responsibilities include recruiting, scouting and day-to-day basketball operations. He oversees the academic progress of the student-athletes. Byron Sanders and Melvin Scott have earned ACC All-Academic honors.

Including Tar Heels Brandan Wright, Marvin Williams, Raymond Felton, Sean May and Rashad McCants, 13 of Holladay's players have been selected in the first round of the NBA Draft. Four of his student-athletes earned first-team academic All-America honors and he has coached 26 first-team academic all-conference honorees in the last 12 years.

Holladay joined Williams at the University of Kansas prior to the 1993-94 season after 23 highly successful years as a high school coach, teacher and administrator. The Jayhawks posted a cumulative record of 312-71 (.815), and won six conference regular-season championships and three Big 12 Tournament titles during his tenure. Kansas played in the 2002 and 2003 NCAA Final Fours, including the 2003 national championship game.

At Kansas, Holladay coached National Players of the Year Drew Gooden and Nick Collison and first-team All-Americas Jacque Vaughn, Raef LaFrentz, Paul Pierce and Kirk Hinrich.

Kansas finished the year ranked in the Top 10 in the Associated Press poll six times, including No. 1 in 1997 and No. 2 in 1998 and 2002.

A 1969 University of Oklahoma graduate with a degree in history, Holladay was a standout guard for the Sooners from 1966-69. As a senior, he served as team captain.

Holladay earned a master's degree in counseling in 1975 from East Central State University in Oklahoma.

He went to Kansas after working 13 years as head coach and eight years as athletics director at Jenks (Okla.) High School. Holladay previously served as a prep coach in the Oklahoma towns of Norman, Bartlesville, Tulsa, and Lindsay.

In 1998, Holladay was inducted into the Oklahoma High School Coaches Association Hall of Fame, and in 2002, he was inducted into the inaugural 20-member group of the Oklahoma Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

One of his top players at Jenks High School, Steve Hale, played at North Carolina from 1982-86 under then-assistant coach Roy Williams.

Holladay was an outstanding prep baseball player. He was selected by the Chicago White Sox in the Major League Baseball Draft.

Holladay and his wife, Roi, a former schoolteacher, have a daughter, Heather, who is in television commercial production. Their son, Mathew Holladay, is a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy who also is a 2007 MBA graduate from UNC.

Steve Robinson is in his fifth year as an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina and his 13th as a member of Roy Williams' coaching staff. He has been named one of the top 25 recruiters in college basketball three times in four seasons at Carolina.

His primary responsibilities include scouting, recruiting and bench coaching. He helped recruit future NBA Draft Lottery picks Marvin Williams, Brandan Wright and Paul Pierce to Carolina and Kansas.

Last season, the Tar Heels went 31-7 and won the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament after earning a share of the conference regular season title. UNC ranked second in the nation in scoring offense at 85.7 points per game, the 11th time in as many years that Robinson has teamed Williams to coach a squad averaging 80 or more points.

In 2005-06, Carolina played three freshmen in the starting lineup for much of the season, but won 23 games and earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament. Forward Tyler Hansbrough received unprecedented honors at the national and ACC level for a freshman and Williams was the conference and NCAA Coach of the Year.

In 2004-05, the Tar Heels went 33-4, won the ACC regular-season title and beat the No. 1 ranked team in the nation to win the NCAA championship. Robinson helped coach four players who were selected in the first round of the 2005 NBA Draft, including Final Four MVP Sean May and ACC Rookie of the Year Marvin Williams. Raymond Felton won the Bob Cousy Award as the top point guard in the country.

It was only the second time in NBA history one school had four players chosen in the top 14 selections of one draft.

The Tar Heels were No. 1 in the nation in scoring and assists, fifth in field goal accuracy and seventh in three-point shooting.

In 2003-04, Robinson coached three different Tar Heels who led the ACC in scoring, rebounding and assists.

Robinson was head coach at the University of Tulsa for two years (1995-97) and at Florida State University for five years (1997-2002).

As head coach at Florida State, he led the Seminoles to the second round of the 1998 NCAA Tournament, becoming the first coach in school history to qualify for the NCAA Tournament in his first season. The Seminoles went 18-14, beat No. 5-ranked Arizona, the defending national champions, and upset fifth-seeded TCU in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Robinson was head coach at Tulsa in 1995-96 and 1996-97. He led the Golden Hurricane to a 46-18 record and back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament. In his first year, Tulsa won 22 games and won the Missouri Valley Tournament for the first time in 10 years. In 1996-97, Tulsa went 24-10 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. For his efforts, Robinson was named the Coach of the Year in the WAC Mountain Division. The 24 wins were the second-most in Tulsa history. Robinson coached future NBA players Michael Ruffin and Shea Seals while at Tulsa.

Robinson has a record of 297-81 (.786) on the bench with Williams.

He was an assistant at Kansas from 1988-95 and in 2002-03, during which the Jayhawks posted a combined record of 214-59. The Jayhawks won five Big Eight Conference regular-season titles and made Final Four appearances in 1991 and 1993. He was the team's academic coordinator; nine players made the Big Eight All-Academic Team and 37 had grade point averages of 3.0 or better.

He coached a number of Kansas standouts, including first-team All-Americas Jacque Vaughn and Raef LaFrentz, All-Big Eight selections Kevin Pritchard, Mark Randall, Adonis Jordan and Rex Walters and Big Eight Newcomer of the Year Jerod Haase.

Before joining Williams in 1988, Robinson spent two years as an assistant coach at Cornell and three seasons at his alma mater, Radford. In 1988, Cornell won the Ivy League title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 35 years.

A native of Roanoke, Va., Robinson graduated from William Fleming High School, and attended Ferrum Junior College, where he played basketball for two seasons. He was one of three student-athletes to receive Radford's first athletic scholarships, and was team captain in 1980 and 1981. He earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education in 1981 and his master's degree in counseling in 1985, both from Radford.

Brian Fleming

Jerod Haase, a Naismith and Wooden Award candidate while playing shooting guard at the University of Kansas, is in his fifth year at North Carolina and his ninth season as a member of Roy Williams' staff.

In addition to his bench duties, Haase is in his third year as the head coach of UNC's junior varsity program.

Last season, Haase helped Carolina to a 31-7 record, a share of the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season title and the 2007 ACC Tournament championship.

In 2005-06, Haase's second as a bench assistant, the Tar Heels 23-8, won at Kentucky and Duke and won seven of eight ACC road games, went 12-4 in the ACC and were a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament. He helped Williams win ACC and National Coach-of-the-Year honors.

Three years ago, Haase helped lead the Tar Heels to a 33-4 record and 2005 NCAA championship.

That was the third Final Four Haase has been part of as a member of Williams' staff. While at Kansas, the Jayhawks played in the 2002 Final Four and the 2003 national championship game.

Kansas and Carolina have combined to win 219 of 278 games (79 percent) in his eight years on Williams' staff.

Haase attended the University of California in 1992-93, and then transferred to Kansas. He helped lead the Jayhawks to three consecutive conference titles and finished his career ranked in the Top 10 among school leaders in assists, three-point field goals and steals.

He started 99 of 101 games at Kansas and scored 1,264 points, an average of 12.5 per game. Haase scored in double figures 74 times, including 20 or more points 13 times.

In his three years, the Jayhawks went 89-13 and were ranked No. 5, 4 and 1 in the nation in the final media poll, respectively. As a senior, Haase started with Jacque Vaughn, Scot Pollard, Paul Pierce and Raef LaFrentz as Kansas went 34-2. He averaged 12.0 points despite playing with a broken wrist.

He scored a career-high 30 points against Temple as a junior. That year he was named to the Big Eight All-Defensive Team. He scored 16 points, including the game-winning three-point field goal, to beat Arizona, 83-80, in the 1996 NCAA regional semifinal.

As a sophomore in 1994-95, the South Lake Tahoe, Calif., native was named the Big Eight Conference Newcomer of the Year and was a second-team all-conference selection. He led Kansas with 15.0 points a game, including a season-high 26 against Missouri and 20 against No. 2-ranked Connecticut.

He started 23 games in 1992-93 as a freshman at Cal, where he teamed in the backcourt with Jason Kidd. Haase scored 13 points in the Bears' NCAA second round win over Duke.

In 1995, Haase teamed with Tim Duncan, Allen Iverson and Kerry Kittles to win the gold medal at the World University Games.

A 1997 Kansas graduate in business administration, Haase was a first-team GTE Academic All-America as a senior. He was also a second-team Academic All-America in 1996 and was academic all-conference for three years. He earned a Master's of Science degree in business at KU in 2000.

Haase, who roomed with C.B. McGrath in college, co-wrote Floor Burns, detailing the 1996-97 season, which sold more than 30,000 copies. Floor burns are a statistic the Kansas stat crew created in honor of Haase, who had 165 of them as a junior. He also produced a basketball instructional video.

Born April 1, 1974, Haase is one of five brothers and sisters to play intercollegiate sports. He was married to the former Mindy Meidinger of Lenexa, Kan., in 1999. The couple had a son, Gavin, born in September 2006.

C.B. McGrath is in his fifth year at the University of North Carolina and his ninth season as a member of Roy Williams' basketball staff. McGrath played point guard for Williams at Kansas. He was a team captain in 1997-98 and lettered in four seasons.

In addition to his administrative duties, McGrath oversees the Roy Williams Carolina Basketball Camp and the high school coaches clinic.

Last season, McGrath helped guide Carolina to a 31-7 record, a share of the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season title and the 2007 ACC Tournament championship.

In 2005-06, McGrath helped Williams win ACC and National Coach-of-the-Year honors as the Tar Heels went from unranked in the preseason polls to No. 10 in the nation in the final rankings.

McGrath was an assistant coach for the first time in 2004-05 as the Tar Heels went 33-4, won the ACC regular-season title with a 14-2 record and claimed the 2005 NCAA championship with a 75-70 win over Illinois. Point guard Raymond Felton earned first-team All-ACC and All-NCAA Final Four honors and was the winner of the Bob Cousy Award as the top point guard in the nation.

In his eight years on Williams' staff at Kansas and Carolina, those teams have a combined record of 219-59 and played in three Final Fours.

McGrath earned a scholarship prior to the start of his freshman season at Kansas. He was the top reserve behind first-team All-America Jacque Vaughn in 1994-95 and Ryan Robertson as a senior.

During his playing career, the Jayhawks won four Big Eight or Big 12 regular-season championships and the Big 12 Tournament championship in 1997 and 1998. Kansas went 123-17 and was ranked No. 5, 4, 1 and 2 in the nation, respectively, in the final Associated Press polls.

The Jayhawks were a perfect 58-0 at Allen Fieldhouse in McGrath's career.

In 1997-98, McGrath was a tri-captain, along with Raef LaFrentz and Billy Thomas. McGrath also teamed with Greg Ostertag, Scot Pollard and Paul Pierce and roomed with current Tar Heel assistant coach Jerod Haase.

McGrath played in 112 career games, scored 82 points, had 113 assists and 35 steals. He had a better than 2:1 assist to turnover ratio, including 61 assists and just 24 turnovers as a senior. He scored his first basket as a freshman — a three-pointer — at NC State's Reynolds Coliseum.

He was a two-time Academic All-Big 12 selection.

Colin Bryan (C.B.) McGrath was born Nov. 21, 1975, in Indianapolis, Ind. He is one of 20 members of his family who have attended the University of Kansas.

McGrath attended Topeka West High School, where he earned 13 varsity letters in basketball, cross country, track and golf. He was the Kansas High School Player of the Year in basketball as a senior and placed in the top 10 in the state in cross country and golf.

He earned a B.A. in human biology and a master's degree in education. McGrath's wife, Kris played tennis at KU, where she was the Big 12 Player of the Year. The couple had twin daughters, Kate and Addison, in August 2006.

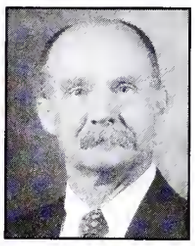
MARC DAVIS
Head Athletic Trainer/ Physical Therapist



Marc Davis is the head athletic trainer and physical therapist for the University of North Carolina men's basketball team, a position he has held since the 1977-78 season. He has been a part of Tar Heel national championship teams in each of the last three decades.

Davis received his Bachelor of Science degree in physical therapy from the University of North Carolina in 1974. After graduating from Carolina, he worked as a physical therapist at Danville Memorial Hospital in Danville, Va., from October 1974 to May 1975. He began his current tenure on the sports medicine staff at Carolina in July of 1975.

The 56-year-old Davis, a native of Wilmington, N.C., and alumnus of New Hanover High School, is a member of the American Physical Therapy Association and the National Athletic Trainers Association.

He was the recipient of the award for the outstanding physical therapist of the year for 1998 by the North Carolina Physical Therapy Association.

Davis' duties at Carolina consist of providing physical therapy and athletic training services to Carolina athletic teams. In addition to the men's basketball team, he also serves as head trainer for the men's and women's swimming and diving teams.

He also provides similar services to members of the general student body who are recommended to him by Student Health Service physicians.

Davis is married to the former Paula Gee. They have an 18-year-old daughter, Irma Consuelo.

JONAS SAHRATIAN
Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Jonas Sahratian (pronounced suh-RAY-shun) is entering his fourth season as the strength and conditioning coordinator for the Tar Heel men's basketball program after serving in the same capacity at the University of Kansas for five seasons.

Sahratian coordinates strength and conditioning for men's basketball and also works with the diving team.

He worked with Carolina head coach Roy Williams in Lawrence from January 1999 to April 2003. In 2003-04, he worked with KU basketball and also coordinated strength and conditioning for the volleyball, swimming and diving teams.

A native of Detroit, Mich., Sahratian graduated from Western Michigan University in 1997 with a bachelor of science degree in exercise science. In 2000, he received his master's in exercise physiology from Kansas.

In addition to working with Kansas athletics, Sahratian interned for two years at the Chicago Bulls/Vermeil's Sports and Fitness in Deerfield, Ill. He worked there during the Bulls' NBA championship seasons in 1996-97 and 1997-98.

He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association and a certified club coach through USA Weightlifting.

Sahratian and his wife, Gretchen, reside in Durham.

WAYNE WALDEN
Associate Director of the Academic Support Center

Wayne Walden enters his fifth season with the University of North Carolina academic advisory staff, having arrived in the summer of 2003 after spending 16 years in the student support services office at the University of Kansas.

At Carolina, Walden coordinates academic support for men's basketball, volleyball and men's and women's swimming and diving. He oversees scheduling, registration, structured study halls, tutorial services and progress toward degrees for the student-athletes in those programs.

Walden was the Director of Degree and Career Counseling at Kansas and worked with the men's basketball, baseball, tennis and volleyball programs. He was also an instructor in KU's School of Education, where he taught a course designed to help seniors make the transition to post-college experiences.

Walden is a native of Topeka, Kan. He graduated from KU in 1984 with a degree in business administration and earned his master's in counseling psychology from Kansas in 1990.

ERIC HOOTS
Video Coordinator

Eric Hoots is in his fourth season as video coordinator in the UNC Basketball office. His primary duties include taping Tar Heel games and practices, coordinating the exchange of scouting tape and supervising day-to-day video needs.

Hoots, a 2004 UNC graduate with a degree in African-American Studies and Interpersonal Communications, was a three-year Tar Heel letterman as a varsity manager from 2001-2004. He served as head manager as a senior and also was a junior varsity manager for one season.

A native of Newton, N.C., Hoots attended Bandys High School in Catawba, where he played two years of varsity basketball.

Carolina has played in seven Final Fours in the last 17 years, more than any other school in the nation during that span.

THE UNIVERSITY of NORTH CAROLINA
at CHAPEL HILL

When the NCAA released its multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) figures in 2007, the Carolina men's basketball team passed with flying colors. The Tar Heels' APR of 993 ranked in the top 10 percent among all Division I basketball programs.

this is CAROLINA

the first state university

Carolina ranked 1st among major U.S. universities – for the 6th time in 8 years – in the percentage of African-American students in the first-year class, according to The Journal of Blacks in Higher Education.

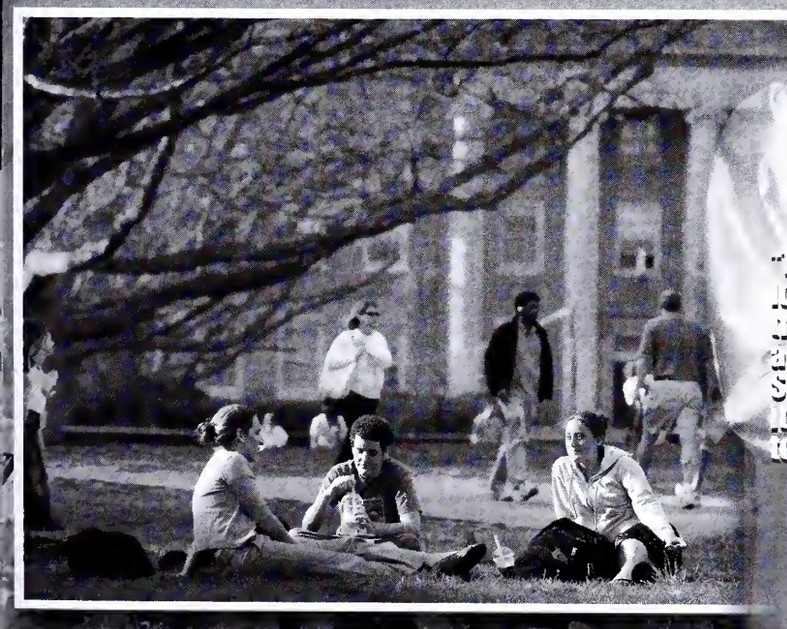
U.S. News & World Report has consistently ranked UNC in the top five nationally among public universities and in the top 30 of all colleges.

Every senior during Roy Williams' years at Carolina has graduated or is on track to receive his degree.

Reports NewsWeek: "If a moviemaker needs an idyllic setting for a film about college life, Chapel Hill might just take the prize."

As the nation's premier leadership development program in collegiate athletics, the Carolina Leadership Academy develops, challenges and supports student-athletes, coaches and staff in their continual quest to become world class leaders in athletics, academics and life.

LEADERSHIP CAROLINA ACADEMY



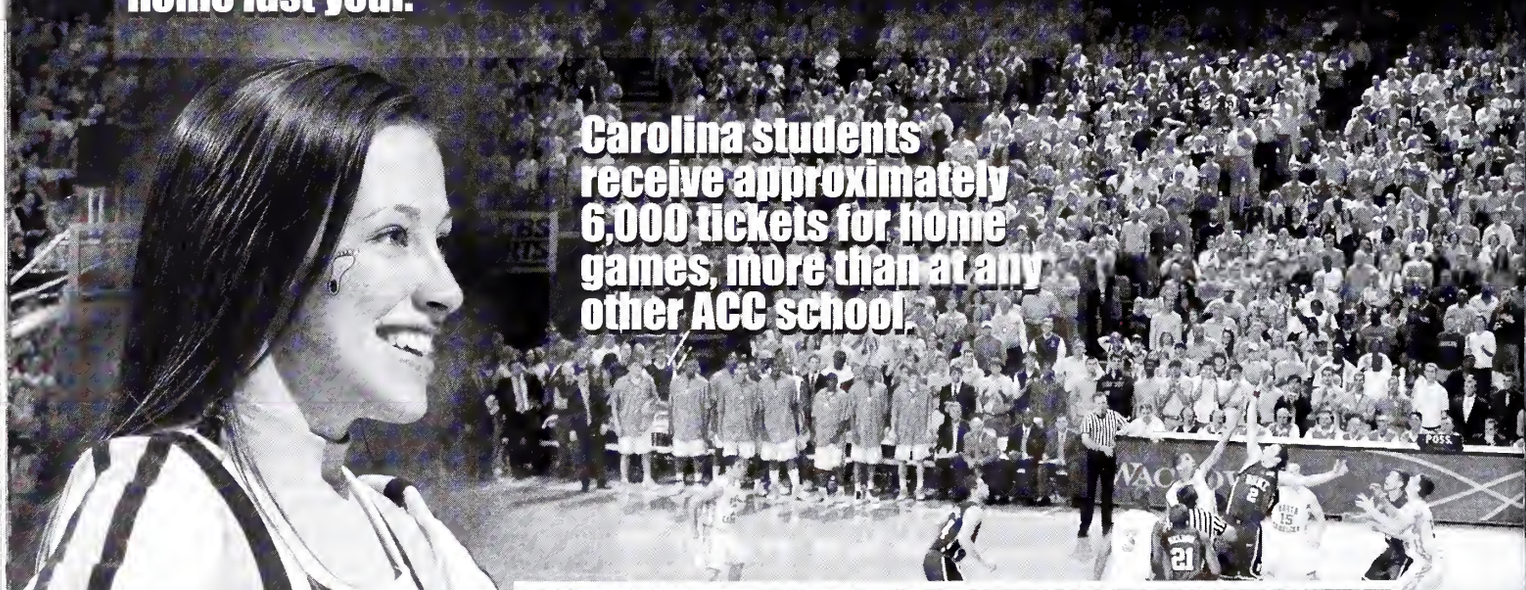
"That was one of the main reasons I went to Carolina. A lot of the other programs were telling me how I could be this and that, but Carolina always talked about getting an education first. I know how important it is to Coach Smith that the players get their degrees. In some ways it's a show of respect for Coach and the Carolina family to go ahead and work and get your degree."

- National Player of the Year and NBA All-Star Antawn Jamison (pictured right with fellow graduate Jerry Stackhouse)

"I think I've never been in a building that was as loud as that building."

- Ohio State head coach Thad Matta after losing to Carolina in the Smith Center, Nov. 29, 2006

Carolina averaged 20,693 fans last season, ranking third in the NCAA. That is a higher average than 28 of the 30 NBA teams drew at home last year.



Carolina students receive approximately 6,000 tickets for home games, more than at any other ACC school.

WHY CAROLINA?

1957 & 1982 championship reunion

Lennie Rosenbluth

Members of the 1957 and 1982 NCAA champion Carolina teams returned to Chapel Hill in Feb. 2007 for a reunion celebrating their accomplishments. The undefeated '57 Tar Heels won a pair of triple-overtime games on back-to-back nights in the Final Four to complete their 32-0 season. The '82 team, led by Michael Jordan, James Worthy and Sam Perkins, won Dean Smith's first NCAA title.

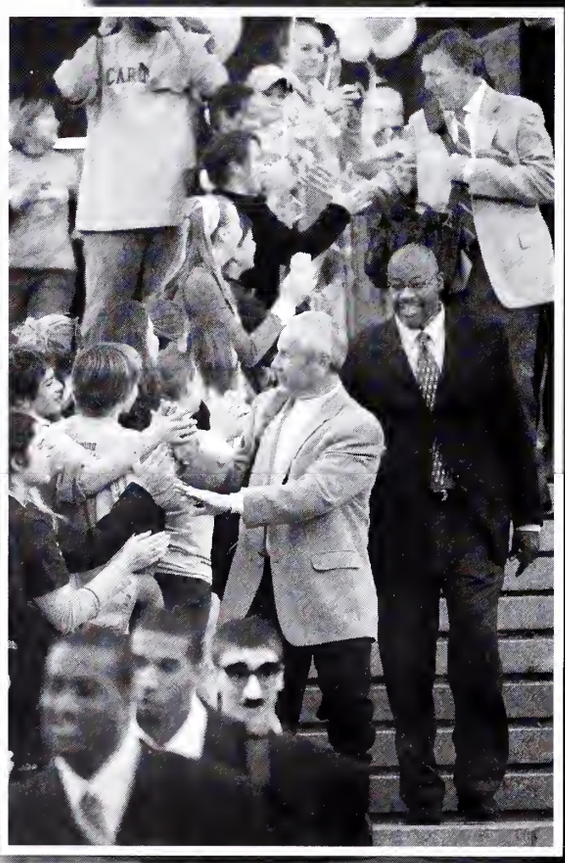
Pete Brennan, Tommy Kearns

"Simply put, North Carolina has everything you want in a basketball program: tradition, historical success, current success, an enormous and passionate fan base, quality facilities, complete national recruiting reach and a Hall of Fame coach who already has won a national title at the school."

- ESPN.com, May 11, 2007



"Coming to Carolina is the best decision I've ever made. People in this community opened their arms to me. It's a place where I can always say I love. It's a place where I can always call home, where I can see myself living for a long time. I'm forever grateful for my memories here and the people I've met here, the relationships I've developed. It's something I'll always cherish for the rest of my life.

"Whenever I come back, people are going to know me because I was on a national championship team. That's part of the greatest memory, that you'll have an impact on people's lives you never met, you don't even know, who aren't your age, who are four, five, six, seven years old who are starting to learn the game. And one of the reasons they'll want to come to Carolina is they saw you play and they saw the way you represented the university."

Carolina ...

- 5 national championships
- 16 NCAA Final Fours
- 9 National Players of the Year
- 34 first-team All-Americas
- 16 ACC Tournament titles
- 25 ACC regular-season crowns
- 10 ACC Players of the Year
- 8 Naismith Hall of Famers
- 29 NBA championship rings
- No. 2 all-time in NCAA wins
- 36 NBA first-round draft picks

"I came to Carolina because I wanted to play for Coach Williams. Being a Carolina Basketball player is that pride you have, the tradition of winning, being a part of something so special. That feeling of running out of the tunnel in the Smith Center is amazing. I remember the first time I did it. I was speechless. It's been a dream of mine to play at Carolina my whole life, so to run out of that tunnel every game is a special feeling."

- Marvin Williams, Atlanta Hawks

"I remember sitting at Coach Williams' house and watching the highlight film from the (national) championship team. I looked at Marvin (Williams) when it was done, and a tear was coming down his cheek. It was at that moment I realized that this is special, this is something I want to be a part of."

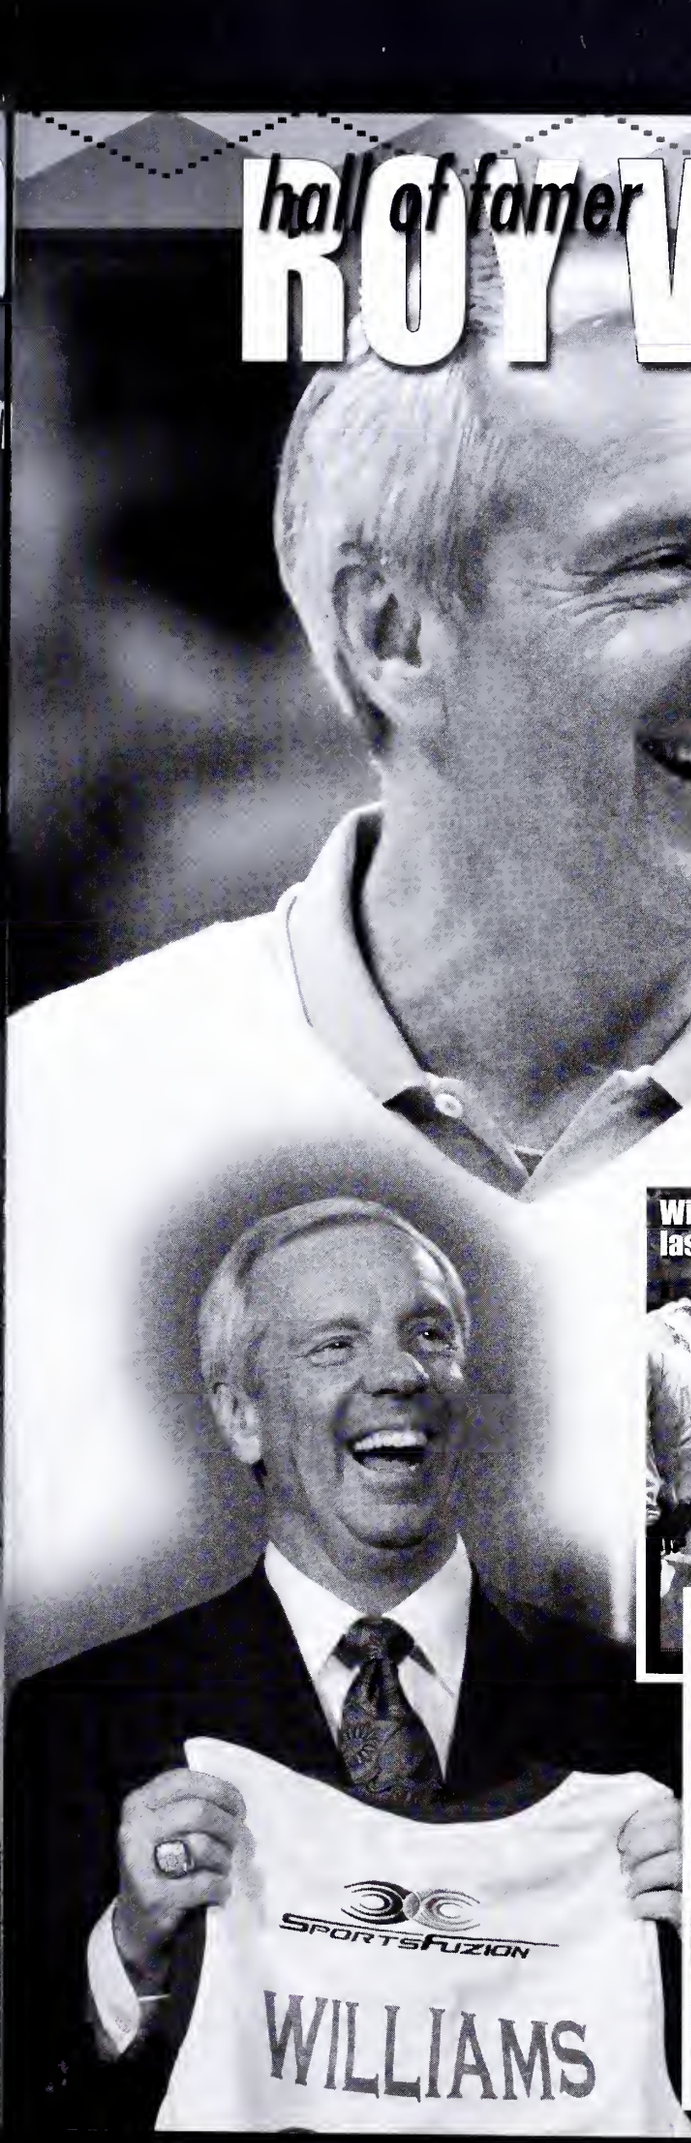
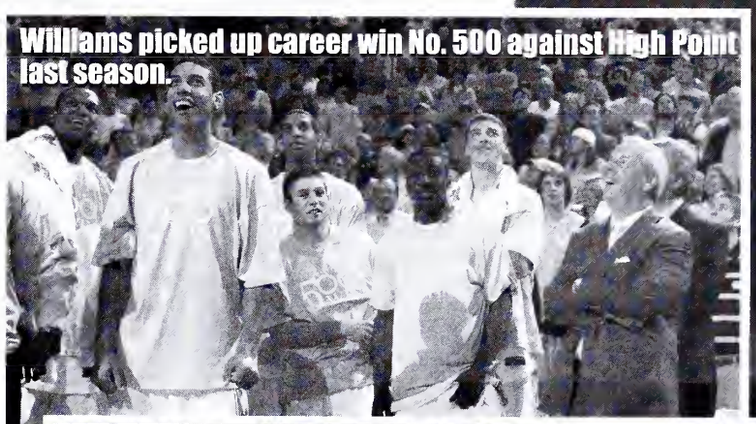
college basketball's best

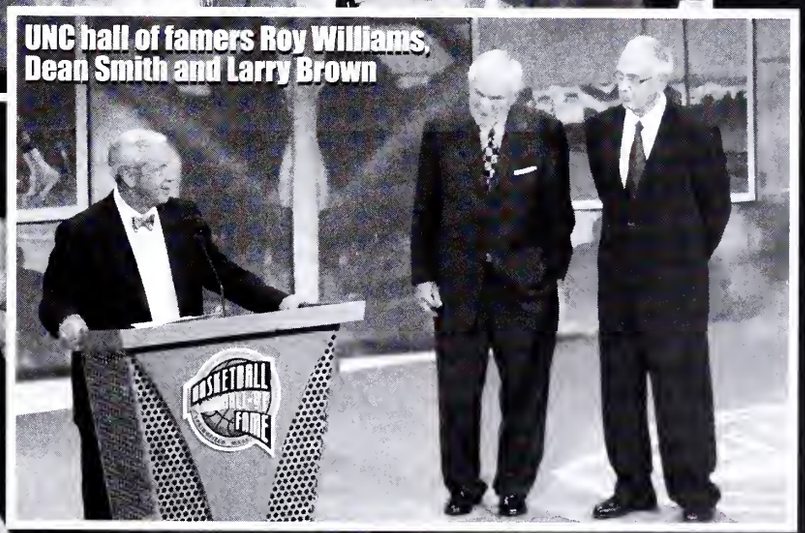
Roy Williams at a glance

- Roy Williams was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 2007.
- Williams has guided his teams to five Final Fours and the 2005 NCAA championship.
- Williams won his 500th game in fewer seasons than any coach in college basketball history.
- No coach in America has won more games in the last six seasons than Williams' 169 (28.2 per season). He is one of only two coaches in NCAA history to win 30 or more games at least seven times.
- Williams' career winning percentage of 80.0 is the highest of any active coach with 10 years as a head coach and ranks fourth all-time.
- Williams has been named national coach of the year in six different seasons.
- Twenty-four former Williams players have played in the NBA and 16 were first-round draft picks.





Williams picked up career win No. 500 against High Point last season.

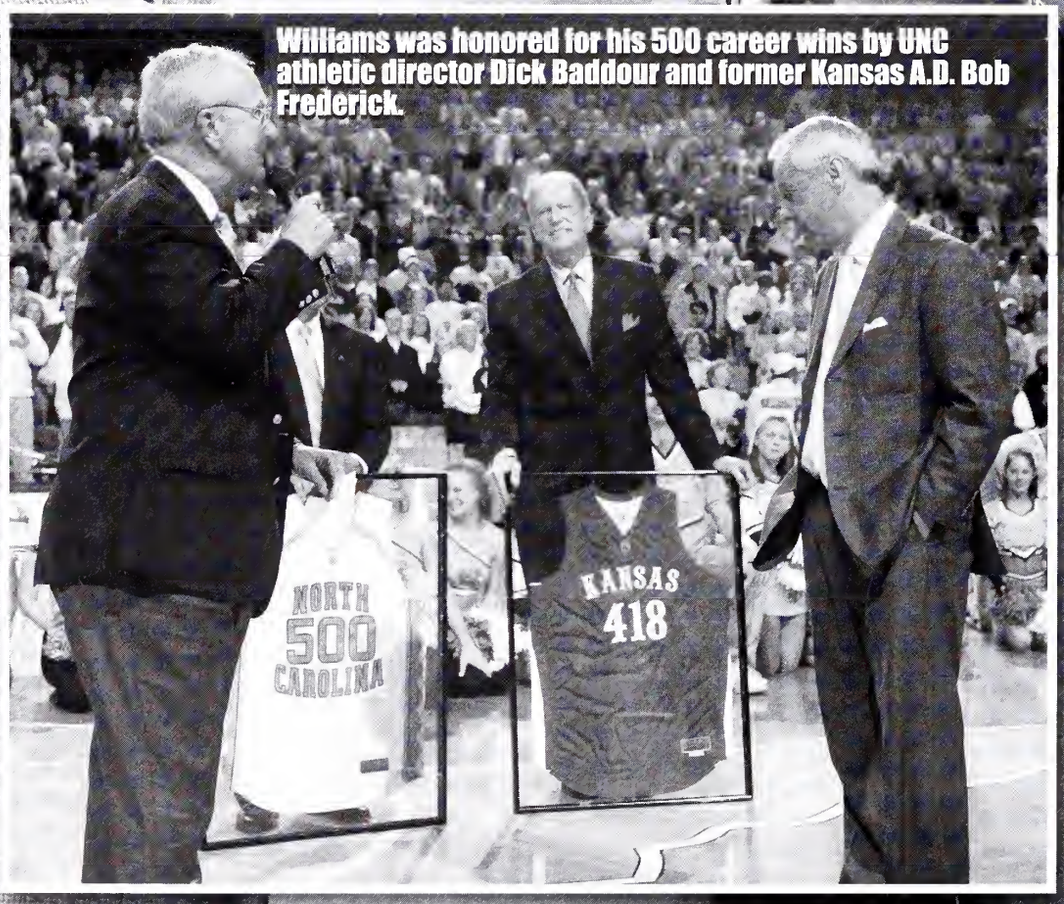


UNC hall of famers Roy Williams, Dean Smith and Larry Brown

Carolina has averaged 83.8 points per game in four seasons under Roy Williams, topping 100 points 18 times. Williams-coached teams have ranked in the top four in the nation in scoring five times in the last six years. "Williams recruits to his very up-tempo style of play and uses the depth he recruits," wrote ESPN.com in May 2007.

"Every day I get a chance to talk to Coach Williams or see Coach Williams is a special day to me. He means so much to me. He's been involved in every major experience in my life—with my family, with my marriage. When I was drafted he was one of the first ones to call. When I had kids he was the first one to write a note. He calls and checks on me every couple of weeks to see how I'm doing. I'm so happy to see him ... every day I live, I try to make him proud."

- Florida Atlantic head coach Rex Walters (Kansas '93)



Williams was honored for his 500 career wins by UNC athletic director Dick Baddour and former Kansas A.D. Bob Frederick.

Hall of famer ROY WILLIAMS

college basketball's best

"Roy Williams is one of the select few of the greatest coaches in the entire game of basketball. His move to North Carolina ensures for the foreseeable future excellence both on and off the court. The championships will now fall time after time to Chapel Hill."

"Both May and Felton have a very exceptional basketball IQ," Charlotte Bobcats coach Bernie Bickerstaff said in 2005-06. "They are coachable and they are in a situation where they can grow. Coming from one of the best college basketball programs definitely helps. They've played the best competition, and they've won a championship. So they know how to win."

"When it comes to impact on the NBA, one program clearly stands apart from the rest. Two schools, North Carolina and UCLA, have developed the most quality NBA talent over the span of the 60 years of league history, and over the last 25 years the Tar Heels have left the Bruins far behind. Carolina has had more first round draft picks than any other program. Those draft picks have gone on to consistently meet or beat expectations for their performance in the NBA. As icing on the cake, Carolina has also had more former players develop into winning NBA coaches than any other college program, and in this regard there is not even a close second."

ACC CHAMPION TAR HEELS REACH NCAA FINAL EIGHT

The University of North Carolina men's basketball team in 2006-07 won 31 games and captured its 16th Atlantic Coast Conference championship. Carolina earned the No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament East Regional and advanced to the regional final before losing to Georgetown.

Carolina finished the season ranked No. 4 in the Associated Press poll and tied for No. 5 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll.

HANSBROUGH NAMED TEAM MVP

Consensus first-team All-America Tyler Hansbrough was voted Most Valuable Player of the 2006-07 Carolina team. The Poplar Bluff, Mo., native averaged 18.4 points and 7.9 rebounds and was a unanimous first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection for the second year in a row.

Sophomore swingman Marcus Ginyard was selected as the team's best defensive player, senior guard Dewey Burke was voted most inspirational player, freshman point guard Ty Lawson was named most improved player and freshman forward Brandan Wright was voted most outstanding freshman.

Lawson received the John Lotz Award for most assists on the team.

Seniors Reyshawn Terry and Wes Miller were elected permanent co-captains and Miller received the Burgess McSwain scholar-athlete award.

Statistical leaders included Wright (Mary Frances Andrews Award for field goal percentage), Danny Green (Martha Jordan Award for free throw percentage), Hansbrough (Benjamin and Oscar Vatz Award for rebounds) and Lawson (assists).

CAROLINA WINS ITS 16TH ACC TOURNAMENT

• Carolina won the 2007 ACC Tournament in Tampa, Fla. The Tar Heels beat Florida State, Boston College and NC State to win their 16th ACC Tournament championship.

• Prior to 2007, the last time UNC had won both a share of the ACC regular season title and the ACC Tournament in the same season was 1982.

• Freshman Brandan Wright became the fourth Tar Heel and the fifth player ever to be named MVP of the ACC Tournament. Fellow UNC stars Phil Ford, Sam Perkins and Jerry Stackhouse are the other Carolina freshmen to earn ACC Tournament MVP honors.

TAR HEELS SHARE ACC REGULAR SEASON TITLE

• The 2006-07 season was the 25th time Carolina has won at least a share of the ACC regular-season championship (and the second time under Roy Williams, joining 2004-05).

• Roy Williams has won or tied for 11 conference regular-season championships in 19 years as a head coach.

NCAA-RECORD 18 STRAIGHT YEARS WITH AN NCAA WIN FOR WILLIAMS

• When Carolina beat Eastern Kentucky in the first round of the 2007 NCAA Tournament in Winston-Salem, N.C., Roy Williams became the only coach in the nation to win at least one NCAA Tournament game in each of the last 18 seasons.

• The 18 consecutive years with at least one NCAA Tournament victory is a new NCAA record. Former UNC coach Dean Smith shared the previous record of 17 with Williams.

30 WINS

• Carolina's victory over Michigan State in the NCAA East Regional second round gave UNC its eighth 30-win season and second in the last three seasons.

• Roy Williams ranks second all-time in 30-win seasons (among both active and all coaches) with seven. Duke's Mike Krzyzewski is first with nine and Connecticut's Jim Calhoun is third with six.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Carolina was one of just four schools in the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16—Florida, Vanderbilt and Butler were the others—to boast a Graduation Success Rate of at least 70 percent in the recent Institute for Diversity in Ethics and Sport study.

HANSBROUGH A CONSENSUS FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICA

• Sophomore Tyler Hansbrough in 2006-07 became Carolina's first consensus first-team All-America since 2001. Hansbrough was a consensus choice based on being named first-team by The Sporting News, the NABC, the Wooden Award and the USBWA. He was a second-team choice by the Associated Press.

• Hansbrough was a finalist for the Naismith Trophy, the Wooden Award and the USBWA national player of the year award.

WILLIAMS WINS NO. 100 AT UNC

Head coach Roy Williams won his 100th game as the North Carolina head coach on March 4 against Duke. Williams enters the 2007-08 season with a record of 106-30 at UNC (136 games at Carolina).

• Williams is the second-fastest coach to win 100 ACC games in the history of the conference and the fastest in more than 40 years.

TAR HEELS SECOND IN NATION IN SCORING MARGIN & SCORING

In the 2006-07 final NCAA statistics, Carolina ranked second in the nation with a scoring margin of +17.1 points per game (trailing only Florida's +17.2). Furthermore, UNC boasted the nation's No. 2 scoring offense, the third-best rebounding margin in the country and the fourth-best field goal percentage in the land. The Tar Heels were also third in the nation in assists per game.

HANSBROUGH FASTEST TAR HEEL TO 1,000 POINTS IN NEARLY 40 YEARS

• Sophomore forward Tyler Hansbrough scored his 1,000th career point against NC State on Feb. 3, 2007, in his 54th career game, making him the fastest Carolina player to 1,000 points since freshmen became eligible in 1972-73.

• The last UNC player to reach the 1,000-point club faster than Hansbrough was Charles Scott (52 games) in 1968-69.

FRESHMEN SCORE AT RECORD CLIP

Carolina's freshman class of Wayne Ellington, Ty Lawson, Alex Stepheson, Deon Thompson and Brandan Wright scored 43.0 points per game in 2006-07, a higher average than any freshman class in UNC history and fourth-best in ACC annals.

WILLIAMS FASTEST TO 500 WINS

With a win on Dec. 9 against High Point, Roy Williams became the fastest coach in NCAA Division I history to 500 wins in terms of seasons coached and the third-fastest to 500 in games coached.

38TH GAME

• Carolina (31-7) tied a school record in 2006-07 by playing 38 games. The Tar Heels also played 38 games in the NCAA championship season of 1992-93 and the Final Four season of 1997-98.

• The following Tar Heels tied a school record by playing in 38 games in 2006-07: Tyler Hansbrough, Wayne Ellington, Ty Lawson, Reyshawn Terry, Deon Thompson, Wes Miller and Alex Stepheson.

TAR HEELS EARN NCAA-RECORD 11TH NO. 1 SEED

• The 2006-07 season marked the 11th time Carolina has been a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament and the eighth time in the last 17 years. The Tar Heels have earned more No. 1 seeds than any team in NCAA Tournament history.

• 2006-07 marked Roy Williams' seventh No. 1 seed in 19 years as a head coach.

• Carolina is 37-8 all-time as a No. 1 seed in NCAA Tournament play and has won nine of its last 10 contests as a No. 1 (6-0 in 2005 and 3-1 games in 2007).

• Five of the last seven No. 1 seeds Carolina has received have resulted in Final Four appearances—2005, 1998, 1997, 1993 and 1991. The exceptions came in 1994 and 2007.

HANSBROUGH, WRIGHT NAMED ALL-ACC

• Tar Heels Tyler Hansbrough and Brandan Wright earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors for 2006-07, the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association (ACSMA) announced on March 5.

• Wright was named the 2006-07 ACC Rookie of the Year, the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association (ACSMA) announced on March 6.

• Wright and Ty Lawson were named to the five-man ACC All-Freshman team. Wright was a unanimous selection.

Jason Kendall Ray, who portrayed the UNC mascot Rameses for three years, died on March 26, 2007, three days after being struck by a vehicle while in Hackensack, N.J., with the Tar Heels for the NCAA Tournament.

"Jason gave Rameses an energy that was unique," UNC cheerleading coach Brown Walters said. "He embodied all of the qualities you would want in a team member. He was a tremendous ambassador of the University of North Carolina, and that spirit will live on forever."

"He may have performed in the anonymity that comes with playing the mascot," said Athletic Director Dick Baddour, "but his life has had an overt and lasting impact on the people whose lives he touched."

ACC Championships

The Tar Heels went 11-5 in ACC play in 2007, winning their 25th regular-season Atlantic Coast Conference championship by tying with Virginia. Carolina also won the 2007 ACC Tournament in Tampa, Fla.

UNC has won 15 regular-season championships outright, shared 10 others and won 16 ACC Tournament titles. Carolina's 25 regular-season titles are seven more than Duke and two more than the other 10 ACC teams combined.

ACC 50

The Tar Heels placed 12 on the ACC 50th Anniversary Team, more than any other school. Carolina's honorees included Lennie Rosenbluth, Billy Cunningham, Larry Miller, Charles Scott, Bobby Jones, Walter Davis, Phil Ford, James Worthy, Sam Perkins, Michael Jordan, Brad Daugherty and Antawn Jamison.

ACC Players of the Year

Ten different Tar Heels have been named ACC Player of the Year, including Larry Miller, who won the award in 1967 and 1968. Other Tar Heel recipients include Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Pete Brennan (1958), Lee Shaffer (1960), Billy Cunningham (1965), Mitch Kupchak (1976), Phil Ford (1978), Michael Jordan (1984), Antawn Jamison (1998) and Joseph Forte (2001).

All-Americas

Forty-seven Tar Heels have earned All-America honors, including 33 first-team honorees. The most recent first-team selection was Tyler Hansbrough in both 2005-06 and 2006-07.

Phil Ford (1976-78), Mike O'Koren (1978-80) and Sam Perkins (1982-84) earned first-team All-America honors on three occasions. Ford, O'Koren and Perkins and NC State's David Thompson and Virginia's Ralph Sampson are the only three-time, first-team All-Americas in ACC history.

Carolina is tied for second in NCAA history with 14 consensus first-team All-Americas. They include George Glamack (1940 and 1941), Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Larry Miller (1968), Robert McAdoo (1972), Phil Ford (1977 and 1978), James Worthy (1982), Michael Jordan (1983 and 1984), Sam Perkins (1983 and 1984), Kenny Smith (1987), J.R. Reid (1988), Jerry Stackhouse (1995), Antawn Jamison (1998), Joseph Forte (2001) and Tyler Hansbrough (2007).

All-ACC

Carolina has placed 66 players on the All-ACC first team, the most in league history. Duke is second with 54. Tyler Hansbrough was a unanimous selection in 2005-06 and 2006-07.

Seven Tar Heels have earned first-team honors three times – Lennie Rosenbluth (1956-58), York Larese (1959-61), Billy Cunningham (1963-65), Charles Scott (1968-70), Phil Ford (1976-78), Sam Perkins (1982-84) and Antawn Jamison (1996-98).

Draft Day

Carolina has had 92 players selected in the NBA Draft, including 36 players taken in the first round. The Tar Heels have had 17 players drafted in the first round in the last 19 years, including Lottery Pick Brandan Wright in 2007. In 2005, Marvin Williams (2nd), Raymond Felton (5th), Sean May (13th) and Rashad McCants (14th) became the first school to have four players taken in the NBA Draft Lottery.

James Worthy and Brad Daugherty were selected No. 1 overall in the draft. Worthy was selected in 1982 by the Lakers; Daugherty was taken No. 1 by Cleveland in 1986.

Michael Jordan was the third player selected in the 1984 Draft behind Hakeem Olajuwon (Houston) and Sam Bowie (Portland).

Final Four

Carolina has played in 16 Final Fours, tied with UCLA for most in the nation. The Tar Heels played in the Final Four in 1946, 1957, 1967, 1968, 1969, 1972, 1977, 1981, 1982, 1991, 1993, 1995, 1997, 1998, 2000 and 2005. The Tar Heels won the NCAA title in 1957, 1982, 1993 and 2005.

Rusty Clark (1967-69), Bill Bunting (1967-69) and Ed Cota (1997-98, 2000) are the only Tar Heels to start in three different Final Fours. Carolina holds the NCAA record for most players who have played in a Final Four with 135.

Final Four MVPs

Sean May had 26 points and 10 rebounds in Carolina's 75-70 win over Illinois in the 2005 NCAA championship game and was named the Most Outstanding Player of the Final Four. May is the third Tar Heel to win that award, along with James Worthy in 1982 and Donald Williams in 1993.

500 ACC Wins

The Tar Heels have won 548 regular-season ACC games, more than any other school in league history.

Freshmen

Carolina has had 13 players named to the ACC All-Freshman Team since its inception in 1992-93. Ty Lawson and Brandan Wright made the team in 2006-07, joining Tyler Hansbrough, Marvin Williams, Raymond Felton, Rashad McCants, Jawad Williams, Joseph Forte, Kris Lang, Ed Cota, Antawn Jamison, Jerry Stackhouse and Rasheed Wallace as All-ACC Freshman selections.

Eight Carolina players have been named ACC Rookie of the Year, including Sam Perkins (1981), Michael Jordan (1982), J.R. Reid (1987), Cota (1997), Forte (2000), Marvin Williams (2005), Hansbrough (2006) and Wright (2007).

Twenty-five Tar Heels have started their first game, the latest being Wayne Ellington and Brandan Wright in 2006-07.

Hall of Famers

Eight Tar Heel coaches and players are members of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, including 2007 inductee Roy Williams, who joined Larry Brown, coach Ben Carnevale, Billy Cunningham, Robert McAdoo, coach Frank McGuire, coach Dean Smith and James Worthy.

National Players of the Year

Nine different Tar Heels have won National Player of the Year honors, including consensus winners Phil Ford (1978), Michael Jordan (1984) and Antawn Jamison (1998). Other winners are Jack Cobb (1926), George Glamack (1940 and 1941), Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), James Worthy (1982), Kenny Smith (1987) and Jerry Stackhouse (1995). Jordan, named by eight organizations as a junior, also was The Sporting News' pick as a sophomore in 1983.

Associated Press (since 1961) – Jordan (1984), Jamison (1998)
Wooden Award (since 1977) – Ford (1978), Jordan (1984), Jamison (1998)
Naismith Award (since 1969) – Jordan (1984), Jamison (1998)
NABC (since 1975) – Ford (1978), Jordan (1984), Jamison (1998)
USBWA (since 1959) – Ford (1978), Jordan (1984), Jamison (1998)

NBA Champions

Michael Jordan won six NBA championship rings. He is one of 13 former Tar Heels who have gone on to win NBA championship rings as players. Those 13 players have accounted for 29 rings. The rest of the ACC has a combined 21 players winning 34 rings.

NBA 50

In the late 1990s, the NBA selected its All-Time 50 Greatest Players. Former Tar Heels Billy Cunningham, Michael Jordan and James Worthy were named to the team. Carolina, Houston and LSU were the only schools to have three players on the team.

NCAA Tournament

Carolina is second in NCAA history with 39 appearances, 130 games played and 92 wins in the NCAA Tournament. The Tar Heels established an all-time record with 27 consecutive trips to the Tournament from 1975-2001. UNC has the third-best win percentage (.708) in Tournament history.

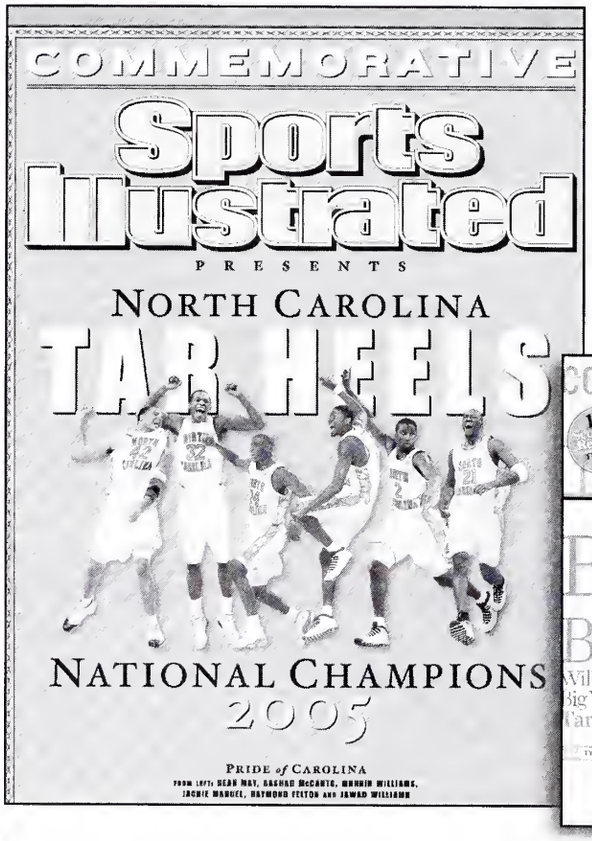
No. 1

Carolina has been ranked No. 1 in the nation in the Associated Press poll in 16 different seasons since the AP began its rankings in 1948-49. Those seasons include 1957, 1958, 1959, 1978, 1982, 1983, 1984, 1986, 1987, 1988, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1998, 2001 and 2007.

The Tar Heels have been No. 1 on 85 occasions. Carolina is second in weeks ranked No. 1 in the country behind UCLA (128).

Carolina has been ranked in the Top 10 in 553 polls. That is the second-highest figure in NCAA basketball history. Carolina has appeared in the AP poll 722 times, more than any other school in history. Duke is second in ACC history, having been ranked 582 times.

Carolina is the only school in the country with 12 wins over the No. 1 ranked team in the AP poll, including a victory at Duke in 2006.



No. 1 vs. No. 2

Carolina has played in seven games involving the top two ranked teams in the country by the Associated Press poll and the Tar Heels are 7-0 in those games (4-0 as No. 1 and 3-0 as No. 2).

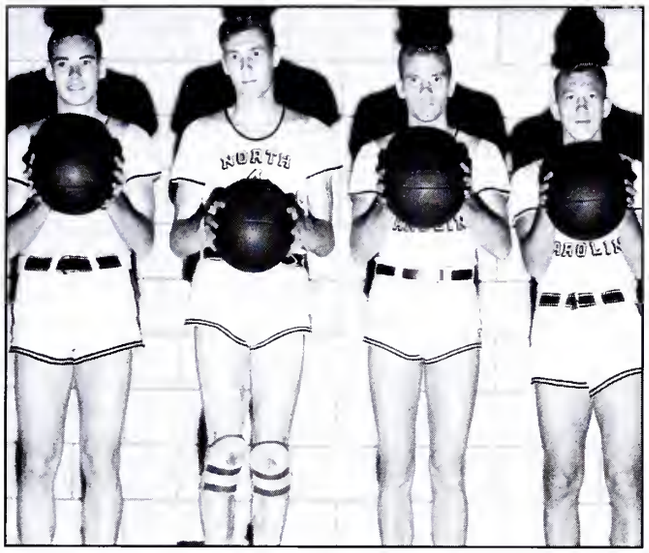
A list of those games:
March 23, 1957 – No. 1 UNC 54, No. 2 Kansas 53
Dec. 26, 1981 – No. 1 UNC 82, No. 2 Kentucky 69
Jan. 9, 1982 – No. 1 UNC 65, No. 2 Virginia 60
Feb. 4, 1986 – No. 1 UNC 78, No. 2 Ga. Tech 77
Feb. 3, 1994 – No. 2 UNC 89, No. 1 Duke 78
Feb. 5, 1998 – No. 2 UNC 97, No. 1 Duke 73
Apr. 4, 2005 – No. 2 UNC 75, No. 1 Illinois 70

1,000-Point Scorers

The Tar Heels have had 59 players reach 1,000 points. That figure is the most in the nation. Lousville is second with 57. Phil Ford (2,290), Sam Perkins (2,145), Lennie Rosenbluth (2,045), Al Wood (2,015) and Charles Scott (2,007) netted at least 2,000 points.

Wins

The Tar Heels have won 1,914 basketball games, the second-most in NCAA history. Carolina, Kentucky and Kansas are the only programs in the country with at least 1,900 wins.



North Carolina Collection

The 1946 Tar Heels, led by (l-r) John Dillon, Bob Paxton, Jim White and Jim Hayworth, made the first Final Four appearance in school history.

Jan. 27, 1910: Carolina defeats Virginia Christian, 42-21, in first game.

Feb. 20, 1915: Lynchburg YMCA wins 63-20, the most lopsided loss in UNC history (43 points).

Feb. 28, 1922: Cartwright Carmichael and Monk McDonald lead UNC to 40-26 win over Mercer for Southern Conference (SoCon) Tournament title.

March 4, 1924: 26-16 win over Alabama wins SoCon title and caps 26-0 season. Helms Foundation later selects Carolina as national champions.

Feb. 18, 1926: A 17-8 loss to NC State marks the fewest points in UNC history, but two weeks later, Carolina beats Mississippi State to win the SoCon Tournament.

Feb. 10, 1941: Two-time All-America George Glamack scores a record 45 points in 76-53 win over Clemson. Later that year, UNC loses to Pittsburgh and Dartmouth in first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

March 6-8, 1975: Phil Ford becomes first freshman to win ACC Tournament MVP honors after leading Carolina to the title with 70-66 victory over defending NCAA champion NC State and David Thompson. Tar Heels beat Wake Forest, 101-100, in overtime in the quarterfinal after trailing by eight points with 50 seconds to play. Brad Hoffman sends the game into overtime with a 12-foot jumper with two seconds to play. Ford scores 29 and UNC needs overtime again to knock out Clemson in semifinals, then scores 24 in championship game win over Norm Sloan's Wolfpack.

Feb. 14, 1976: Mitch Kupchak has 35 points and 21 rebounds and Davis has 26 points, 11 boards and six steals as Carolina works four overtimes to beat Tulane, 113-106, in the Louisiana Superdome. It is the longest game in Carolina history.

March 8, 1976: Wally Walker scores 21 points to lead sixth-seeded Virginia to 67-62 win over regular-season champion UNC in ACC championship game.

March 5, 1977: Ford scores 26 and freshman Mike O'Koren adds 21 as Carolina returns the favor from a year before, beating Virginia, 75-69, in the ACC final. Tournament MVP John Kuester handles the ball after Ford fouls out with 5:45 to play and goes 6 for 6 from the line. Ford scores 19 of his 26 in the first half. Bruce Buckley gives UNC the lead for good, breaking a 67-all tie.

March 17, 1977: Ford hyper-extends his right elbow, but scores 29 points, including the winning free throw with two seconds left in 79-77 win over Notre Dame (on St. Patrick's Day) in the NCAA East Regional semifinal.

March 19, 1977: Davis, playing with a broken finger on his shooting hand, scores 21 points as fifth-ranked UNC beats No. 13 Kentucky, 79-72, to reach the Final Four.

March 26, 1977: O'Koren scores 31 as Tar Heels edge No. 4 UNLV, 84-83, in national semifinal. Carolina loses a second-half lead and the championship two days later to Al McGuire's Marquette Warriors, 67-59.

Jan. 7, 1978: The Tar Heels set an NCAA field goal percentage record by making 16 of 17 shots from the floor in the second half. Carolina shoots 94.1 percent in second half of 76-61 victory.

Feb. 25, 1978: Ford scores a career-high 34 points on 13 of 19 shooting from the floor in his final game at Carmichael Auditorium, an 87-83 win over Duke. Ford clinches third straight ACC regular-season title with two free throws with six seconds left.

Dec. 16, 1978: O'Koren's 18 points and six assists out-duels "Magic" Johnson's 18 points, six assists and eight turnovers in UNC's 70-69 win over No. 3 Michigan State. The Spartans went on to win the 1979 NCAA title.

Jan. 17, 1979: Dudley Bradley steals the ball from Clyde Austin and dunks home the game-winner with seconds to play in a 70-69 win over NC State in a game that stuns the Reynolds Coliseum crowd. Carolina led 40-19, but the Pack came back to take the lead before Bradley's heroics.

Feb. 24, 1979: Carolina holds the ball in the first half and fails to score as Duke leads, 7-0, at intermission. The Tar Heels wait 12:25 into the game before attempting a shot. Both teams score 40 in the second half and Duke wins, 47-40, in one of the most famous delay games ever played.

March 3, 1979: One week after the 47-40 game in Durham, No. 7 Carolina beats No. 5 Duke, 71-63, in ACC Tournament finals. Bradley, the MVP, had 16 points, seven steals and four assists and O'Koren led with 18 points.

March 11, 1979: ACC champion Tar Heels, ranked No. 3 in the nation, are upset by Penn, 72-71, in Raleigh in the NCAA Tournament. Quaker forward Tony Price scores 25. Duke loses to St. John's the same day in what was dubbed "Black Sunday."

Jan. 12, 1980: Al Wood scores 20 and Dave Colescott adds 18 as 15th-ranked Tar Heels knock off No. 1 Duke at Cameron.

Feb. 28, 1981: Gene Banks hit a turnaround baseline jumper to beat Carolina, 66-65, in overtime. Banks scored 25 points. Freshman Sam Perkins led UNC with 24.

March 7, 1981: Carolina overcomes a 36-32 halftime deficit by shooting 63 percent in the second half and beats Maryland, 61-60, in the ACC championship game. James Worthy leads with 19. Jimmy Black's steal and lay-up gives Carolina the lead for good. Perkins scores 22 in quarterfinal vs. NC State and 18 in semifinal vs. Wake Forest and becomes the second freshman to earn ACC Tournament MVP honors.

March 28, 1981: Senior forward Wood, who was the West Regional MVP after a 21-point, 17-rebound effort in Final 8 win over Kansas State, torches Virginia for 39 points in the Final Four. Wood sets a national semifinal scoring record by making 14 of 19 from the floor and 11 of 13 from the line. Perkins holds National Player of the Year Ralph Sampson to three field goals and 11 points.

March 30, 1981: Isiah Thomas has 23 points, five assists and four steals to lead Indiana past UNC, 63-50, in the NCAA championship game in Philadelphia. Wood leads Carolina with 18 points. The game tips off less than eight hours after an assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan. The game is almost postponed due to the events in Washington, D.C.

Nov. 28, 1981: Michael Jordan scores 12 points in his debut with the top-ranked Tar Heels, a 74-67 win over Kansas.

Dec. 26, 1981: Worthy (26), Perkins (21) and Jordan (19) combine for 66 points as No. 1 Carolina beats No. 2 Kentucky, 82-69, in the N.J. Meadowlands. It's the first and only time the two schools that rank 1-2 in all-time victories will play as the top two ranked teams in the AP poll.

Jan. 9, 1982: In another 1 vs. 2 match-up, top-rated Carolina edges Virginia, 65-60, despite Sampson's 30 points and 19 rebounds. Worthy and Jordan combine for 33 points.

March 7, 1982: Leading 44-43 with 7:34 to play, Carolina spreads the floor and beats the Cavaliers, 47-45, for the ACC championship. Matt Doherty makes three of four free throws in the final 28 seconds to secure the win and the ACC title. Virginia shoots 67 percent from the floor, but only gets 33 field goal attempts. Worthy leads UNC with 16 points.

March 27, 1982: Perkins scores 25 points and grabs 10 rebounds and Jordan drops in 18 as UNC beats Houston, 68-63, in the Final Four semifinal in New Orleans. The Tar Heels shoot 59 percent from the floor.

March 29, 1982: Final Four MVP Worthy scores a game-high 28 points and Michael Jordan hits the game-winning shot from the left wing with 17 seconds to play as Carolina beats Georgetown, 63-62, in one of the Final Four's greatest championship games ever played. Worthy makes 13 of 17 shots from the floor and has three steals, including one at the end of the game that seals the victory. Jordan scores 16, and Georgetown's freshman center Patrick Ewing has 23 points and 11 rebounds. The win gives Dean Smith his first of two NCAA championships. The Tar Heels trail, 32-31, at halftime, but shoot 61 percent in the second half (11 of 18).

Nov. 30, 1982: Defending NCAA champs drop their first two games against St. John's and Missouri and avoid an 0-3 start when Jordan comes up with a steal and a spinning, 24-foot jumper at the buzzer to send Tulane game into overtime. Tar Heels prevail, 70-68 in triple OT.

Jan. 15, 1983: Perkins scores 36 in Charlottesville and Tar Heels knock off second-ranked Virginia, 101-95.

Feb. 10, 1983: Top-ranked Carolina trails No. 3 Virginia by 16 points in the second half and by 10 with 4:12 to play, but pulls out an improbable 64-63 win, one of the most memorable ever in Carmichael Auditorium. Jordan's offensive rebound basket pulls the Tar Heels to within a point, then Jordan strips Rick Carlisle of the ball and slams home the go-ahead basket.

Dec. 3, 1983: Second-ranked Carolina wins at Stanford, 88-75, to give Dean Smith his 500th victory.

Feb. 12, 1984: Joe Klein scores 20 as Eddie Sutton's Arkansas Razorbacks upset No. 1 Carolina, 66-65, in Pine Bluff, Ark. Jordan scores 21 in defeat.

Allen Dean Steele/Daily Tar Heel

March 29, 1982: Freshman Michael Jordan hit this game-winning jump shot to lift the Tar Heels to a 63-62 win over Georgetown in the 1982 NCAA championship game in New Orleans.

March 3, 1984: Playing his final home game, Doherty hits a runner in the lane that ties the game at the end of regulation and the Tar Heels beat Duke in two overtimes, 96-83, to preserve a perfect 14-0 mark in the ACC. Jordan and Perkins, also playing in their Carmichael finales, score 25 apiece and Steve Hale has 13 assists.

March 22, 1984: Freshman guard Steve Alford scores 27 points to lead unranked Indiana to a 72-68 win over No. 1 Carolina in the NCAA second round in Atlanta. Perkins scores 26 in his final game as a Tar Heel and finishes his career first at UNC in rebounding and second in scoring. Jordan battles foul trouble and an injured finger, scoring 13 points in just 26 minutes before fouling out. The Hoosiers shoot 69 percent (11 for 16) in the second half and 65 percent for the game.

Dec. 27, 1985: Ranzino Smith and Kevin Madden both score 17 points to lead nine players in double figures as Carolina scores a school-record 129 points in 129-45 win over Manahattan in Miami.

Jan. 4, 1986: Brad Daugherty scores 28 points in 90-79 win over NC State in the final regular-season game played in Carmichael Auditorium. The Tar Heels conclude play there with a 169-20 record.

Jan. 18, 1986: Hale scores 28 and Daugherty adds 23 and 11 rebounds as No. 1 Carolina beats No. 3 Duke, 95-92, in first game played in the Smith Center.

Feb. 4, 1986: Daugherty's 22 points and Joe Wolf's 14 points, 13 rebounds lead No. 1 UNC past No. 2 Georgia Tech, 78-77, in overtime in Atlanta.

Feb. 20, 1986: Len Bias scores 35 points to lead Maryland to 77-72, overtime win, UNC's first defeat in the Smith Center.

March 7, 1987: Joe Wolf scores 27 and Jeff Lebo nets 22 in 84-82, double-overtime win over Virginia in the ACC semifinals. The next day, sixth-seeded NC State goes 14 for 14 from the line and beats the top-seeded Tar Heels, 67-66, for the ACC title.

March 21, 1987: No. 2 ranked Carolina is upset by No. 10 Syracuse, 79-75, in the NCAA East Regional final. Rony Seikaly leads the Orange with 26 points. Kenny Smith has 25 points and seven assists in his final game as a Tar Heel.

Nov. 21, 1987: In a rematch of the previous year's regional final, Carolina beats No. 1 ranked Syracuse, 96-93, in overtime in the Hall of Fame Classic. Playing without a suspended J.R. Reid, the Tar Heels rally from an 11-point halftime deficit. Ranzino Smith (21), Lebo (20) and freshmen Rick Fox (15) and Pete Chilcutt (14) lead UNC.

March 12, 1989: Steve Bucknall's late three-point play in the finals led UNC to the 1989 ACC Tournament championship.

March 19, 1988: Carolina shoots a school-record 79.0 percent from the floor (49 of 62) in 123-97 rout over Loyola Marymount in NCAA Tournament second round. Ranzino Smith makes 11 of 14 shots en route to 27 points. UNC has 36 assists on 49 baskets. Carolina has 26 turnovers, 20 more than Loyola, and wins by 26.

Nov. 18, 1988: Lebo sets school record with 17 assists in 111-84 win over Chattanooga in Preseason NIT.

Jan. 18, 1989: Playing without Lebo, who was injured in 106-83 loss at Virginia the previous game, UNC beats No. 1 and unbeaten Duke, 91-71, in Cameron. Scott Williams scores 22 to lead the Tar Heels.

March 12, 1989: Steve Bucknall's three-point play with 1:46 left breaks a 66-all tie and Tournament MVP Reid leads with 14 points as UNC beats Duke, 77-74, in Atlanta to win Carolina's first ACC championship in seven years. The game is one of the most intense in ACC history. Carolina commits 26 turnovers, but holds Duke to 39 percent shooting, including 3 of 23 from three-point range.

Nov. 24, 1989: King Rice's bank shot at the buzzer beats James Madison, 80-79, in the first round of the Maui Invitational. Carolina rallies from a 79-70 deficit with less than a minute to play.

Dec. 27, 1989: Rice (22) and Fox (20) lead seven Tar Heels in double figures as UNC beats Kentucky, 121-110, in Louisville. It is the highest scoring, non-overtime game in UNC history.

March 17, 1990: Fox banks in the game-winner as time expires and eighth-seeded Carolina beats No. 1 ranked and top-seed Oklahoma, 79-77, in the NCAA second round.

Jan. 9, 1991: Hubert Davis scores 25 in a 105-73 win over Maryland, Dean Smith's 700th win. He is the first ACC coach to win 700 games.

Feb. 7, 1991: Carolina beats NC State, 92-70, in Chapel Hill. The night before, the same teams play in Raleigh, a 97-91 Wolfpack win. The Feb. 7 game, which is also Carolina's 1500th victory, is re-scheduled from Jan. 15, 1991, because of the outbreak of the Gulf War.

March 10, 1991: Tournament MVP Fox scores 25, Davis adds 17 and Rice has seven assists and no turnovers as Carolina routs Duke, 96-74, in ACC championship game. Duke had won both regular-season games.

March 24, 1991: NCAA East Regional MVP Fox and Davis each score 19 points as Carolina holds off Mark Macon and Temple, 75-72, to advance to the Final Four for the first time since 1982. Macon scores 31 and narrowly misses a long three-pointer at the buzzer that would sent the game to overtime.

March 30, 1991: Davis leads all scorers with 25 points, but Carolina shoots 38 percent for the game (3 of 18 from three-point range) and falls to Kansas, 79-73, in Indianapolis in the Final Four. The Jayhawks are coached by former UNC assistant Roy Williams.

Feb. 2, 1992: Derrick Phelps sets UNC record for steals with nine in 86-76 win at Georgia Tech.

Feb. 5, 1992: In a game most remembered for blood streaming down the back of Eric Montross' head, UNC beats defending NCAA champion and No. 1 Duke, 75-73, causing the students to rush the floor for the first time ever at the Smith Center.

Feb. 8, 1992: Carolina trails Wake Forest by 22 points, but rallies for an 80-78 win on Brian Reese's buzzer-beating jumper. The Deacons led by 11 with 6:17 to play, before a 10-0 run by April 5, 1993: Donald Williams is named Final Four MVP as Carolina downs Michigan 77-71 for Dean Smith's second national championship.

UNC. Davis leads the Tar Heels with 30.

Dec. 29, 1992: Jalen Rose's offensive rebound basket at the buzzer gives No. 6 Michigan a 79-78 win over No. 5 Carolina in the semifinals of the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu. The teams would meet again later that season.

Jan. 27, 1993: Florida State leads by 17 at halftime and 73-54 with less than nine minutes to play. Carolina reels off 15 straight points, however, and takes the lead for good on a George Lynch steal and dunk with just under two minutes to play. Donald Williams seals the win at the free throw line as UNC outscores the Seminoles, 28-4, over the last nine minutes.

March 28, 1993: Cincinnati's Nick Van Exel scores 21 first-half points and the Bearcats lead Carolina by as many as 15 in the first half. Then Derrick Phelps clamps down on Van Exel and East Regional MVP Lynch scores 21 and grabs 14 rebounds in 75-68 overtime win to send Carolina to the Final Four. Lynch had 22 against Arkansas in the regional semifinal. Williams had 22 and 20 in the two regional games.

April 5, 1993: Final Four MVP Williams score 25 points for the second Final Four game in a row, Montross scores 16 and Lynch posts his fourth straight double-double as Carolina avenges earlier loss to Michigan with 77-71 victory. The win gives Dean Smith his second NCAA championship. Williams hits 5 of 7 three-pointers in both Final Four games, including a 78-68 win over Roy Williams-led Kansas in the semifinal.

Feb. 3, 1994: Carolina prevails, 89-78, in the first-ever meeting against Duke in which the schools are ranked 1-2 in the country. Second-ranked Tar Heels get 18 points, six assists and no turnovers from Phelps.

March 12, 1994: ACC Tournament classic as UNC erases five-point deficit late in regulation and beats Wake Forest, 86-84 in overtime. Dante Calabria send the game to overtime and Jerry Stackhouse wins it. It is Dean Smith's 800th win.

March 20, 1994: No. 1 Carolina is knocked out of the NCAA Tournament in the second round, 75-72, by Boston College.

Feb. 2, 1995: Stackhouse (25), Rasheed Wallace (25) and Williams (24) combined for 74 points and Carolina beats Duke, 102-100, in double overtime. Blue Devil guard Jeff Capel sends the game into second overtime with a halfcourt three-pointer, but a Jeff McInnis steal and basket provides the winning margin for UNC.

March 11-12, 1995: Wallace scores 33 in overtime win over Maryland in ACC semifinals, then sprains an ankle late in the championship game against Wake Forest. The Deacons, led by 37 points from Randolph Childress, beat Carolina, 82-80, in overtime.

March 25, 1995: No. 4 Carolina beats No. 2 Kentucky, 74-61, in Birmingham to advance to Final Four. Regional MVP Staekhouse has 18 points, 12 rebounds, six assists, two steals and two blocks. UNC falls to Arkansas in the Final Four, in part due to a leg injury Stackhouse suffers 12 seconds into the national semifinal.

Jan. 8, 1997: Carolina leads Maryland in Chapel Hill by 22, but the Terps outscore UNC, 41-9, to win 85-75. UNC would begin ACC play 0-3 and avoids an 0-4 start by outscoring NC State 12-0 in the final two minutes of a 59-56 win on Jan. 15.

Feb. 12, 1997: Ed Cota's baseline floater with 4.5 seconds to play gives Carolina a 45-44 win at NC State. It is the fewest points ever by Carolina in a Dean Smith victory.

March 8-9, 1997: ACC Tournament MVP Shammond Williams scores 24 in semifinals vs. Wake Forest and 23 in championship vs. NC State as Carolina wins ACC Tournament for 13th and final time under Dean Smith.

March 15, 1997: Carolina beats Colorado, 73-56, in NCAA Tournament second round in Winston-Salem. The news of the day is the win is Dean Smith's 877th, breaking Adolph Rupp's all-time record for coaches.

March 23, 1997: Shammond Williams scores 22 and Vince Carter adds 18 as Carolina beats Louisville, 97-74, to send Dean Smith to his 11th Final Four. Smith would coach his final game, a 66-58 loss to Arizona, in Indianapolis on March 29, 1997.

Oct. 9, 1997: Dean Smith retires after 36 years as head coach. Bill Guthridge, Smith's assistant for 30 years, is named head coach. Guthridge leads UNC to a 34-4 record, ACC title and Final Four berth, and is named National Coach of the Year.

Feb. 5, 1998: Antawn Jamison, the 1998 National Player of the Year, scores 35 points as No. 2 Carolina beats No. 1 Duke, 97-73.

Feb. 8, 1998: Shammond Williams scores 42 in 107-100 double overtime win at Georgia Tech.

Feb. 11, 1998: Carolina wins its 1700th game, a 60-45 victory at Virginia.

March 8, 1998: Jamison shakes off a leg injury and earns ACC Tournament MVP honors with 22 points and 18 rebounds. The Tar Heels score last 15 points in 83-68 win over top-ranked Duke in ACC Tournament championship. Carolina later advances to Final Four as the top-ranked team with a 75-64 win over Connecticut, but is upset by 7th-ranked Utah, 65-59.

March 19, 2000: Joseph Forte scores 17 points and Cota has 10 assists to lead No. 8 seed Carolina to a 60-53 win over top seed Stanford in the NCAA second round.

March 24-26, 2000: Wins over Tennessee and Tulsa send Guthridge to his second Final Four in three years as head coach. Freshman Forte scores 28 in 59-55 regional final win over Tulsa. Guthridge retires in June 2000 with a three-year record of 80-28.

Nov. 10-11, 2000: Carolina beats Winthrop, 66-61, in Matt Doherty's first game as head coach. The next night, Forte drops 38 on Tulsa to set the Smith Center scoring record.

Dec. 4/17, 2000: Brendan Haywood and Jason Capel post triple-doubles in wins over Miami and Buffalo, respectively.

Feb. 1, 2001: Haywood hits two free throws with one second to play to give UNC an 85-83 win at Duke. Forte is sensational with 24 points, 16 rebounds, six assists and three steals.

Jan. 9, 2002: Juan Dixon scores 29 as Maryland beats UNC, 112-79, the most points ever allowed by Carolina in a regulation game. The Tar Heels would finish the year 8-20, missing the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1974.

Nov. 18, 2002: Rashad McCants scores 28 points in his freshman debut and starts with Raymond Felton and Sean May – the first time in history the Tar Heels start three freshmen – in 85-55 win over Penn State.

Nov. 27, 2002: McCants scores 25 as Tar Heels upset Roy Williams and No. 2 Kansas, 67-56, in Preseason NIT semifinals. UNC knocks off Stanford two nights later to win the title.

Jan. 18, 2003: McCants scores 27 as UNC upsets No. 6 Connecticut, 68-65. The win is Carolina's 1,800th, making UNC only the second school to have 1,800 wins.

Feb. 8, 2003: Jawad Williams scores 20 in 61-60 win over Florida State, making UNC the first school with 500 ACC victories.

March 14, 2003: Three weeks after losing by 40 points at Maryland, Carolina upsets the Terps, 84-72, in ACC quarterfinals behind 25 points from Jawad Williams and 20 points, 10 assists from Felton.

Nov. 22, 2003: Carolina beats Old Dominion, 90-64, in Roy Williams' first game as head coach. Williams took over the program on April 14, 2003, two weeks after Doherty resigned. Doherty went 53-43 in three seasons.

Jeffrey Camarati

Apr. 4, 2005: Sean May and Carolina top Illinois 75-70 for Roy Williams' first national championship.

Dec. 7, 2003: Felton sets a UNC record with 18 assists against George Mason.

Dec. 20, 2003: Wake Forest tops Carolina, 119-114 in triple overtime, in one of the ACC's most memorable regular-season games ever played.

Jan. 17, 2004: No. 9 Carolina beats No. 1 Connecticut, 86-83, as McCants scores 27, including UNC's final 10 points. His three-pointer with six seconds to play beats the Huskies, who later that year win the NCAA title.

March 6, 2005: Marvin Williams' three-point play with 17 seconds left gives Carolina a 75-73 win over Duke as the Tar Heels clinch first in the ACC regular-season standings outright for the first time since 1993. May has a game-high 26 points and 24 rebounds, the most ever by a player in the Smith Center.

March 27, 2005: May earns Syracuse Regional MVP honors with 29 points and 12 rebounds in an 88-82 win over Wisconsin that sends Roy Williams to the Final Four for the first time as UNC's head coach. McCants hits a go-ahead three-pointer late and blocks a Badger three attempt to preserve the win.

April 2, 2005: Senior captain Jawad Williams scores 20 points and the Tar Heels hold Michigan State to 29 percent shooting from the floor in the second half in an 87-71 UNC win in the national semifinals.

April 4, 2005: Marvin Williams tips in the game-winner with 1:17 to play, Final Four MVP Sean May has a game-high 26 points and Raymond Felton makes key plays down the stretch as No. 2 Carolina beats No. 1 Illinois, 75-70, to win UNC's fourth NCAA title and the first for Coach Roy Williams. Felton hits a three to break a 65-all tie, then adds a steal and three clutch free throws in the final minute. The Illini, who had been ranked No. 1 since early December and had just one loss all year, went 12 for 40 from three-point range.

June 28, 2005: Carolina becomes the first school to have four lottery selections in one NBA Draft as Marvin Williams (2), Felton (5), May (13) and McCants (14) go in the first 14 picks.

Feb. 15, 2006: Tyler Hansbrough scores an ACC-freshman-record 40 points in an 82-75 win over Georgia Tech in the Smith Center.

March 4, 2006: Carolina beats No. 1 Duke 83-76 on Senior Night in Durham. The Tar Heels' four freshmen (Bobby Frasor, Marcus Ginyard, Danny Green and Hansbrough) outscored Duke's four seniors (including first-team All-Americas J.J. Redick and Shelden Williams), 55-51.

Dec. 9, 2006: Hansbrough scores 24 and Carolina routs High Point, 94-69, to give Roy Williams his 500th win as a college head coach. Williams reached the mark in his 19th season, faster than any coach in history.

March 11, 2007: Brandan Wright becomes the fifth freshman to win ACC Tournament MVP honors after leading UNC to its first ACC title since 1998 and record-tying 16th overall. Wright had 20 points in the semifinals and 16 in the championship against NC State. Seniors Wes Miller and Reyshawn Terry hit two three-pointers apiece in the finals.

✓ Smith retired with more wins (879) than any other coach in NCAA Division I history. Bob Knight now owns that record.

✓ In 36 years, Smith coached Carolina to 11 Final Fours, two national titles and 13 ACC Tournament Championships.

✓ More than 96 percent of Smith's lettermen graduated.

✓ From 1981 to 1989, Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' poll each year.

✓ Smith was named the second-best coach in college basketball history (behind John Wooden) by the NABC in 2000.

✓ Smith was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Hall of Fame in 1981. In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell). He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007.

✓ Smith was voted ACC Coach of the Year eight times - in 1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979, 1988 and 1993.

When ESPN's award-winning SportsCentury program selected the greatest coaches of the 20th Century, it came to no surprise that Carolina basketball coach Dean Smith was among the top seven of all-time. Smith joined other legends Red Auerbach, Bear Bryant, George Halas, Vince Lombardi, John McGraw and John Wooden as the preeminent coaches in sports history.

Smith's tenure as Carolina's basketball coach from 1960-97 is a record of remarkable achievement and consistency. In 36 seasons at UNC, Smith's teams had a record of 879-254. His teams won more games than those of any other Division I men's basketball college coach in history, a record broken in 2007 by Bob Knight.

• Smith coached Carolina to the 1982 and 1993 NCAA championships and the 1971 NIT title.

• Under Smith, the Tar Heels won at least 20 games for 27 straight years and 30 of his final 31. No coach in history has ever produced that many consecutive 20-win seasons.

• Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' polls each year from 1981-89. That nine-year run is the second-longest streak of Top 10 finishes in history, exceeded only by UCLA's 13-year string from 1967 to 1979.

• The Tar Heels were ranked among the nation's final Top 15 teams in 28 of his last 31 seasons, missing only in 1970, 1990 and 1996, and were among the Top 10 on 23 occasions during that period. Smith's teams finished the season ranked No. 1 in at least one of the two major polls four times (1982, 1984, 1993 and 1994).

• Smith's teams were also the dominant force in the ACC. The Tar Heels under Smith had a record of 364-136 in ACC regular-season play, a winning percentage of .728.

• The Tar Heels finished at least third in the ACC regular-season standings for 33 successive seasons. In that span, Carolina finished first 17 times, second 11 times and third five times.

• Smith's teams finished in the ACC upper division all but one time. That was in 1964, when Caolina was fifth and had its only losing record in ACC regular-season play under Smith at 6-8.

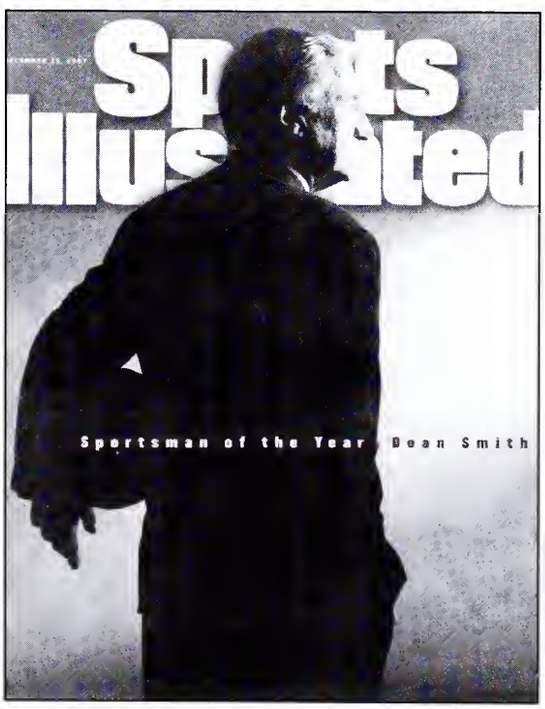
• Carolina won 13 ACC Tournaments under Smith. Mike Krzyzewski of Duke ranks second in ACC Tournament titles with 10.

• His teams played in 11 Final Fours, second in number only to Wooden, who had 12.

• Smith's teams made 23 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

• In his last 31 years, Smith led the Tar Heels into the NCAA Tournament 27 times.

• Carolina reached the Sweet 16 of NCAA play each season from 1981-93. That 13-year streak is the second-longest in Tournament history to a 14-year stretch by UCLA from 1967 to 1980.



Dean Smith was named the 1997 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year.

The awards and accolades continue to be given to Smith, even after he stepped down as Carolina's head coach on October 9, 1997. Smith was named Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, Honorary Coach of the Year by the United States Olympic Committee, received the Arthur Ashe Award for Courage at the annual ESPY Awards, and was honored with special awards for contributions to basketball by the Atlanta Tipoff Club and New York Athletic Club. He was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007.

In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell).

Smith also became the first recipient of the Mentor Award for Lifetime Achievement, given by the University of North Carolina Committee on Teaching Awards for "a broader range of teaching beyond the classroom."

He's recognized throughout the sports world for his character, his innovations to the game and his ability to have established Carolina's program as one of the greatest in college basketball. Smith's players consistently produce on the floor, in the classroom and in life.

When Smith broke Rupp's record in 1997, his coaching peers had this to say.

John Wooden: "What's more impressive to me about Dean than the record is how good he is as a teacher of basketball. I've always said he's a better teacher of basketball than anyone else. I couldn't begin to teach players the things Dean has taught them. I've admired him because there's more to him than just wins."

Bob Knight: "Let me say some things that he won't say. He's going to say an awful lot about teams and that's the way it should be. But let me put it in perspective. His being able to do that and do it at a single institution, do it through all the years without ever having a problem with any kind of recruiting violation or probation, is a very singular accomplishment in college basketball. I think it's a great achievement, indicative of a guy who really knows how to coach and has decided from day one that things are going to be done the absolute right way. He's not going to tell you, but just take my word for it. That's a great, great accomplishment for a coach."

Mike Krzyzewski: "It's singularly such a tremendous accomplishment. Whatever is written about him in a positive sense he justly deserves. I know he'll give credit, as we all would, to the players who have played for us, but in this situation the praise for him should rise well above that for the players who played for him."

Roy Williams: "He has a basketball program, he doesn't have a team. And when you have a program, you're concerned about the kids' entire lives, their entire existence ... and what they're going to do after they leave you and what kind of effect you can have on them as they mature."

Dave Odom: "What boggles the mind about him, at least to me, are the numbers of nights he's gone into the arena and been ready to compete on every single possession. I've not done it anywhere close to half as often and there are nights when it seems the season will never end. And yet, he's there, ready to go, always figuring out a way to beat you. Whenever I think about it, I shake my head in wonder."

Terry Holland: "He has been a target for all of us who coached in the ACC to shoot for. It is not always the most pleasant position to be in. The Carolina program was the measuring stick to everybody who came into the league. He has been willing to be the measuring stick. He helped create national exposure not only for North Carolina, but also for the other ACC teams as well and made us all improve our programs."

Perhaps his greatest form of praise on a worldwide level came when a group of his peers, including Hall of Fame coaches Henry Iba, Pete Newell and Auerbach, chose Smith to coach the U.S. Olympic basketball team in the 1976 Montreal Games. The Americans finished a controversial second to the Soviet Union at Munich in 1972. Smith was given the challenge of trying to develop a team to regain the Gold Medal against a group of improving international teams.

He named his long-time assistant, Bill Guthridge, and Georgetown's John Thompson, to be his assistants on the Olympic Team staff. Smith's teaching skills were put to one of their toughest tests.

Smith molded a group of college all-stars into a cohesive unit during a few short weeks in that summer of 1976 and led them to the gold medal, sweeping through the Games undefeated and beating Yugoslavia in the championship game. Emphasizing a tough pressure defense and a fast-breaking, attacking style on offense, the Americans returned to the top of the international game.

Just as Smith used his talents to develop that 1976 all-star team into an Olympic champion, he has prepared a host of players for successful careers in the NBA.

"UNC is a plus-four school," Orlando Magic Vice President of Basketball Operations-Player Personnel John Gabriel said about Smith's teams, "meaning that if I rate a player as the 10th-best player in the NBA Draft, being a Tar Heel automatically jumps him to number six. The plus-four rating is based upon the success of former Tar Heels in the NBA."

Rich Clarkson

The Miami Heat's Pat Riley, who coached former Tar Heel standout James Worthy to three world titles with the Los Angeles Lakers, is another believer in Smith's program.

"We always look for players from North Carolina," said Riley. "If we could draft players every year from North Carolina, we'd do it. You know they know how to play. The players are so full of character like James and Michael Jordan. I have a lot of respect for Coach Smith. I'm the beneficiary of a man who has taught all these guys how to play the game. When they come to the pros, they're refined. They're ready to step right in."

During his last 31 seasons, since Smith's Tar Heels won their first ACC title in 1967, the Tar Heels had a record of 813-207, winning 79.7 percent of their games.

In 23 of those 31 seasons, Carolina won either the ACC regular-season, tournament or both. Most schools are happy just to win 20 games in a season. At Carolina, it became a habit. No school in the country won more total games in that 31-year period than Carolina. UCLA was second with 751. The Tar Heels also had the most wins over his last 20 seasons with 539, and over his last 10 years with 268.

For Smith and his players, the word "class" applied to the team's exemplary sportsmanship on the court, to its excellent academic performance and to Smith's belief that basketball involves many complexities that must be learned over the course of time — that coaching and playing the game is a classroom situation in its own right.

Smith's teams have won championships at every level. There were NCAA titles in 1982 and 1993 and the NIT in 1971. His gold medal-winning team at the 1976 Summer Olympic Games makes Smith one of only three men in history to coach teams to that troika of an NCAA title, NIT championship and Olympic victory. The others are Pete Newell and Bob Knight.

Smith's coaching skills and dedication to playing with class are the reasons he was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 1981.

A key to Smith's success was his ability to change Carolina's style to fit his personnel. He favored an offense which used the fast break whenever possible and featured a quick passing attack. But, he was also comfortable in a more disciplined style of play. He liked to play multiple defenses to confuse opponents. However, his preference was a pressure, man-to-man to speed up the action.

The fast-breaking attack, great teamwork in a set offense and steals produced by the defense resulted in a number of easy baskets. Along with good shot selection, those things have helped Carolina annually rank among the best shooting teams in the nation. Carolina failed to hit at least 50 percent from the field just four time in his last 27 years. Even in those four seasons, Carolina topped the ACC in field goal shooting each year.

Among Smith's many innovations were the run-and-jump defense, the scramble defense out of man-to-man pressure defense, the point zone, team huddles at the foul line, double-teaming the screen-and-roll, the free-lance passing game and multiple screens against zone defenses.

Born February 28, 1931, in Emporia, Kan., Dean Edwards Smith grew up as the son of public school teachers. He graduated from Topeka High School in 1949 and went to the University of Kansas on an academic scholarship. He played varsity basketball and baseball and freshman football for the Jayhawks. He was a member of Jayhawk basketball teams that won the NCAA title in 1952 and finished second in 1953.

Smith was an assistant coach at Kansas to Phog Allen and Dick Harp, then served in the U.S. Air Force as a lieutenant. While in the service, he played and coached basketball in Germany. Smith served for three years as an assistant basketball coach under Bob Spear, recognized by his peers as one of the outstanding coaches in the history of the game, and one year each as head baseball and head golf coach at the United States Air Force Academy. In 1958, the late Frank McGuire asked him to join his staff at Carolina as an assistant coach. Smith served as an assistant under McGuire for three years before McGuire resigned to become head coach of the NBA's Philadelphia Warriors in the summer of 1961. At that time, Carolina Chancellor William Aycock tapped the 30-year-old Smith to become UNC's head coach.

Smith shared his knowledge of the game with a talented group of assistants. Many of his assistants went on to head coaching jobs, including Larry Brown, Roy Williams, John Lotz, Kenny Rosemond, Eddie Fogler, Randy Wiel and Bill Guthridge.

Smith's talents do not lie solely in tutoring quality college coaches as is evidenced by the number of outstanding players who have gone on to professional careers after their days in Chapel Hill. In Smith's 36-year tenure, more than 50 of his players went on to play pro basketball in the NBA or ABA and more played in other professional leagues both in the United States and overseas.

Six of Smith's players won rookie of the year awards in either the NBA or ABA, including Charlie Scott, Robert McAdoo, Walter Davis, Phil Ford, Michael Jordan and Vince Carter.

"Coach taught me the game, when to apply speed, how to use your quickness, when to use that first step, or how to apply certain skills in certain situations," says Jordan. "Dean Smith gave me the knowledge to score 37 points a game and that's something people don't understand."

Smith coached players who went on to become doctors, lawyers and businessmen. Better than 95 percent of his lettermen earned their degrees.

NBA head coach George Karl: "I don't think any of the lettermen can really express the family atmosphere that he's built, the tradition that he's built of loyalty and camaraderie. It's a fraternity that's very much admired by basketball people in the world."

Michael Jordan: "The camaraderie that he has with his players goes a long way. He's taught a lot of us similar traits and we've accepted that and we've moved on as players and people. That's something we treasure more so than maybe our basketball experience — the things that we learned away from the game.

"He's like a second father to me. When I first left school I was unsure, nervous, scared, going into a situation I wasn't really comfortable with and I didn't know if I was ready for it. He calmed me down with a fatherly attitude, taking me under his wing and teaching me a lot of things about being an adult."

Phil Ford: "My first impression of Coach Smith was honesty. He didn't promise me playing time. In fact, he told me I might have to play on the junior varsity my first year. That kind of set me back. But my mom really liked that because she said, 'Phil, if he's not out here promising you that you will start, that means you go there and work hard and do the best that you can do, then he won't be out promising your job to another high school player.' And if you think about it, that made a lot of sense."

Larry Brown: "Nobody's done it better over a longer period of time than he has. He won in the '60s, '70s, '80s and '90s and if you look at his teams, they've always been innovative, he hasn't been lost or left behind. He's always stayed ahead. He's kept young. He's learned to deal with all kinds of athletes and the changes we've all faced."

Smith was the winningest coach in the history of the NCAA Tournament with 65 victories (currently second). In 36 ACC Tournaments, he had a coaching record of 58-23, a winning percentage of .716.

Smith, who played for the legendary Phog Allen at Kansas in the early 1950s, is one of only two men to both play on and coach an NCAA championship team. Smith was a member of the Jayhawk squad that won college basketball's top prize in 1952. He then coached the Tar Heels to national titles in 1982 and 1993. Knight is the other person to accomplish the feat. Bob Knight played on Ohio State's 1960 championship team and then coached Indiana to three titles.

After taking Carolina to the NCAA championship game in 1977, Smith was named National Coach of the Year by the NABC. He received similar honors from the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and Basketball Weekly in 1979 and from Medalist in 1982. He was named the Naismith National Coach of the Year in 1993 after leading the Tar Heels to the national crown.

In 1993, the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association named Smith the ACC Coach of the Year, an honor he received on seven other occasions as well—1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979 and 1988.

Frank McGuire

Frank McGuire came to Chapel Hill prior to the 1952-53 season after five seasons at St. John's. His 1952 team had reached the NCAA championship game before losing to Kansas.

His nine-year record was 164-58. Carolina finished first or tied for first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings five times in this period.

With his many contacts among New York high school coaches, he developed a pipeline of top talent for Carolina. This "underground railroad" brought players like Lennie Rosenbluth, Tommy Kearns, Pete Brennan, Joe Quigg and Bob Cunningham to Chapel Hill. They were the starters on McGuire's greatest team — the 1957 squad that went 32-0 and swept the NCAA title.

McGuire also brought New York-area stars like York Larese, Doug Moe, Donnie Walsh, Larry Brown and Billy Cunningham to Carolina.

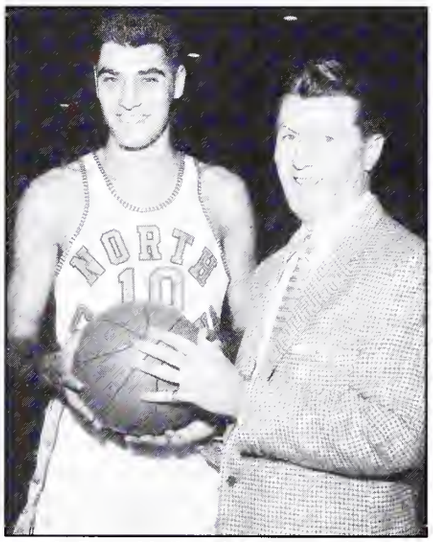
COACHING HIGHLIGHTS
✓ Is the only coach in history to win ACC titles at two different schools.
✓ Is a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame
✓ Coached Carolina to the 1957 NCAA championship
✓ Was a three-time national coach of the year.



Lennie Rosenbluth and McGuire led the Tar Heels to the 1957 NCAA title.

The highlight of McGuire's Tar Heel career was the 1957 season. Rosenbluth was one of the national scoring leaders, averaging 28.0 points a game. Of Carolina's 32 victories, 13 were by 10 points or less.

The 1957 Final Four in Kansas City is regarded as one of the most exciting ever played. Carolina topped Michigan State, 74-40, in a triple-overtime semifinal game. The next game the Tar Heels had to go three overtimes again before outlasting Kansas, featuring Wilt Chamberlain, 54-53.

McGuire hired Dean Smith to be his top assistant prior to the 1958-59 season. Smith replaced McGuire when he moved to the NBA in 1961.

As coach of the Philadelphia Warriors, he led his team to a 49-31 record. The Warriors—with Hall of Famers Paul Arizin, Tom Gola and Chamberlain—lost to the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Conference finals.

McGuire returned to the college ranks for the 1964-65 season at South Carolina. He compiled a 283-142 record in 16 seasons with the Gamecocks. That gave him a career record of 549-236 in 30 years. He led South Carolina to its only ACC regular-season title in 1970 and only ACC Tournament championship in 1971.

McGuire, a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame, was the first coach in history to win 100 games at three schools and also to take two schools to the NCAA championship game. He remains the only man in history to win ACC titles at two schools.

He was named national coach of the year three times—in 1952 at St. John's, 1957 at Carolina and 1970 at South Carolina.

Bill Guthridge

Bill Guthridge led the Tar Heels to two Final Fours in three years as head coach and was consensus National Coach of the Year in 1998. He won more games than any college head coach in history after two seasons and tied Everett Case for most coaching victories after three years. He played or coached in 14 Final Fours, more than any person in NCAA history. That includes two as a head coach at Carolina, 10 as a Tar Heel assistant coach, and one each as a player and assistant coach at his alma mater, Kansas State.

Guthridge was Dean Smith's assistant for 30 years. He joined the UNC staff in 1967 after five years as assistant to Tex Winter at Kansas State. In his 33 seasons at Carolina, the Tar Heels won two NCAA championships (1982 and 1993), played in 12 Final Fours, won the ACC Tournament championship 13 times and played in the ACC Tournament championship game a total of 22 times. The Tar Heels finished first or tied for first in the ACC regular season 16 times, finished second or tied for second in the ACC regular season 11 times, and finished third or tied for third in the ACC regular season six times.

He was a part of 867 wins in 33 seasons at Carolina and 960 college coaching victories overall, including 93 wins on the staff at Kansas State. He was on the sidelines for a record 73 NCAA Tournament victories, including 71 at Carolina and two at Kansas State.

The Parsons, Kan., native posted an 80-28 record in three seasons as Carolina's head coach. Guthridge led the 1998 and 2000 UNC teams to the Final Four. He joined Ohio State's Fred Taylor as just the second man in history to lead teams to two Final Fours in his first three seasons as a head coach. He was named National Coach of the Year in 1997-98 by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, the Atlanta Tipoff Club (Naismith Award), CBS/Chevrolet, the Columbus (Ohio) Touchdown Club and The Sporting News. That year, UNC went 34-4 and Guthridge set the NCAA record for wins by a first-year head coach with 34. He directed UNC to the 1998 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament championship and was named the ACC Coach of the Year.

He coached 1997-98 National Player of the Year Antawn Jamison and 1998-99 NBA Rookie of the Year Vince Carter, both of whom entered the NBA Draft after their junior seasons. In his tenure at UNC, he coached five National Players of the Year, six ACC Players of the Year, five ACC Rookies of the Year and 28 first-team All-ACC players. He also coached 66 players who were selected in the NBA and/or ABA Drafts.

Guthridge was an assistant coach along with Hall of Famer John Thompson under Dean Smith in 1976 when the United States won the Olympic gold medal in Montreal.

1957 NCAA Champions

North Carolina's march toward the NCAA championship in the 1957 Final Four provided legendary head coach Frank McGuire with the defining moment of his career and the Tar Heel faithful with more than a few tense moments.

Battle-torn and weary, the Tar Heels faced a seemingly insurmountable challenge as they headed into the third overtime period against Kansas in the national championship game.

Having already taken three overtime periods to defeat Michigan State in the semifinals, the Tar Heels found themselves without national player of the year Lennie Rosenbluth, who had fouled out in the waning moments of regulation. They were playing a Kansas team led by Hall of Famer Wilt Chamberlain in the not so friendly confines of Kansas City, Mo.

Joe Quigg is mobbed by fans at Raleigh-Durham Airport as the Tar Heels returned after winning the 1957 championship.

Tommy Kearns & Lennie Rosenbluth

The Tar Heels fought on without Rosenbluth and found themselves behind by one point in the final seconds of the third overtime. After a missed shot, the ball landed in the hands of junior center Joe Quigg near the top of the key. All that stood between him and the national title was Chamberlain.

Quigg drove the lane, drawing a foul from Chamberlain with six seconds remaining. After a Carolina time out, Quigg, a 72 percent free throw shooter, calmly stepped to the line and drained both shots, securing a 54-53 victory and Carolina's second national championship. Carolina finished the season a perfect 32-0 en route to the Tar Heels' first NCAA championship.

Rosenbluth had 20 points and five rebounds in the championship game and Quigg scored 10 points and garnered nine rebounds.

Carolina had its fair share of overtime experience entering the Final Four, securing an overtime victory over South Carolina and a double overtime victory over Maryland in the regular season.

That experience may have been the difference as the Tar Heels continually came through with clutch plays throughout the Final Four. In the semifinal, neither team was able to open more than a six-point lead as Michigan State tested Carolina's mettle throughout the game.

Junior forward Pete Brennan kept Carolina's championship hopes alive when he nailed a baseline jumper with three seconds remaining in the first overtime to extend the game to another period. Both teams struggled in the second overtime, scoring only one bucket each. Carolina finally pulled away in the third overtime period scoring the first six points and holding on to a 74-70 victory.

Rosenbluth was the star of the 1957 squad. His 27 points and 8.6 rebounds a game in regular season play led the Tar Heels to the ACC championship and the NCAA tournament berth. Four of the victories came over fellow Big Four and ACC team Wake Forest, with whom Carolina had developed an intense rivalry.

At the end of his senior season, Rosenbluth held on to every major Carolina basketball record except for free-throw percentage and total rebounds in a season.

The championship season was Carolina's only trip to the Final Four under the tutelage of Frank McGuire, who left in 1961 to coach in the NBA. He later went on to coach at South Carolina. In nine years, McGuire led the Tar Heels to three Top 10 finishes and six Top 20 finishes.

Every Carolina Basketball fan remembers "The Shot." It is the most famous play in Tar Heel history and one of the most famous in college athletics. It won Dean Smith his first national championship and launched Michael Jordan as the greatest player in the sport's history.

Eric "Sleepy" Floyd had just hit a jumper in the lane to give Georgetown a 62-61 lead as 61,612 fans looked on at the New Orleans Superdome. Carolina called a timeout with 32 seconds remaining. Smith instructed point guard Jimmy Black to draw the Hoya zone defense to one side of the court and look to get the ball inside to James Worthy. But Black couldn't get the ball to Worthy. Smith had designed the play so that if that happened, Black could swing the ball to an open man on the far side of the court. Black found that open man, freshman Michael Jordan.

Jordan stood 16 feet to the left of the basket. Catch-jump-shoot. No hesitation. The ball found the bottom of the net. Carolina 63, Georgetown 62. Fifteen seconds remained on the clock.

Georgetown's Fred Brown got the ball near mid-court and looked for an open teammate. He passed the ball in Floyd's direction, but instead found Worthy, who raced downcourt with the ball to seal the victory. It was appropriate that Worthy clinched the win, since he had already muscled and finessed his way through the Hoya defense en route to five dunks and 28 points.

Worthy was not intimidated by the tenacious defense of Hoya freshman center Patrick Ewing, who logged two blocked shots and three steals to go with his 23 points and 11 rebounds. Throughout the game, Worthy challenged the Hoyas frontline and hit 13 of his 17 field goal attempts.

Carolina advanced to the title game with a 68-63 semifinal victory over Houston. Sam Perkins had 25 points and 10 rebounds.

UNC began and finished the year ranked No. 1 in the country in the Associated Press poll. In fact, Carolina held the No. 1 ranking for all but five weeks in 1981-82.

The Tar Heels posted a 32-2 record, losing only to Wake Forest at home when Perkins was sick and did not play and at Virginia. Carolina did beat the Cavaliers, 47-45, in the ACC Tournament championship game in Greensboro. Worthy had 16 points and Matt Doherty had 11 points and four assists. Carolina led 34-31 at the half, but the game is most remembered for the Tar Heels using a delay game in the second half. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 to play, Carolina held the ball. Doherty hit three free throws in the last 28 seconds to win the game.

Top-ranked and top-seeded Carolina then survived a scare from James Madison in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, beating the Dukes, 52-50, in Charlotte. A 74-69 win over Alabama and a 70-60 triumph over Villanova in Raleigh's Reynolds Coliseum sent the Tar Heels to New Orleans for the Final Four.

Senior guard Jimmy Black was one of five starters in double figures in the regional final win over Villanova. Black had 11 points and 10 assists.

Dean Smith on 1982 — "We had three starters back from the year before, plus Matt Doherty, who I counted as a co-starter in 1981. Two of our best games all year were in New Orleans against Houston and Georgetown. Jordan had his best game as a freshman in the final, but Worthy was the obvious MVP. His play gets overshadowed because of Michael's shot. And Perkins was a true hero for his play against Olajuwon in the semifinals. He was sensational.

"The play was No. 1 to post up Worthy, then have Perkins come in behind him. Or you could go crosscourt to the wing for Michael and he was wide open from 17-18 feet. It looked good, I was right in line with him. Then we we put on our scramble defense. Worthy was out of position, but Jordan stopped the pass that made Fred Brown throw it away."

1993 NCAA Champions

Dean Smith had been there before. The last time his Tar Heels walked on the Superdome floor, they walked off as NCAA champions.

Now, after a grueling ACC season that included five other Top 25 teams; after a tough road through the East Regional bracket that required an overtime victory to escape the final; after defeating a Roy Williams-coached Kansas squad that had beaten the Tar Heels just two years prior in the national semifinal— Carolina was back on the Superdome floor playing for the national championship.

The 1993 Tar Heels were ready. Center Eric Montross and senior forward George Lynch anchored the team and shooting guard Donald Williams provided the spark from the outside. Point guard Derrick Phelps ran the offense and a handful of role players brought everything together in typical Dean Smith fashion.

Michigan was ready too, though. The raucous Wolverines, led by vocal center Chris Webber and the rest of the "Fab Five," had lost the championship game in 1992 and were hungry to redeem themselves. They won a hard-fought overtime battle against Jamal Mashburn and the Kentucky Wildcats in the national semifinal, 81-78, and were confident they would return to Ann Arbor with a championship.

The styles of the two teams couldn't have been any farther apart. The Tar Heels were a traditional Dean Smith team — talented, disciplined and focused. The Wolverines had brought a brash, new feel to the game, famous for their black shoes, baggy shorts and playground style of play.

The teams battled back and forth throughout the game. Michigan led by 10 in the first half, but Carolina rallied for a 42-36 lead at intermission. The Wolverines built a 67-63 lead with 4:30 left to play, but the Tar Heels scored nine unanswered points to take a 72-67 lead with 1:03 to play.

Trailing by four, Williams began the 9-0 run with a three-pointer, then Phelps hit a fast-break layup to give UNC the lead with 3:07 to play. Baskets by Lynch and Montross upped the lead to five with a minute to go.

Michigan responded with a Ray Jackson jump shot and a Chris Webber put-back to bring the Wolverines back to within 72-71 with 36 seconds to play.

Carolina junior forward Pat Sullivan was fouled with 20 seconds left and went to the line for a one-and-one. Sullivan connected on the first, but missed the second and Webber got the rebound with the Wolverines trailing 73-71.

Webber stumbled and appeared to travel, but the officials made no call. He then dribbled past halfcourt and found himself surrounded by the Tar Heels and called a timeout. However, Michigan did not have any timeouts remaining and the officials called a technical foul on the Michigan bench.

Williams hit two free throws and Carolina marched on to a 77-71 victory. It was only appropriate that Williams stood at the line at the end of the game, as he dominated the Final Four en route to Most Outstanding Player honors. Williams made five of seven three pointers and scored 25 points in both the national semifinal and championship games.

The Tar Heels finished the season 34-4, winning 18 consecutive games at one point. Carolina had even faced Michigan early on in the season at the Rainbow Classic and lost, 79-78, courtesy a last-second shot from Wolverine point guard Jalen Rose.

The 18-game win streak was snapped by a 77-75 loss to Georgia Tech in the ACC Tournament championship game. The Tar Heels played that game without Phelps, who injured his back when he was fouled from behind on a layup attempt in the ACC semifinal against Virginia.

Despite the loss to the Yellow Jackets, Carolina was No. 1 in the East Regional. Wins over East Carolina, Rhode Island and Arkansas setup a regional championship against Cincinnati in the Meadowlands. The Bearcats had played in the Final Four in 1992.

Nick Van Exel hit six three-pointers in the first half and the Bearcats built a 29-14 lead with 7:08 left in the opening half, but the Tar Heels rallied to pull within one at halftime.

In the second half, Phelps clamped down on Van Exel, limiting him to just one field goal.

Carolina led late in regulation, but Tarrance Gibson's driving layup with 35 seconds to play tied the game. The Tar Heels had a a chance to win at the buzzer, but Brian Reese's dunk attempt after an out-of-bounds play with 0.8 seconds left ricocheted off the back iron.

Williams starred in overtime, hitting back-to-back three-pointers and the Tar Heels hung on for a 75-68 win.

Lynch was the heart and soul of the team and recorded double-doubles in each of the last four NCAA Tournament victories.

Dean Smith on 1993 — "We had a such great leader in George Lynch and our team had a lot of confidence. We were very poised. I know I had a lot of confidence in Derrick Phelps and Lynch. The last four games all were close games. Arkansas went down to the wire, Cincinnati we should have won in regulation, but won in overtime. Michigan was a great game with Donald Williams hitting key shots. So many of those games could have gone either way."

It began with an upset loss to Santa Clara and ended by beating No. 1 ranked Illinois in St. Louis. Along the way, the Tar Heels went 33-4, won the ACC regular-season title with a 14-2 record and defied the experts who said they were too selfish to win a national title.

Instead, led by seniors Jawad Williams, Jackie Manuel and Melvin Scott, and under the tutelage of second-year head coach Roy Williams, the Tar Heels became the best team in the nation. Carolina led the country in scoring and assists and held the opposition to 40 percent shooting.

Center Sean May arguably became the finest player in the country, racking up eight straight double-doubles and averaging 17.5 points and 10.7 rebounds.

Point guard Raymond Felton joined May on the All-ACC first team and won the Bob Cousy Award as the best point guard in the country. He led the ACC in assists and hit 44 percent from three-point range.

Carolina lost at Wake Forest and Duke, but clinched its first outright conference title since 1993 with a 75-73 win over the Blue Devils in the regular-season finale. May had 26 points and 24 rebounds and Marvin Williams capped a rally from nine points behind with a three-point play with 17 seconds remaining.

UNC survived a first round scare in the ACC Tournament from Clemson in large part thanks to Felton's career-high 29 points. But Georgia Tech bounced the Tar Heels from in the semifinals behind Will Bynum's 35 points.

Carolina earned a No. 1 seed and opened NCAA play against Oakland in front of a raucous crowd in Charlotte. UNC took out any lingering frustrations from the ACC Tournament in the first half, shooting 73 percent from the floor en route to a 59-33 advantage. Marvin Williams and Sean May combined for 39 points and 16 rebounds and Carolina opened its title run with a 96-68 win.

Iowa State was next in round two. Leading 36-33, UNC closed the first half with nine unanswered points. Iowa State never came within single digits in the second half. May had 24 points and 17 rebounds and Marvin Williams added 20 points and 15 boards.

Fifth-seeded Villanova gave Carolina a stern test in Syracuse in the Sweet 16. The Wildcats went to a four-guard offense and built a 21-9 lead midway through the first half behind Randy Foye's hot shooting. May scored 12 of UNC's 29 points as the Tar Heels clawed to within four at the break. UNC took the lead for good on a McCants three with 7:20 to play and extended its lead to 10 points with 3:45 remaining.

But Felton fouled out with 2:13 to play and the Wildcats pulled to within 64-62 with 40 seconds left. Scott, who took over the point, canned two free throws for a four-point lead. Villanova made one free throw and had a chance to tie, but Allen Ray was whistled for a travel with nine seconds to play.

May dominated the regional final against Wisconsin with 29 points and 12 rebounds. The game was tied at 44 at halftime, but UNC went on a 14-0 run early in the second half. McCants had a key block and three-pointer in the final three minutes to secure the win.

Michigan State led UNC by five at halftime in the national semifinals, but UNC outscored the Spartans, 54-33, in the second half to post an 87-71 win. May scored 22 and Jawad Williams had 20. The Tar Heels held Michigan State to 34 percent shooting.

No. 2-ranked Carolina squared off against top-ranked Illinois in the championship. The Illini had been ranked No. 1 since Dec. 6th. But the Tar Heels built a 40-27 halftime lead behind 14 points from McCants and eight points and six assists from Felton.

The Illini made 5 of 19 threes in the first half, but got hot and tied the game at 65-65 with 5:34 to play. Felton knocked home a long three moments later, but the game was tied again at 70 with 2:40 to play.

The Tar Heels took the lead for good with 1:27 to play as Marvin Williams tipped in a missed shot. Illinois missed a pair of three-pointers; then Felton stole a pass. Felton hit three free throws in the final seconds to give Carolina a 75-70 win and Roy Williams his first NCAA title. May, the Final Four MVP, had 26 points and 10 rebounds.

Roy Williams on 2005 — "I had watched One Shining Moment for so many years, and I had always wanted to watch it from the arena, from the floor, when it was about my team. It was a moment where I reached up to wipe a tear away because as a coach, that is the moment. That's what you dream about."

"Bones" McKinney grabs a rebound in the 1946 NCAA title game. Carolina has been to at least one Final Four in each of the last seven decades.

Carolina finished first in Southern Conference play with a 13-1 record, but was beaten by Wake Forest in the SoCon Tournament semifinals. Duke won the postseason title, but the NCAA Committee selected Carolina to represent District 3 in the NCAA Tournament at New York's Madison Square Garden.

NYU was favored to beat UNC in the East Regional semifinal, but 27-year-old Bones McKinney scored 11 points to lead Carolina to a 57-49 win. McKinney originally played at NC State, but enrolled at Carolina in January 1946 after being discharged from the U.S. Army.

John "Hook" Dillon, a sophomore from Georgia and Carolina's leading scorer with 12.9 points per game, and Bob Paxton led Carolina past Ohio State in the East Regional final. The Buckeyes led by five with less than three minutes to play, but Paxton sent the game into overtime with a jump shot with under 20 seconds to play. Dillon scored the key shot in overtime as UNC held on for a 60-57 win.

Defending national champion Oklahoma A&M beat Carolina, 43-40, in the championship game, despite Dillon's 16 points. Seven-foot center Bob Kurland had 23 points to lead the Aggies.

Junior forward Larry Miller, the ACC Player of the Year, and five heralded sophomores led the Tar Heels to a 22-6 record, an ACC title and first Final Four under head coach Dean Smith.

Carolina reached the Final Four with a 96-80 victory over Boston College in the Eastern Regional final. Senior forward Bob Lewis earned regional MVP honors after scoring 31 points in the championship game. Miller added 22 points and center Rusty Clark posted a double-double with 18 points and 18 rebounds.

The Tar Heels lost to Dayton, 76-62, in the national semifinals in Louisville, Ky. Flyer forward Don May scored 34 points and grabbed 15 rebounds. Clark had 19 points and 11 rebounds and Miller scored 13 points and grabbed 13 rebounds.

"The big thing is we had to win the ACC Tournament before we could even go to the NCAA Tournament," says Coach Smith. "I was concerned about how we would do in the NCAAs in overcoming the excitement of winning the ACC Tournament. We did go to the Final Four with three sophomore starters that year. That was a thrilling time."

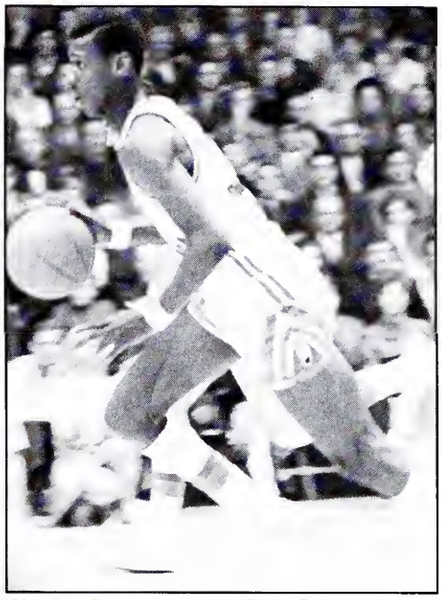
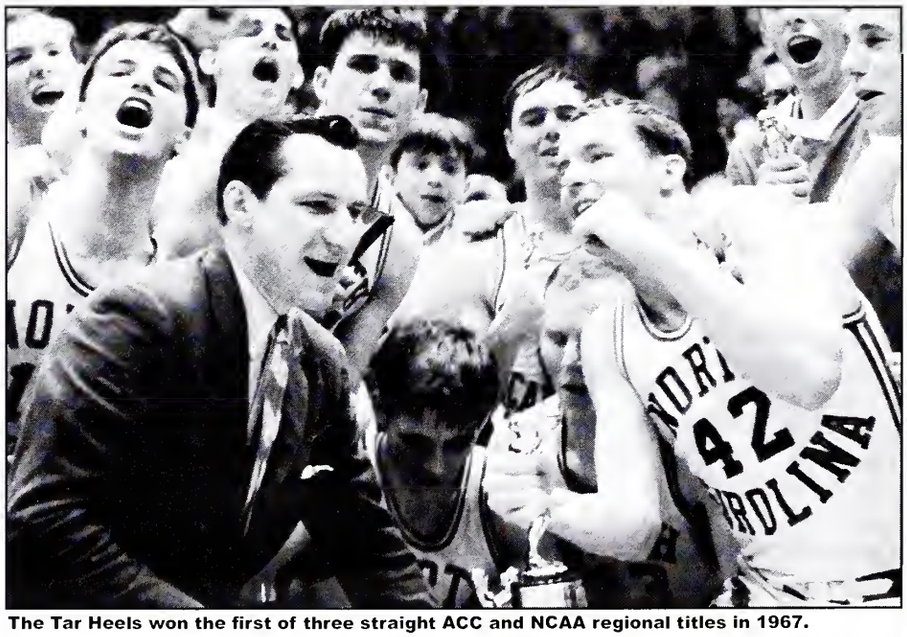
Carolina beat Ohio State, 80-66, to advance to the national championship game. Junior forward Bill Bunting had 17 points and 12 rebounds and Miller logged 20 points and six rebounds. Miller had earned All-America honors and was the MVP at the ACC Tournament for the second year in a row.

Carolina played defending champion UCLA for the championship in the Los Angeles Sports Arena. National Player of the Year Lew Alcindor scored 34 points and pulled down 16 rebounds to lead the Bruins to a 78-55 win, their fourth title in five years. Miller led the Tar Heels with 14 points and six rebounds.

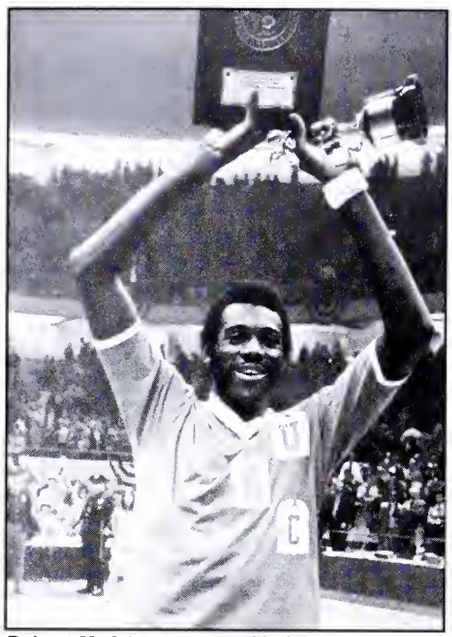
"We were ready this time for the NCAAs, based on the year before," says Coach Smith. "We were great against undefeated St. Bonaventure with Bob Lanier in the opening round. The field was not seeded in those days. We faced Lew Alcindor and UCLA in the championship game. I do think that was the best college team I had ever seen to that date."



Charles Scott played on Final Four teams at Carolina in 1968 and 1969.



The Tar Heels won the first of three straight ACC and NCAA regional titles in 1967.



Robert McAdoo was the 1972 ACC Tournament MVP and later had 24 points and 15 rebounds in the Final Four vs. Florida State.

Phil Ford, Dean Smith and the Tar Heels reached the 1977 NCAA championship game.

First-team All-America Charles Scott led Carolina with 22.3 points and 7.1 rebounds per game. Carolina advanced to the NCAA Tournament with a stellar comeback victory over Duke in the ACC finals. Led by Scott, who scored 40 points and nabbed five rebounds, the Tar Heels rallied from a nine-point halftime deficit to defeat the Blue Devils, 85-74.

Scott had 22 points, nine rebounds and six assists against Duquesne and 32 points, six rebounds and four assists against Davidson in the regional final. He hit the game-winner as time expired to give the Tar Heels the 87-85 win over Lefty Driesell's Wildcats to send Carolina to the Final Four.

The Boilermakers' Rick Mount scored 36 and Bill Keller added 20 to lead Purdue to a 92-65 victory in the national semifinals.

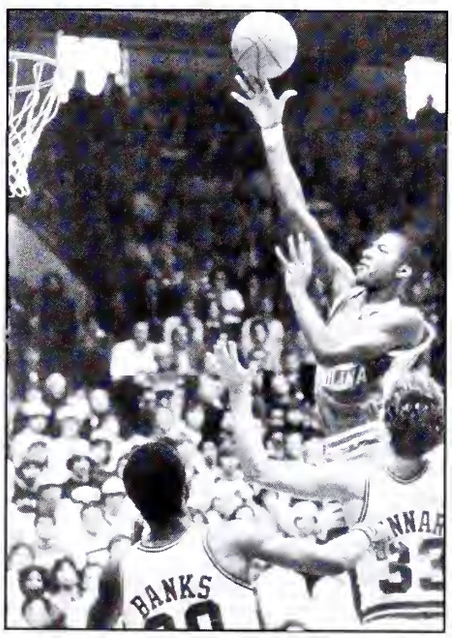
The Tar Heels earned an NCAA bid with a 73-64 victory over Maryland in the ACC Championship, avenging an earlier 79-77 overtime loss to the Terps.

George Karl had 18 points and Dennis Wuycik added 16 to lead UNC to a 92-69 rout of South Carolina in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. Wuycik (18), Robert McAdoo (17) and Karl (16) led UNC to a 73-59 win over Penn in the regional final.

Carolina lost to Florida State, 79-75, in the Final Four. McAdoo had 24 points and 15 rebounds, but his teammates made 19 of 51 shots from the floor, and the Tar Heels could not overcome a 13-point halftime deficit. Ron King led Florida State with 22 points.

"This was one of our great teams," says Coach Smith. "We played extremely well to get to the Final Four, paying back South Carolina for beating us in the ACC Tournament the year before. We beat a very good Penn team. We were ranked No. 2 in the nation and UCLA was No.1. I think we looked past Florida State ahead to UCLA. McAdoo fouled out with 13 minutes to play."



Al Wood scored a Final Four-record 39 points in the 1981 win over Virginia.

Injuries dominated the storylines in the incredible run to the championship game.

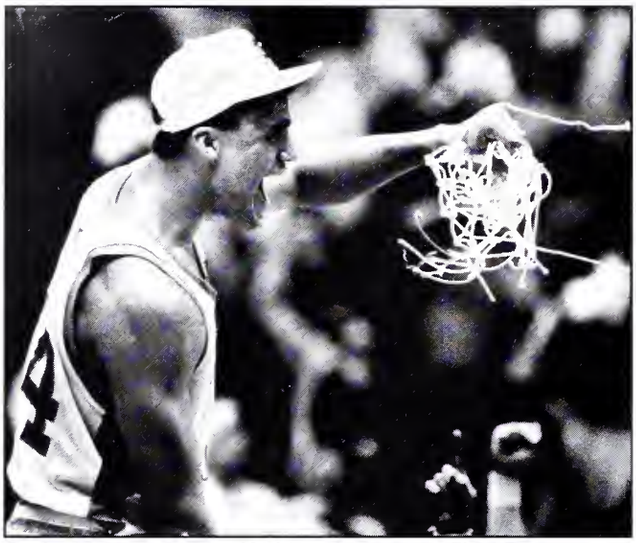
In the second round, Phil Ford scored 27 points to lead the Tar Heels, playing without an injured Walter Davis, to a 69-66 win over Purdue. On St. Patrick's Day, the Tar Heels trailed Notre Dame by 14 in the second half, but John Kuester had 14 points, eight assists and seven steals and Ford scored 29 points, including two free throws with two seconds remaining, to earn a 79-77 win.

Davis, despite a broken finger, scored 21 points as the Tar Heels beat Kentucky, 79-72, in the East Regional final.

The Tar Heels trailed UNLV, 49-43, at the half, in the national semifinals, but the Tar Heels prevailed, 84-83, behind freshman Mike O'Koren's 31 points and eight rebounds. Davis made all seven of his field goal attempts and finished with 19 points.

In the championship, Al McGuire's Warriors built a 39-27 lead, but Carolina surged ahead in the second half. However, Butch Lee (19), Bo Ellis and Jim Boylan (14 apiece) led Marquette to the title.

"Coach Guthridge called that our most amazing year," says Coach Smith. "We had more huggers that year – that means when the game is over we are all hugging in the dressing room. We lost our All-America center Tom LaGarde in February; then we had a great run. Walter couldn't shoot against Notre Dame, but Phil happened to make free throws even with his hyper-extended elbow. We held the ball against Kentucky in the second half to go to the Final Four. Then O'Koren came on and was great against UNLV.



Senior Rick Fox led the 1991 Tar Heels to the Final Four.

We lost to a really good Marquette team. Jimmy Boylan was terrific against us in the final – he once called wanting to transfer to Carolina, but I suggested he call Coach McGuire instead."

1981

The Tar Heels swept through the West Regional with little trouble, beating Pittsburgh, Utah and Kansas State. Sam Perkins had 15 points, 11 rebounds and four blocks in the regional semifinals and 16 points and 11 boards in the regional final against Kansas State. Wood was outstanding against the Wildcats, scoring 21 points and pulling down 17 rebounds.

The national semifinal was a clash between the ACC regular season champion Virginia and ACC Tournament champion UNC.

This time, the Tar Heels kept Ralph Sampson in check. Sampson scored only 11 points and Virginia could not find an answer for Wood, who scored 39 points and added 10 rebounds. The game was tied at 27 at halftime, but Carolina outscored Virginia, 51-38, in the second half to earn a 78-65 victory.

Bob Knight's Indiana Hoosiers beat the Tar Heels 63-50 in the national championship game. The game was played only hours after an assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan. Isiah Thomas led the Hoosiers with 23 points. Wood and Perkins combined for 29 points for UNC.

Toronto-born and Bahamas-raised Rick Fox was joined in the starting lineup by seniors Pete Chilcutt (center) and King Rice (point guard), junior guard Hubert Davis and sophomore forward George Lynch.

Carolina cruised to the East Regional final, beating Northeastern, Villanova and Eastern Michigan, all by double-digits, then beat Temple, 75-72, in the New Jersey Meadowlands to return to the Final Four for the first time since 1982. Davis and Fox each scored 19 points and Rice added 12 points and seven assists to get by the Owls. Temple guard Mark Macon scored 31 points, but missed a 30-footer at the buzzer that would have sent the game into overtime.

Kansas, coached by former UNC assistant Roy Williams, beat the Tar Heels, 79-73, in the national semifinals in the Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis. Davis led all scorers with 25 points, but Carolina shot just 38.4 percent for the game. Adonis Jordan led the Jayhawks with 16 points and seven assists.

"We were glad to get back to the Final Four in 1991," says Coach Smith. "We had great leadership with King Rice, Rick Fox and Pete Chilcutt. We didn't play well in Indianapolis against Kansas. We hadn't been to the Final Four in a while and I think we went back to being happy to be there."

UNC earned the No. 2 seed in the Southeast Region after losing in overtime to Randolph Childress, Tim Duncan and Wake Forest in the ACC championship game. Carolina trailed Murray State by a point at halftime in the first round, but won 80-70 behind Jerry Stackhouse's 25 points, 11 rebounds and five assists. Wins over Iowa State and Allen Iverson-led Georgetown set up a regional final between No. 2 UNC and No. 1 Kentucky in Birmingham, Ala., the heart of SEC country.

Stackhouse was brilliant with 18 points, 12 boards and six assists as Carolina won, 74-61. Donald Williams had 18 points, Rasheed Wallace added 12 and the Tar Heels held Kentucky to 28 percent shooting from the floor (7 of 36 from three-point range).

Defending NCAA champion Arkansas beat the Tar Heels, 75-68, in the national semifinals in Seattle. Stackhouse scored 18 points, but could only play 28 minutes due to a deep thigh bruise, an injury he suffered 12 seconds into the game.

"That was a special year," says Coach Smith. "We lost five seniors and were not deep, but Stackhouse and Wallace were a year older and very talented. Before the regional final, we told the team Kentucky had their celebration party scheduled, and Stackhouse held up his hand and said, 'Yeah, I'm going to go to it and celebrate.' He was so fired up. What a great competitor. Kentucky was very good. It was tough winning in Birmingham. But I was really worried about stopping Allen Iverson and beating Georgetown. You never know what would have happened if Stackhouse had not gotten hurt against Arkansas."

Carolina began ACC play with three consecutive losses for the first time ever. The second of those losses was a Smith Center debacle in which Carolina led Maryland by 22 in the second half but lost by 10.

However, the Tar Heels ran off an improbable 16-game win streak, won the ACC Tournament and earned another trip to the Final Four.

After sneaking by Fairfield in the first round, the Tar Heels beat Colorado, 73-56, in Winston-Salem to give Smith his 877th win, breaking Adolph Rupp's all-time record.

All-America forward Antawn Jamison scored 21 points and grabbed eight rebounds in the East Region semifinal against California. Shammond Williams scored 22 points and Vince Carter notched 18 points and seven rebounds against Louisville in the East Regional final.

Carolina shot poorly in Indianapolis in the Final Four, connecting on a season-low 31.1 percent from the floor, and was beaten by Arizona, 66-58. Carter had 21 points and Jamison had 18 points and 11 rebounds. Arizona guards Miles Simon and Mike Bibby scored 24 and 20, respectively.

"Fairfield was a remarkable game," says Smith. "That was probably our best offensive game since Loyola Marymount (1988), but they kept making threes. There was too much going on about the number of wins and the record. I thought it could affect us against Colorado. Then I was really impressed with our team against Louisville. We had a big lead and they cut it to six and I took a timeout. I said, 'We could let them have it, we've had a pretty good year,' and Ademola Okulaja spoke up and said 'What do you mean?' And we went on to beat them pretty badly."

Most of the players from the 1997 Final Four squad returned, including All-America candidates Jamison, Carter and Williams and ACC assist leader Ed Cota.

Although the players were the same, Bill Guthridge was in his rookie season as head coach. Dean Smith resigned in October and turned over the reins to Guthridge, who was an assistant under Smith for the previous 30 years.

Jamison averaged 22.9 points and 10.2 rebounds to win ACC and National Player of the Year honors. Carolina was No. 1 in the country for eight weeks and regained the top spot in the final poll after an 83-68 win over Duke in the ACC Tournament championship game.

Carolina beat UNC Charlotte in overtime in the second round behind Williams' 32 points, then toppled rising powers Michigan State and Connecticut in Greensboro by double-digit margins.

Utah built a 13-point halftime lead in the national semifinal and Carolina could never pull even, despite Carter's 21 points. The Tar Heels shot just 39.1 percent in the game, and Jamison was held to 14 points in his final collegiate contest.

"The ACC Tournament championship was rewarding, particularly because we beat the three teams that had beaten us in the regular season – NC State, Maryland and Duke," says Guthridge. "I knew we had a great team, and that was evident when Connecticut and Michigan State – the teams we beat to get to the Final Four – won the next two national championships."

The Tar Heels entered NCAA Tournament play as a No. 8 seed after a disappointing season that included a four-game losing streak and a first-round exit in the ACC Tournament. The No. 8 seed equaled the lowest in UNC history.

Center Brendan Haywood scored a career high 28 points and grabbed 15 rebounds to lead the Tar Heels to an 84-70 victory over Missouri in the first round.

Carolina, led by forward Jason Capel, stymied third-ranked and No. 1 seed Stanford in the second round, holding the Cardinal to 34 percent shooting. Freshman Joseph Forte led all scorers with 17 points.

Forte scored 22 points and Carolina overcame a seven-point deficit with Haywood on the bench to beat Tennessee, 74-69, in Austin, Texas, in the regional semifinal. Cota scored key late baskets and Carolina got stellar post play off the bench from Julius Peppers.

Forte had 28 points and eight rebounds in the regional final to beat Tulsa.

Carolina lost to Florida in the national semifinals in Indianapolis despite Haywood's 20 points and 12 rebounds. The Tar Heels overcame a 15-point deficit to take the lead in the second half, but fell behind after Cota went to the bench with four fouls.

"This was a determined group of players," says Guthridge. "They overcame a lot of adversity in the form of injuries, illness, and some tough losses, to get to the Final Four. I couldn't have been happier or prouder than I was for that group of players to make it to Indianapolis. We beat a good Missouri team and the top seed Stanford in Birmingham and that gave us great confidence to beat Tennessee and an outstanding Tulsa team."

Carolina in the ACC Tournament

✓ North Carolina has won 16 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament championships and played in the championship game a record 27 times.

✓ The Tar Heels have a 80-37 record and are tied with Duke for the most wins and titles in ACC Tournament history.

✓ Dean Smith won 13 Tournament titles, more than any other coach in history. Smith's teams were 58-23 and played in the championship game 21 times.

✓ The Tar Heels have been the No. 1 seed 20 times, including 2007 when Carolina won the Tournament in Tampa, Fla.

✓ Carolina is one of only two schools that have won three consecutive ACC regular-season titles and ACC Tournament championships. UNC accomplished that feat in 1967-68-69.

✓ UNC has been seeded lower than No. 5 just two times and has been seeded lower than No. 3 only five times since 1966 (No. 4 in '89, '90 and 2000 and No. 7 in 2002 and 2003). UNC won the tournament as the No. 4 seed in 1989.

✓ A Tar Heel has won the Most Valuable Player award 17 times. The MVPs include: Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Larry Miller (1967, 1968), Charles Scott (1969), Lee Dedmon (1971), Robert McAdoo (1972), Phil Ford (1975), John Kuester (1977), Dudley Bradley (1979), Sam Perkins (1981), James Worthy (1982), J.R. Reid (1989), Rick Fox (1991), Jerry Stackhouse (1994), Shammond Williams (1997), Antawn Jamison (1998) and Brandan Wright (2007).

Carolina won its 16th ACC Tournament championship in 2007.

Frank McGuire's eventual national champions ran the table in the regular season, winning all 14 games. That year marked the first time UNC reached the conference tournament final since the 1947 Southern Conference Tournament. The Tar Heels held off Wake Forest, 61-59, in the semifinal and defeated South Carolina by 20 to earn their first ACC championship. In the semifinal, Wake Forest took a one-point lead with less than a minute to play, but National Player of the Year Lennie Rosenbluth hit a hook shot from the circle and a free throw for a three-point play and the win.

Rosenbluth made 8 of 11 shots from the floor in the championship, scored 38 points and was named MVP.

The Tournament moved to the Greensboro Coliseum for the first time and was the site of Dean Smith's first title. Fittingly, Carolina won the title by sweeping its in-state rivals, beating NC State by three points, Wake Forest by 10 and Duke by nine in the title match. Larry Miller was selected MVP after scoring 25.7 points and grabbing 8.3 rebounds per game. Bob Lewis (18.0 points, 5.0 rebounds) joined Miller on the first-team all-tournament squad.

The Tournament moved again in 1968 for the first year of a three-year stay in Charlotte. UNC's semifinal game against South Carolina was a fierce battle. The Gamecocks sent the game into overtime with an 18-4 run to tie the score at 74. The Tar Heels came from behind in overtime and won on baskets by Grubar and Gerald Tuttle.

In the championship, Carolina led NC State by only five at the half, but the final tally was a lopsided 87-50 victory. Miller (25.3 points, 8.7 rebounds) became the second player ever (Len Chappell of Wake Forest) to repeat as MVP. Grubar (13.3 points, 4.7 rebounds) was also a first-team selection.

The 37-point margin of victory is the largest in championship game history.

Carolina entered as the No. 1 seed for the third year in a row. Carolina's Charles Scott battled Wake's Charlie Davis in the semifinals. Davis won the first half, as the Deacons led 37-29 at intermission. Scott took over in the second stanza, enabling UNC to win, 80-72. Scott and Grubar led the Tar Heels with 23 points apiece.

Carolina and Duke squared off in the championship game. The Blue Devils led by nine at halftime and the Tar Heels lost Grubar to a first-half knee injury. The second half featured one of the most memorable performances in ACC history as Scott scored 25 of his game-high 40 points on 12 of 13 shooting. Carolina won its third straight ACC title, 85-74, and Scott earned MVP honors.

South Carolina's departure from the ACC left only seven teams, and Carolina received a bye into the semifinal against Duke. Four Tar Heels scored in double figures, led by Bobby Jones, who carded a double-double (14 points, 11 rebounds) as the Tar Heels won, 63-48.

Carolina was in the championship game for the fifth time in six years. Maryland was in the finals for the first time since 1958. Robert McAdoo (15 points, 7.5 rebounds per game) became the fifth Tar Heel in six years to earn the MVP award as Carolina held on for a 73-64 win. Dennis Wuycik (17.5 points, 5 rebounds) and George Karl (13 points, 2.5 rebounds) joined McAdoo on the all-tournament first team.

The Tar Heels trailed Wake Forest in the quarterfinal by eight points with 50 seconds left. Freshman point guard Phil Ford (44 seconds to play), Mitch Kupchak (36 seconds), Walter Davis (30 seconds) and Brad Hoffman (two seconds) hit jump shots and the Deacs missed a pair of free throws to force overtime. In the extra session with the game tied at 96 Carolina took possession with 58 seconds to play. UNC went Four Corners and drew a technical against Wake Forest with 29 seconds to play for not forcing UNC to take action. Ford hit the free throw and another free throw six seconds later as Carolina triumphed, 101-100. Davis (31 points, 12 rebounds), Kupchak (16 points, 14 rebounds) and Ford (25 points) led the Tar Heels.

Clemson came back from 11 down at the half to force overtime in the semifinals. A tip-in by Kupchak gave Carolina an overtime lead it would not relinquish. Ford led UNC with 29, making 15 of 18 from the free throw line.

Ford was outstanding in the championship game against defending NCAA champion NC State. Carolina took the lead, 56-55, on a jumper by Davis with nine minutes left and then went into its delay offense. Ford hit two baskets in the next two and one-half minutes, and NC State did not score during a 5:18 stretch, leading to a 70-66 Tar Heel victory. Ford (26 points per game) was the MVP and was joined on the first-team by Kupchak (13.7 points, 13.7 rebounds). Davis netted 19 points and grabbed 7.7 rebounds over the three games.

No. 1 seed Carolina met No. 7 Virginia in the finals in a rematch of the 1976 final won by the Cavaliers. Ford scored 19 points in the first half, but the Cavaliers led by one at the break. Virginia led 64-56 with 7:08 remaining, but over the next 5:03 the Tar Heels outscored the Wahoos, 15-1. Freshman Mike O'Koren and John Kuester led the final charge after Ford fouled out with 5:45 to play and Virginia still holding a 64-61 advantage. A layup by Bruce Buckley with 3:37 to play broke a 67-all tie and gave UNC the lead for good. Kuester's take-charge attitude and perfect free throw shooting earned him MVP honors after the Tar Heel title.

Duke defeated UNC in the final game of the regular season to share the regular-season title, but the Tar Heels won the draw for the tournament's top seed and first-round bye. Carolina defeated Maryland, 102-79, in the semifinals, as five Tar Heels scored in double figures. Al Wood led with 19 points on 8 of 10 shooting.

Carolina beat Duke in the finals, 71-63. Dudley Bradley scored 16 points with seven steals and four assists and earned MVP honors. O'Koren had 18 points and eight rebounds and was 10 for 11 from the free throw line. The Tar Heels turned the ball over just seven times and forced 14 Duke miscues. O'Koren and Dave Colescott, who averaged 15 and 12.5 points per game in the tournament, respectively, also were first-team selections.

UNC beat Wake Forest, 58-57, in one semifinal as Mike Pepper nailed a 16-foot jumper with eight seconds to play. Sam Perkins scored 18 points and pulled down 15 rebounds and James Worthy added 12 points and 11 rebounds. The Deacons led 53-46 but Pepper and Perkins each hit two baskets. The second basket by Perkins gave UNC a 56-55 lead with 4:12 to play. Alvis Rogers hit an 11-foot jumper to give Wake the lead back with 1:30 to play, but Pepper hit the game-winner with eight seconds to go.

Carolina and Maryland met in the final in the Capital Centre in Landover, Md. The game was tied seven times in the second half, but the Tar Heels went ahead for good with 2:53 to play on a Jimmy Black steal and lay-up. Wood scored twice in the final two minutes to secure a 61-60 triumph.

Perkins (17.7 points, 8.3 rebounds) became just the second freshman ever, and first since Ford, to be named MVP. Worthy (13 points, 7.7 rebounds) joined Perkins as a first-team all-tournament selection.

No. 1-ranked Carolina led No. 2 Virginia, 34-31, at halftime behind Worthy's 16 points. Michael Jordan scored four of the Tar Heels' first five field goals in the second half. His fourth straight field goal, with 8:44 to play, was Carolina's last of the game. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 remaining, Carolina spread the floor and held the ball. Virginia fouled six times over the next 7:06, finally putting Matt Doherty on the foul line for 1-and-1 with 28 seconds left. Doherty hit the first for a two-point edge. Virginia turned the ball over with three seconds to play. Doherty hit two free throws and Ralph Sampson had an uncontested dunk with one second left as Carolina prevailed, 47-45. The field goal by Sampson was the first by the Cavaliers since the 7:34 mark.

Worthy (13.3 points, 8 rebounds), Perkins (9.7 points, 7.3 rebounds) and Jordan (11.7 points, 3 rebounds) were named to the first-team all-tournament team, and Worthy was named MVP.

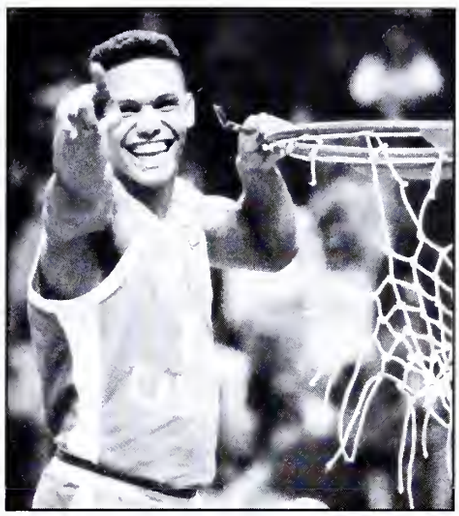
Carolina breezed to the championship game, recording a 15-point win over Georgia Tech and a 30-point rout of eighth-seeded Maryland, which had knocked off No. 1 seed NC State.

The 1989 ACC championship game was one of the most memorable and intense meetings ever between Carolina and Duke. Both teams had won regular-season games on the other's home floor.

Stifling defense by both teams led to 44 turnovers, 26 of which the Tar Heels committed. J.R. Reid had 14 points and nine rebounds and Steve Bucknall had 10 points and five assists to lead UNC. The game was tied five times in the second half and Duke led just once, with 5:28 to play. Bucknall hit a driving basket and free throw with 1:46 remaining to break a 66-all tie. Bucknall and King Rice both went 4 for 4 from the line to clinch the win.

Reid (16.0 points, 8.0 rebounds per game) won MVP honors. Senior point guard Jeff Lebo (10.7 points, 3.0 assists) joined him on the first-team.



King Rice cuts the nets after the 1991 ACC championship-game win over Duke.

After hard-fought victories over Clemson and Virginia, the Tar Heels met a Duke team in the championship game that had swept the regular-season series from UNC. Carolina raced out to a 15-4 lead and thrashed Duke, 96-74. Fox made 10 of 16 field goal attempts for 25 points and Hubert Davis netted 17. Rice had 12 points and seven assists and did not commit a turnover. Fox averaged 17.3 points and 9 rebounds over the three games and was named MVP. Davis averaged 13.7 points and hit nearly 64 percent from three-point range in the Tournament.

The win was the largest in the finals since Carolina beat NC State, 87-50, in 1968.

Carolina faced Wake Forest in the semifinal in what proved to be one of the most exciting games in ACC Tournament history. Wake Forest led, 76-70, with 2:15 to play, but Derrick Phelps helped cut the deficit to three with 11 seconds left. Phelps then made the first of two free throws and rebounded his own miss on the second. He fed Dante Calabria who drove the lane and hit a twisting bank shot with three seconds remaining for a tie at 81.

Carolina led 84-81 in overtime, but a three-pointer by Rusty LaRue tied the game with 39 seconds left. UNC freshman Jerry Stackhouse, the Tournament's MVP, hit the game-winner on a baseline drive with five seconds to play. Wake Forest guard Randolph Childress, who scored 31 points, just missed a long three-pointer as the clock expired.

Stackhouse had 14 points and seven rebounds and Eric Montross added 12 points and nine rebounds to lead Carolina past Virginia, 73-66, in the title game.

The Tar Heels lost their first three ACC regular-season games, but rallied to go 8-0 in the second half to finish tied for second place. Carolina then swept past Virginia, Wake Forest and NC State to claim its 14th Tournament title. Junior guard Shammond Williams earned MVP honors, averaging 20.0 points and 5.0 assists.

Antawn Jamison scored 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds and point guard Ed Cota had 11 points and 10 assists in the 78-68 quarterfinal win over Virginia. Williams made eight of 11 shots, including four of seven three-pointers, in an 86-73 triumph over the Tim Duncan-led Demon Deacons in the semifinals.

In the championship game, Williams again led Carolina with 23 points, nine of which came on a trio of three-point baskets in a 2:02 span midway through the second half. Jamison added 17 points and a game-high 11 rebounds. Carolina shot 59.0 percent from the floor, the third-highest percentage ever by the winning team in an ACC final.

Carolina repeated as Tournament champions for the first time since 1981-82 with victories over NC State, Maryland and Duke. Those wins avenged regular-season losses against the same three opponents. Jamison injured a muscle in the overtime win over the Terrapins in the semifinal, and was questionable for Sunday's championship game. However, Jamison was relentless against the Blue Devils, sparking UNC to a 15-point win over the nation's top-ranked team with a 22-point, 18-rebound effort that ranks as one of the finest in championship game history.

Jamison had 25 points in the opening round win over the Wolfpack. The Tar Heels trailed throughout much of the second half against Maryland, but rallied behind Shammond Williams to force overtime. Williams added 10 points in the extra stanza to lead Carolina to an 83-73 triumph.

Carolina's win over Duke in the championship game was UNC's sixth in title game matchups against the Blue Devils. The game was tied at 57 with less than 11 minutes to play, but the Tar Heels reeled off the next 13 points. Carolina finished the game shooting 54.4 percent from the floor, while Duke hit on just 32.8 percent of its field goal attempts. Williams and Vince Carter had 19 and 16 points, respectively.

Carolina won its 16th ACC Tournament in 2007 in Tampa, Fla., with wins over Florida State, Boston College and NC State. Prior to 2007, the last time UNC had won both a share of the ACC regular season title and the ACC Tournament in the same season was 1982.

As the Tournament's top seed, Carolina beat No. 9 seed Florida State in the quarterfinals. Wayne Ellington scored 18 points to lead four double-figure scorers in the win over the Seminoles. Brandan Wright scored 20 points to lead the top-seeded Tar Heels to a 71-56 win over No. 4 seed Boston College in the semifinals.

All five Tar Heel starters scored in double figures as Carolina beat NC State, 89-80, in the final. Reyshawn Terry scored eight consecutive points in a late-game stretch to capture the win.

Wright was named MVP, becoming the fifth freshman and fourth Tar Heel freshman to do so. Wright joined UNC's Phil Ford (1978), Sam Perkins (1981) and Jerry Stackhouse (1994) and Duke's Jason Williams (2000) as those to accomplish the feat. Wright, Ellington and Ty Lawson made the All-ACC Tournament team, the first time three freshmen from the same team ever earned that honor.

The 2007 championship was Roy Williams' first as the Tar Heel head coach.

1957 Season

The Tar Heels had to pull out numerous close games to preserve their perfect 32-0 record and NCAA title. Win No. 17 was a 65-61 triumph over Maryland in double overtime. Tommy Kearns' free throws provided the winning margin in the 18th consecutive win, 75-73, over Duke. The Tar Heels beat Wake Forest for the fourth time in that one year in the ACC Tournament semifinals. Carolina trailed with less than a minute left, but squeaked out a 61-59 win.

Those close games were nothing compared to the drama that unfolded in the Final Four in Kansas City. The Tar Heels won back-to-back triple overtime games against Michigan State and Kansas to capture UNC's first NCAA championship. Pete Brennan's jumper against Michigan State was a key play that extended the game into the second overtime. Joe Quigg's two free throws with six seconds remaining in the third overtime gave Carolina a 54-53 win over Kansas and Wilt Chamberlain in the final. In 1999, Sports Illustrated selected the 1957 NCAA title game as its second-favorite game of all-time.

UNC 87, Davidson 85
March 15, 1969

Charles Scott almost single-handedly carried the Tar Heels to victory in the NCAA East Regional final in College Park, Md. Scott connected on 10 of 14 field goal attempts in the second half. Davidson had the ball with 1:05 remaining and the score tied, 85-85, but Gerald Tuttle drew a charge for the Tar Heels. Scott hit a 20-footer with three seconds left and Carolina advanced to its third consecutive Final Four.

UNC 73, Duke 71
January 19, 1974

The Tar Heels defeated the Blue Devils on a last-second shot at Cameron Indoor Stadium. The Tar Heels rallied to tie the score and Duke had the ball at half-court with four seconds left. Bobby Jones stole the inbounds pass and hit an off-balance lay-up with one second left to give Carolina a 73-71 win.

UNC 96, Duke 92 (OT)
March 2, 1974

In one of the most famous comebacks in college basketball, the Tar Heels rallied from eight points down with 17 seconds remaining against Duke to force overtime. Trailing 86-78, Bobby Jones made both ends of a one-and-one with just 17 seconds left. John Kuester cut the deficit to four with 13 seconds to play with a lay-up after Duke threw away the inbounds pass. The Blue Devils again lost the inbounds pass and Jones cut the deficit to two on a put-back off an Ed Stahl miss. Six seconds remained. The Tar Heels fouled Pete Kramer with four seconds left, and he missed the front end of the one-and-one. Stahl grabbed the rebound and called a timeout with three ticks left. Mitch Kupchak in-bounded the ball to Walter Davis, who launched a 25-foot shot as time expired. The shot banked off the glass to tie the score at 86-86. Carmichael Auditorium erupted and Carolina went on to win 96-92 in overtime.

The UNC bench, including assistant coach Bill Guthridge (center, dark suit), jumps for joy as Charles Scott hits the game-winner as time expires, giving the Tar Heels an 87-85 win over Davidson in the 1969 NCAA East Regional Final.

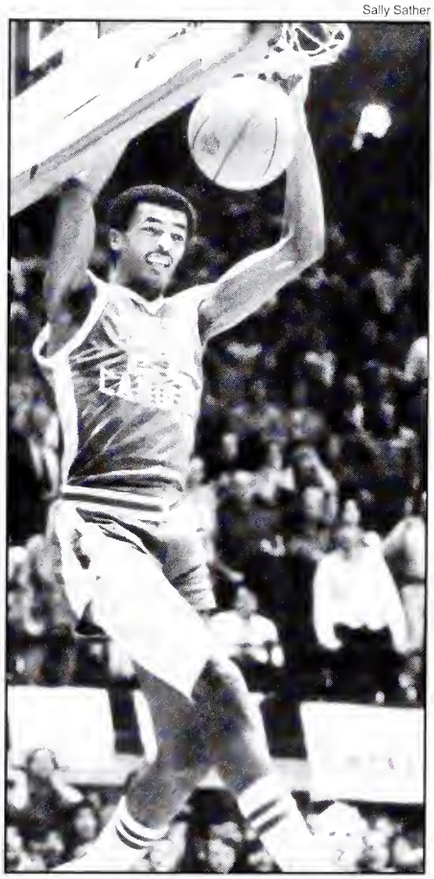
UNC 101, Wake Forest 100 (OT)
March 6, 1975

Carolina trailed Wake Forest, 90-82, with 50 seconds remaining in the ACC quarterfinals. Phil Ford hit a 20-footer with 43 ticks left and Mitch Kupchak followed a Deacon turnover with a driving layup with 34 secnds to play. Wake Forest's inbounds pass grazed the scoreboard, turning the ball back to Carolina. Walter Davis scored to make it 90-88 with 29 seconds left. The Deacons failed to convert two one-and-one opportunities before Brad Hoffman drove the baseline and nailed a 12-footer to tie the game with two seconds left. The Tar Heels pulled out the 101-100 win in overtime and went on to capture the ACC title two days later.

UNC 70, NC State 69
January 17, 1979

Carolina charged out to a 40-19 halftime lead and led by 17 with 10:30 to play, but the Wolfpack got hot. Kenny Matthews hit a jumper with 32 seconds left that gave State a 69-68 lead. Dudley Bradley missed a jumper for the Tar Heels and State grabbed the rebound with 16 seconds left. Reynolds Coliseum celebrated. But Bradley stole the ball from Clyde Austin at mid-court and drove in for the game-winning dunk and a 70-69 triumph.

Sally Sather



Dudley Bradley's steal and dunk in the final seconds gave the Tar Heels a 70-69 win at NC State on January 17, 1979.

UNC 63, Georgetown 62
March 29, 1982

Michael Jordan hit a jumper from the left wing with 17 seconds to play to give Dean Smith his first national championship. Final Four MVP James Worthy had 28 points, but it was the freshman Jordan who took a pass from Jimmy Black and made the game-winning shot. Worthy stole an errant pass from Hoya forward Fred Brown in the final seconds to clinch the title.

UNC 70, Tulane 68 (3 OT)
November 30, 1982

John Williams made two free throws with eight seconds to play to give Tulane a 53-51 edge. Michael Jordan was whistled for an offensive foul with four seconds remaining, and it appeared the Tar Heels would start a season with three successive losses for the first time since 1928-29. However, Jordan stole the inbounds pass and hit a 24-foot prayer at the buzzer to tie the game. Carolina prevailed, 70-68, in triple overtime.

Walter Davis (No. 24) capped a furious, eight-point comeback in the final 17 seconds of regulation with this 25-foot shot at the buzzer on March 2, 1974. Carolina went on to defeat Duke, 96-92, in overtime.

UNC 64, Virginia 63
February 10, 1983

Carolina trailed second-ranked Virginia by 16 points in the second half and was down 63-53 with 4:12 remaining. Jimmy Braddock hit a three-pointer and Matt Doherty and Sam Perkins each converted one-and-ones to close the gap to 63-60 with 2:54 remaining. Virginia held the ball and Perkins was forced to foul Ralph Sampson with 1:20 left. The All-America center missed the front end of his one-and-one. Braddock missed a three-pointer, but Michael Jordan was there to put in the rebound. As Rick Carlisle dribbled up-court, Jordan stole the ball and slammed it home for a 64-63 Tar Heel lead. Carlisle missed a last-second shot and Jordan grabbed the rebound in front of a delirious Carmichael crowd.

UNC 75, Maryland 74
January 9, 1985

UNC 60, Notre Dame 58
March 16, 1985

In the second round of the NCAA Tournament, the higher-seeded Tar Heels had to play at Notre Dame. Tied at 58 with 1:38 left, the Irish held for the last shot. Irish point guard David Rivers lost control of the ball, enabling Curtis Hunter to scoop it up and make a lead pass to Kenny Smith. Smith slammed it home, then stole the inbounds pass to seal the win.

UNC 96, Syracuse 93 (OT)
November 21, 1987

Undermanned Carolina faced top-ranked Syracuse in the Hall of Fame Tip-Off Classic and the Orange led by 14 with 15:39 to play. Carolina stormed back and sent the game into overtime when freshman Pete Chilcutt hit a turnaround jumper at the horn to tie the game at 85.

UNC 80, James Madison 79
November 24, 1989

The Tar Heels trailed Lefty Driesell's Dukes, 79-70, with less than a minute to play in the Maui Classic. An offensive rebound basket by Rick Fox and a steal and three-pointer by Hubert Davis cut the deficit to four with 48 seconds to play. Pete Chilcutt hit a three to pull within one with 10 ticks remaining. The Tar Heels had one last chance after a JMU player stepped out of bounds and King Rice tossed an off-balance runner from the top of the key that banked in at the buzzer.

UNC 79, Oklahoma 77
March 17, 1990

The Tar Heels trailed No. 1 ranked Oklahoma, 74-73, with 55 seconds to play when Rick Fox nailed a three-pointer from 25 feet away. The Sooners answered with a conventional three-point play and led, 77-76, but King Rice was fouled with 10 seconds left. Rice hit the first shot, but missed the second. The rebound went out-of-bounds to Carolina with eight seconds to play. Fox hit a driving bank shot off the glass as time expired that gave the Tar Heels a 79-77 win and a 10th consecutive trip to the Sweet 16.

UNC 80, Wake Forest 78
February 8, 1992

Just three days after knocking off No. 1 Duke, Carolina rallied from 22 points behind to defeat Wake Forest, 80-78, on Brian Reese's jumper at the buzzer. The comeback was the largest in Tar Heel history. UNC trailed by 20 with 14:49 to play and by 11 with 6:17 to go before a 10-0 run cut the Deacs lead to 75-74. Pat Sullivan tied the game at 78 with a pair of free throws with 38 seconds left. Reese set up the final possession with a steal with 16 seconds to go. He drove the lane and missed, but grabbed his own rebound and launched a 12-footer at the buzzer for the win.

UNC 82, Florida State 77
January 27, 1993

The Seminoles jumped out to a 45-28 advantage at the half and later extended the lead to as many as 21 points. Carolina trailed 73-54 with less than nine minutes to play. The Tar Heels, keyed by a pair of three-pointers by Henrik Rodl, then ran off 15 straight points and Eric Montross hit a jump hook with 1:59 left to cut the FSU lead to 77-76. George Lynch stole a crosscourt pass by Charlie Ward and slammed the ball home to give Carolina a 78-77 lead. Clutch foul shooting by Donald Williams sealed the 82-77 victory. The Tar Heels outscored the Seminoles 28-4 over the last nine minutes.

1993 NCAA Tournament

In the run to the national championship, the Tar Heels had to overcome double-digit deficits on three different occasions. Carolina trailed Arkansas, 25-14, more than 10 minutes into the first half of the East Regional semifinal. Sparked by George Lynch and Donald Williams, the Tar Heels went on a 14-3 run to tie the game at 28. Carolina fell behind 38-31 before knotting the score at 45 at halftime and eventually prevailing 80-74.

The Tar Heels trailed Cincinnati 29-14 in the regional final with less than seven minutes remaining in the first half. The Bearcats' Nick Van Exel hit his sixth three-pointer of the half with 4:50 remaining to chalk up his 21st point and a 33-20 lead. Led by Derrick Phelps' defense, Carolina cut the deficit to one by halftime, held Van Exel to only two points in the final 20 minutes and pulled out a 75-68 overtime win.

The Tar Heels fell behind Michigan, 23-13, in the national championship game. Carolina went on a 12-2 run to tie the game, capped off by a three-pointer by Donald Williams. Carolina took a 42-36 halftime lead and went on to win the title, 77-71. Williams finished with 25 points and hit four free throws in the final minutes to secure the win.

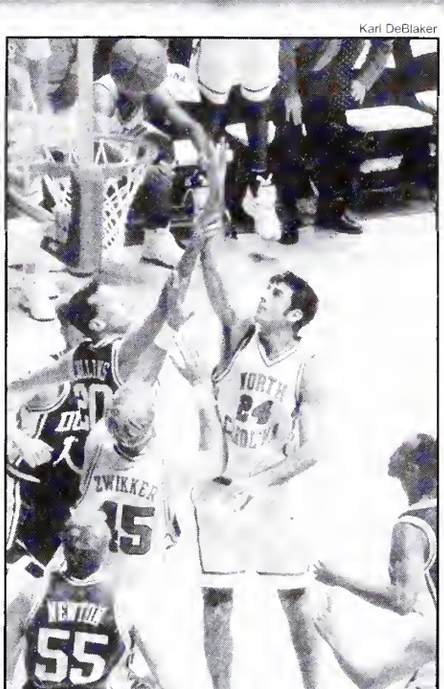
UNC 86, Wake Forest 84 (OT)
March 12, 1994

The Tar Heels erased a five-point deficit in the final 1:15 of regulation to down the Demon Deacons, 86-84, in overtime in the ACC semifinals. Leading 81-78, Wake Forest chose to foul Derrick Phelps with 11.8 seconds left. Phelps made the first free throw and missed the second, but grabbed the rebound. He found Dante Calabria, whose baseline drive and basket with 3.8 ticks left tied the score at 81. Freshman Jerry Stackhouse took a pass from Phelps and hit a driving shot to win the game, 86-84. Carolina went on to win its 13th ACC title the next day with a 73-66 victory over Virginia.

UNC 62, Wake Forest 61
January 28, 1995

Winston-Salem was the stage for a battle between sophomore centers Rasheed Wallace and Tim Duncan. Duncan had 18 points, 17 rebounds and seven blocks, and Wallace countered with 17 points, 10 rebounds and three blocks. Carolina trailed Wake Forest 53-43 with 6:39 left. Strong inside play from Wallace and the three-point shooting of Jeff McInnis and Donald Williams brought UNC to within one at 61-60. Williams then hit a running one-hander from the right side of the lane with 5.5 seconds remaining for a 62-61 win.

Karl DeBlaker



Dante Calabria's tip-in gave the Tar Heels a 73-72 win over Duke on Jan. 31, 1996. Carolina trailed by 17 points in the first half.

UNC 102, Duke 100 (2 OT)
February 2, 1995

The Tar Heels jumped out to a 26-9 lead on a spectacular reverse dunk by Jerry Stackhouse over two Blue Devils. Duke pulled within five at halftime and led by as many as 12 in the second half. UNC battled back from a nine-point deficit with 6:18 remaining to force overtime. The Tar Heels led by nine, but Duke made three three-pointers, including a 30-footer from Jeff Capel at the buzzer, to knot the score at 95 and force a second overtime. Donald Williams hit a pair of 12-footers in the second OT and Jeff McInnis had a steal and lay-up with under a minute to play to give Carolina a 102-100 win. Stackhouse and Rasheed Wallace each had 25 points and Williams added 24 in one of the greatest college basketball games ever played.

UNC 73, Duke 72
January 31, 1996

The Blue Devils' lead was three when Ademola Okulaja grabbed an offensive rebound and scored to make it 69-68 with 1:55 to go. Steve Wojciechowski hit a three-pointer for a 72-68 Duke lead with 1:13 to play, but Shammond Williams countered with a three of his own 15 seconds later. Duke turned the ball over and the Tar Heels nearly returned the favor, but Williams forced a jump ball after a scramble. Possession favored UNC and Jeff McInnis drove into the lane and fed Serge Zwikker, whose shot was blocked by Greg Newton. Dante Calabria tipped the loose ball in for a 73-72 lead. Duke had one final chance to win, but Ricky Price's baseline jumper at the buzzer hit the front of the rim.

UNC 59, NC State 56
January 15, 1997

The Tar Heels began ACC play with three straight losses for the first time in history. Carolina led 36-28 at halftime, but did not score a field goal in the second half until the 8:09 mark and had just two baskets in the first 18 minutes of the second stanza. The Wolfpack led 56-47 with 2:00 to play, but the Tar Heels went on a 12-0 run to finish the game. Antawn Jamison began the rally by forcing a steal and Shammond Williams hit a lay-up to pull within seven. Williams hit a three-pointer and Jamison added a lay-up to pull within two points with 50 seconds to play. Trailing by one with 28 seconds left, Carolina fouled and State missed the front end of a one-and-one. The Tar Heels went ahead for good with 12 seconds to play as Ademola Okulaja fed Jamison on the low block for a lay-up. Vince Carter stole the inbounds pass after the go-ahead score to secure the win.

UNC 45, NC State 44
February 12, 1997

This was the lowest scoring output in a win during Dean Smith's 36 years as head coach. The Tar Heels trailed 28-19 at the half, but pulled within 42-41 with 7:25 to play. Neither team scored until a Damon Thornton basket with 2:03 left gave State a 44-41 advantage. Serge Zwikker scored for UNC to make it 44-43. With 12.3 seconds to play, Antawn Jamison forced a turnover and freshman point guard Ed Cota drove to the left baseline and lofted a floater which found the

The Tar Heels let a seven-point lead slip away in the final minute of regulation, but Shammond Williams put on an awesome three-point shooting display as Carolina prevailed, 107-100, in double-overtime in Atlanta. Williams forced a second overtime with a pair of free throws with six seconds left in the first extra period. In the second OT, Williams scored 12 of his career-high 42 points, including two three-pointers.

UNC 74, Tennessee 69
March 24, 2000

Carolina was unranked for the first time in 10 years and entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 8 seed. The Tar Heels trailed 10th-ranked Tennessee, 39-36, at halftime of the regional semifinal. The Vols led by two when UNC center Brendan Haywood fouled out with 8:03 left and led, 64-57, with 4:48 to play. But freshman Joseph Forte hit a three-pointer and Jason Capel had a steal and lay-up to make it 64-62 with 3:41 left. Ed Cota tied the game on a driving lay-up and followed with a jumper to give UNC the lead with 1:59 left. Forte, Julius Peppers and Cota each hit two free throws in the final 0.34 to cap a 15-3 Tar Heel run and a 74-69 win.

UNC 70, Wake Forest 69
January 6, 2001

Brendan Haywood grabbed a loose ball in the lane and scored with 3.3 seconds to play to give the Tar Heels the win over No. 4-ranked and previously undefeated Wake Forest. Haywood finished with 24 points and 10 rebounds. His basket marked the fourth lead change in the final 1:22.

UNC 85, Duke 83
February 1, 2001

Joseph Forte had 24 points, 16 rebounds (a UNC record for guards), six assists and three steals. The Tar Heels blistered the Cameron Indoor Stadium nets by shooting 51.5 percent from the floor. Carolina led by as many as 13 in the first half, but Duke took the lead midway through the second half. Ronald Curry scored six straight points in 48 seconds to give the Tar Heels a 63-59 lead. UNC later built a seven-point lead, but the Blue Devils tied the score with three seconds left. On the ensuing inbounds play, Shane Battier fouled Brendan Haywood and the UNC seven-footer hit both free throws with one second left for the win.

UNC 86, Connecticut 83
January 17, 2004

Rashad McCants scored 27 points against the Huskies for the second straight year and for the second year in a row the Tar Heels upset Connecticut in the Smith Center. McCants scored the last 10 points of the game for Carolina, including a three-pointer with just over six seconds to play. The Huskies would go on to win the national championship. It was Roy Williams' first win as UNC's head coach over a No. 1 ranked team.

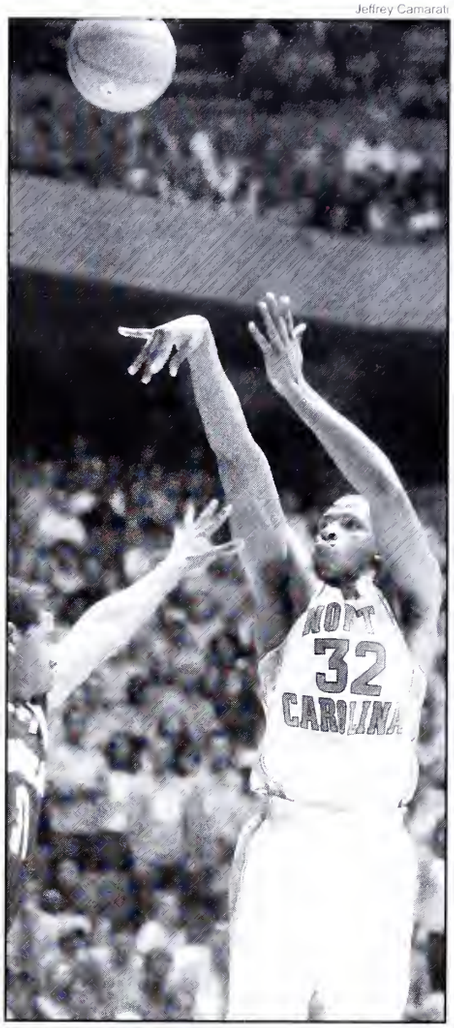
UNC 75, Duke 73
March 6, 2005

Carolina trailed, 73-64, after Blue Devil forward Lee Melchionni hit a three with 3:03 to play. But the Tar Heels outscored Duke, 11-0, the rest of the way to clinch the regular-season ACC title. Trailing by two with less than 30 seconds to play, David Noel stripped Daniel Ewing of the ball and Raymond Felton grabbed the loose ball and called timeout. On the ensuing possession, Felton hit the first of two free throws, Marvin Williams rebounded his missed second free throw and scored the go-ahead basket with 17 seconds to play. Sean May led UNC with 26 points and 24 rebounds.

UNC 75, Illinois 70
April 4, 2005

Final Four MVP Sean May led UNC with 26 points and 10 rebounds, while Raymond Felton's and Marvin Williams' late heroics gave Roy Williams his first NCAA title. Marvin Williams broke a 70-all tie with a tip-in basket with 1:27 to play. Leading 72-70, Felton, who earlier hit a three-pointer to break a 65-65 tie, stole an Illini pass with 31 seconds to play and hit three of four free throws to cap the win.

Jeffrey Camarati



Rashad McCants hit a three-pointer with six seconds to play as UNC beat No. 1-ranked Connecticut on Jan. 17, 2004, in Chapel Hill.

Jim Bounds

Marvin Williams scored the game-winning three-point play in Carolina's 75-73 win over Duke on March 6, 2005.

Through its teaching, research and engagement, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill serves as an educational and economic beacon for the people of North Carolina and beyond.

HISTORY

• The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill was the nation's first state university to open its doors and the only public university to award degrees in the 18th century.

• Authorized by the N.C. Constitution in 1776, the university was chartered by the N.C. General Assembly Dec. 11, 1789, the same year George Washington first was inaugurated as president.

• The cornerstone was laid for Old East, the nation's first state university building, Oct. 12, 1793. Hinton James, the first student, arrived from Wilmington, N.C., Feb. 12, 1795.

RECENT RANKINGS & RATINGS

• Several national publications regularly publish rankings that listed Carolina prominently in categories ranging from academic quality to affordability to diversity to engagement to international presence. Recent highlights include:

• 1st among the 100 best U.S. public colleges and universities that offer the best combination of top-flight academics and affordable costs as ranked by Kiplinger's Personal Finance magazine. 1st for six consecutive times since Kiplinger's began these periodic surveys in 1998.

• 5th-best public university in U.S. News & World Report's 2008 "Best Colleges" guidebook for the seventh consecutive year. 1st among public campuses for the third consecutive year. 9th overall in "Great Schools, Great Prices."

• Among 25 "New Ivy" campuses in the 2007 Kaplan/Newsweek "How to Get into College Guide." Includes schools with first-rate academic programs fueling their rise in national stature. Reports Newsweek: "If a moviemaker needs an idyllic setting for a film about college life, Chapel Hill might just take the prize."

• A "best value" among 81 schools chosen for "America's Best Value Colleges, 2006 Edition" by The Princeton Review/Random House for outstanding academics, relatively low costs and generous financial aid packages. 2nd appearance in a row for UNC.

• 1st among major U.S. universities – for the 6th time in 8 years – in the percentage of African-American students in the first-year class, according to The Journal of Blacks in Higher Education. The 470 black first-year students enrolled at UNC in fall 2006 marked a 13 percent increase from 2005. At 12.3 percent of the total class, this was the second-highest percentage reported by the Journal since its annual survey began in 1993.

DEGREE PROGRAMS

• Carolina offers bachelor's, master's, doctoral and professional degrees in academic areas critical to North Carolina's future: business, dentistry, education, law, medicine, nursing, public health and social work, among others.

A CAROLINA SCHOLARSHIP IS ABOUT MUCH MORE THAN WHAT HAPPENS ON THE FIELD

That's where Tar Heel student-athletes are in the public eye, of course. That's when we see them wearing their uniform, when they are stamped as Tar Heels across the chest.

Receiving a scholarship to Carolina means meeting a handful of new teammates—and a world full of new classmates. It means remembering the many victories, because part of coming to Carolina means being a winner. But it also means remembering the children they met during their holiday shopping project, the sign a fan made for them at one of their games, and the professor in that 8 a.m. class that made them want to get out of bed early every morning.

These student-athletes are afforded this opportunity because of The Rams Club. Each year, donors from across the country—alumni, fans and supporters—provide scholarships that enable more than 450 deserving young men and women to be Tar Heels for a lifetime.

Carolina basketball is competing in 2007-08 in the Dean E. Smith Center for the 23rd season. The Tar Heels have played 299 regular-season games in the Smith Center in front of a combined audience of more than 6 million fans. Carolina is 251-48 in the Smith Center, an impressive winning mark of 84.0 percent.

Carolina was once again third in the nation last year in home attendance, attracting more than 20,600 fans per game. The Tar Heels have been in the top five in the national attendance leaders in 20 of the last 21 seasons.

The first game in the Smith Center featured No. 1 Carolina defeating No. 3 Duke, 95-92, in a battle of unbeaten teams on Jan. 18, 1986. The first Tar Heel basket was scored by Carolina center Warren Martin off a pass from Kenny Smith.

Last year, the Tar Heels went 16-1 at home and have a 56-7 record at home in Roy Williams' four years as head coach. Dean Smith led the Tar Heels to a 133-17 record in the building that bears his name.

RECENT RENOVATIONS

The Smith Center has undergone a number of improvements to keep it on the cutting edge of basketball arenas.

In 2006-07, the playing floor was completely refinished and the seats in the lower lever and upper level ring were replaced. In early 2008, the Carolina Basketball Museum will open in the new Williamson Athletics Center, adjacent to the Koury Natatorium.

Four high-resolution video boards were installed for the 2005-06 season. The boards measure 17.8 feet x 23.6 feet, making them among the largest indoor boards in the country.

Three years ago, two 50-foot, high-resolution ribbon boards were added to the fascia around the upper level and a 40-foot video board was added to the front of the scorer's table.

In the early 2000s, the UNC locker room and weight room were completely renovated. A new media center was built and the Bowles Room and Rams Club offices were retrofitted to include a practice gym.

In 2000-01, a standing-room-only section reserved for students opened on the baseline closest to the Carolina bench. The Rams Club funded a $150,000 renovation that allowed approximately 400 students to move courtside.

As a multi-purpose facility, the Smith Center has played host to a wide range of athletic events and concerts. In 1987, U.S. Olympic Festival basketball attracted a Smith Center record crowd of 23,713 for the gold medal game. In 1988, the venue served as the site of the first and second rounds of the NCAA East Regional. In 1994, the Smith Center hosted the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships, attracting a three-day total of over 60,000 fans.

In 1999, the Smith Center and Koury Natatorium served as the basketball and aquatic venues for the 1999 Special Olympics World Summer Games.

Kenny Rogers staged the first concert in the arena on April 12, 1986. Other entertainers to perform here include Guns n' Roses, the Grateful Dead, Garth Brooks and James Taylor.

Adjacent to the Smith Center is the Maurice J. Koury Natatorium. The natatorium features an eight-lane, 50-meter pool.

The Smith Center and Koury Natatorium also host such community activities as the commencement ceremonies for four local high schools, University Blood Drive, University Career Fairs and UNC's December and May Commencement Exercises. Thousands of school children visit the Smith Center annually.

Prior to moving into the Smith Center, Carolina played its home games at Carmichael Auditorium. The Tar Heels were 169-20 at Carmichael. UNC debuted there on Dec. 4, 1965, against William and Mary, and finished play on Jan. 4, 1986, in a win over NC State.

In May 1980, the Department of Athletics, in conjunction with the Educational Foundation, embarked on a mission to raise millions of dollars from private donations to construct an arena. The real inspiration for the fund-raising effort came from the campaign chairman, the late Hargrove "Skipper" Bowles.

Six years, 2,362 donors and over $34 million later, the premiere basketball arena in America became a reality. Dedicated in September 1986 as the Dean Edwards Smith Center, the 300,000-square-foot structure stands on seven and one-half acres on the University's south campus. Over 20,000 cubic yards of rock were removed to make room for the 340-foot-wide, 380-foot-long and 140-foot-high building.

GREAT GAMES

• On Jan. 27, 1993, UNC trailed Florida State by 21 points with 11:48 to play in the game, but rallied for an 82-77 win. George Lynch's steal and dunk gave UNC the lead.

• On Feb. 3, 1994, No. 2 Carolina beat No. 1 Duke, 89-78, in the first-ever matchup between the rivals in which the teams held the top two spots in the Associated Press poll.

• UNC and Duke repeated their No. 1 vs. No. 2 battle on Feb. 5, 1998, as the second-ranked Tar Heels routed the top-rated Blue Devils, 97-73. Antawn Jamison scored 35 points that evening, one of three occasions he netted at least 35 points in the Smith Center.

• On Feb. 8, 1992, UNC rallied from 22 points down to beat Wake Forest, the largest comeback in school history.

• On March 6, 2005, Marvin Williams' three-point play with 17 seconds to go gave Carolina a 75-73 win over Duke to clinch the ACC regular-season title. Sean May had 26 points and 24 rebounds in the win.

• On Feb. 15, 2006, Georgia Tech led by as many as 20 points, but Tyler Hansbrough scored a Smith Center record 40 points to lead the Tar Heels to an 82-75 win.

THE SMITH CENTER JERSEYS

One of the most prominent features in the Smith Center is the series of banners rewarding the accomplishments of Carolina players and teams, including national championship banners for 1923-24, 1956-57, 1981-82, 1992-93 and 2004-05. Also hanging high above the playing floor are 43 replica jerseys honoring Carolina's greatest individual standouts. To read more about the Smith Center jerseys, please see p. 126-135.

CREDENTIALS

Please send requests to Steve Kirschner. Mailing address is University of North Carolina, P.O. Box 2126, Chapel Hill, NC 27515-2126. Fax requests on letterhead stationery to (919) 962-0612 or e-mail stevekirschner@unc.edu.

Credentials will be mailed or held at media will call located in the athletic communications office, which is on the second floor of the Smith Center just inside the media entrance.

Media with season credentials still must contact Kirschner to guarantee a seat at individual games.

INTERVIEWS & PRACTICE

Contact Kirschner with interview requests for Roy Williams or to attend practice. In most weeks, Williams holds a press conference at the Smith Center that is available to out-of-town media via teleconference (see schedule on this page).

Make player interview requests to Matt Bowers. Player interviews are done before practice. Freshmen are available for interviews once they have played in a regular-season contest.

Players are not available for interviews on game day or on non-practice days. All requests must be made through the athletic communications office.

Players will not participate in radio call-in shows, but are available to tape radio interviews. Due to contractual obligations, Coach Williams is unavailable to participate in radio call-in shows.

Typically, photographers and videographers are not permitted to shoot practice.

POSTGAME PRESS CONFERENCES

Players are available in the lounge adjacent to the lockerroom for 20 minutes following each home game. Coach Williams holds his postgame press conference in the media room.

Coach Williams will also be available on the ACC weekly teleconference on Mondays at 11:40 a.m. The ACC teleconference begins on January 7, 2008.

ACC TELECONFERENCE

Roy Williams is available each Monday (beginning January 7, 2008) at 11:40 a.m. on the ACC teleconference. Please call Kirschner or Brian Morrison at the ACC at (336) 851-6062 for the number.

PHOTO COMPOUND

Photographers may transmit from the "Orange" locker room, adjacent to the visiting team's locker room. UNC's director of athletic photography Jeffrey Camarati coordinates this compound. Wireless internet, 24 ethernet lines and an analog phone line are available. Statistics are brought to the photo compound.

PHOTO SPOTS

Photographers are assigned floor shooting locations. Specific requests for special camera placements should be made ahead of time to Kirschner or Camarati. Cameras are not permitted on the blue padding on the basket supports. Floor remotes may not be attached along the baseline but are allowed only if a photographer is seated with the camera.

Robert Crawford

FILING

A dozen telephones are available in the media room. No courtside phone hookups are permitted at the Smith Center. High-speed, wireless Internet access is available in the arena and media room.

PARKING, SMITH CENTER ENTRANCE

Media park in the Bowles Lot on Skipper Bowles Drive, adjacent to the Kenan-Flagler Business School. Spaces are not reserved.

Directions: NC Hwy 15-101 to Manning Drive, turn onto Bowles Drive and the Bowles Lot will be on your right at the bottom of the hill. The media entrance to the Smith Center is located near the basketball and athletic communications offices.

All briefcases, computer bags and photo equipment are subject to search for security purposes.

TARHEELBLUE.COM

Carolina's official internet website is TarHeelBlue.com. The media guide, statistics, game notes, roster, schedule, feature stories by Tar Heel Monthly publisher Adam Lucas, and past season archives are available there.

TAR HEEL SPORTS NETWORK

Learfield Communications is the rights-holder for game broadcasts, Coach Williams' weekly live call-in show (each Monday evening at 7 p.m.) and TV show.

Woody Durham, former Tar Heel All-America center Eric Montross and Jones Angell make up the Tar Heel Sports Network broadcast team.

Durham is in his 37th year as voice of the Tar Heels. Montross earned All-America honors at Carolina in 1993 and 1994 and was the starting center on the 1993 NCAA champions. Angell is in his seventh year with the Tar Heel Sports Network and his third with men's basketball.

Contact General Manager Gary Sobba and staff at (919) 419-8100.

See TarHeelBlue.com for more information on the Roy Williams TV show and for a list of radio stations that carry Carolina broadcasts.

VISITING RADIO

Radio network rights-holders for the visiting teams have four seats on the scorer's table adjacent to the visitors bench. A stat monitor is available and printed stats are provided at each media timeout. Two ISDN lines and two analog lines are provided at no charge.

NBA SCOUTS

There are no scouting seats on press row. Scouting scouts in the stands are available by contacting Jennifer Holbrook in the men's basketball office at (919) 962-1154 or by e-mail at jholbrook@uncaa.unc.edu.

Scouts are not permitted in the media room. Pregame notes, rosters and statistics will be provided when you pick up your ticket.
